JUNIOR'S EYES

I know a little fellow,
Who it seems absurd,
A cunning little fellow,
Not angel or bird,
Who can laugh with his eyes
And not say a word.

He can look as solemn
As a man full grown,
And his little head wobbles
When he sits alone,
But what he is thinking
Will never be known.

But he laughs with his eyes,
This baby of mine,
And the wrinkles run
In a fairy line
Like the drooping lids
Of a June sunshine.

You can take your gold
And all your prize
The emerald sea
And the diamond skies,
But leave me the laughter
In Junior's eyes.

—William Steward Gordon,
Portland, Ore.

It is the custom of the Salem Woman's club to hold a banquet at the first of each club season in honor of the past and present presidents of the organization. This year, however, because of the extra financial burden involved in the purchasing and furnishing of the new club rooms, the club has decided to hold a covered dish luncheon Thursday, October 5, at 2 o'clock in the club rooms. It is hoped that all of the members will attend.

Each woman is expected to bring a dish of food for the luncheon, and enough silver for her own use. In addition to the membership, the Business and Professional Women's club, the Salem Heights club and the Etokta club have been invited to join in the celebration.

Mrs. F. H. Simms, president of the county federation, will be a special guest for the afternoon. It was hoped that Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar would be present, but her vacation plans have interfered with the appointment.

Mrs. Homer Gouley is in charge of the refreshments and Mrs. Carl Weeks will supervise the decorations.

After a vacation during the months of July, August and September, the Rapheterian club will meet for the first time this season at the home of Mrs. H. V. Compson, 255 South Commercial street, next Thursday afternoon. A part of the afternoon's program will be given over to telling of vacation experiences. The officers of the club are: Mrs. Ronald Glover, president; Mrs. Elliot Colony, vice president; Mrs. H. V. Compson, secretary treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. James N. Murray of Portland and Mr. M. J. Gaffney of Stratford, Ont., a brother of Mrs. Murray, were guests Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jaskoski on Chemeketa street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mink of Portland were attendants at the club Thursday. During the day they visited with friends and relatives in Salem. Mrs. Mink, who formerly lived in Marion county and Salem, is a sister of Ronald and Ralph Glover.

Mrs. Alphonse Gillette of Jackson, Mich., is visiting with her mother, Mrs. E. C. Emmel and her sister, Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson. Both Mrs. Gillette and her husband were formerly teachers at Salem high school. For the past year Mr. Gillette has been attending the Garrett Bible school at Northwestern. He is now pastor of the First Methodist church at Jackson, Mich.

Miss Mabel Dotson of Salem and Miss Florence Klamp of Woodburn will leave for Corvallis today to register as juniors in the school of home economics at Oregon Agricultural college.

Mrs. Teresa Finney, whose marriage to Mr. Lawrence Gardner will be celebrated tomorrow at the Joseph's church, has been the inspiration for a number of interesting affairs during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Hays entertained with a dinner Monday evening in honor of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hays entertained with an elaborate dinner Tuesday evening, and Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Shelton were guests for the pleasure of Miss Finney Thursday evening.

The last of the pre-arranged affairs will be the dinner of this evening given by Mr. and Mrs. John Gardner. Covers will be laid for 18 guests.

The seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allport joined with their father and mother in celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Allport have lived in Canada for 25 years, coming here from Canada. Mr. Allport is 73 and his wife 63 years of age. They were married in 1873 in eastern Canada. In addition to their children they have 28 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Mr. Allport has been employed in the Kay Woolen mills for a number of years.

The children who participated in the affair Thursday are: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Allport, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Allport, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hullenberg, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Conger of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Towne of Idaho, Mrs. C. Manning and Mrs. Flora Conger of Salem.

Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, accompanied by Miss Jessica Todd, dead of women at the state normal school, left last night for New York from where they will sail for France on October 15. Both women have been granted leaves of absence from their respective positions, and are planning on traveling in Europe until late in the spring. No definite plans for the trip have been made as it is to be one of leisure and pleasure.

Mrs. C. F. DeLong and Miss Alma Pohle entertained with an attractive party Thursday afternoon at the DeLong residence for the pleasure of Mrs. Merton DeLong of Portland and her sister, Mrs. H. Ostrand of Kansas City. Large bowls of autumn flowers, gladioli and sinias in the bright shades of the season effectively decorated the rooms.

During the hours of 3 to 5 o'clock a number of guests called to meet the honorees and spend a few moments chatting over a cup of tea.

Among those who called during the afternoon were Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Mrs. W. H. Pohle, Mrs. F. I. Utter, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Margaret Fisher, Miss Margaret Cospier, Miss Laura Hale, Mrs. P. U. Graber, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. F. A. Legge, Miss Adella Chapler, Mrs. Ben. amn West, Mrs. B. Blatchford, Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. B. F. Carrier, Mrs. A. L. Ashliman, Mrs. Manson, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. John Graham and the hostess.

Mrs. DeLong and Mrs. Ostrand are guests of Mrs. F. C. DeLong for the week.

Miss Lena Belle Tartar Who Was Soloist with the La Grande Band on Salem Day at the State Fair

The boxes at the night horse shows during the week were gay with visitors from many states, as well as a number of prominent Portland people and Salem society folk. Although only a few boxes were sold for the week, special parties kept them well filled at each performance.

Among the holders of boxes and guests were Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Slade; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley and guests; Mr. and Mrs. E. Edward Grelle of Portland, Mrs. McRoe and her daughter, Miss Louise McRae, of Vancouver, B. C.; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dooty and Margaret Ellen Dooty, Mrs. Z. J. Riggs and other guests; Mr. and Mrs. Natt McDougal of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis, owners of a string of horses; Revel English entertained Mrs. Fred Martin, Mrs. Cronan of Portland, Miss Eulalie Maiden of Spokane, Miss Ruth Burns of Pasadena; Nean West of Portland, H. H. Smith of Medford, Judge Heyl, H. B. Vermylion, secretary and manager of the Washington state fair; Governor Pierce, the directors of the fair board and judges also were among the familiar figures in the boxes.

Other occupants of boxes have been: Mrs. Fred Currey and guests, Florence Howe and Carol Howe; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk; Mrs. Lambert, Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Tongue and sons, Hillsboro; Mrs. Paul E. Froelich and guests; Mrs. James Murphy of Portland, Chester A. Arthur, New York city; Miss Platt, Anna Wheeler, Mrs. Vernon Cartwright, Henry Cabell, Neal Malarkey, Major Vernon Cartwright of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Savage of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bailey of Portland and guest, Mrs. L. M. Herrin; Nina Dressel, J. S. Leavy, G. A. Witt of Goldendale, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Todd of Portland.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The women of the woman's auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church will hold a silver tea Monday afternoon from the hours of 3 until 5 o'clock in the parish house, Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, Mrs. James Olinger and Mrs. G. T. Spencer are the committee in charge of the affair.

The War Mothers will hold their regular meeting Tuesday at 2:30 in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The Civic Music club of Salem will meet with the president, Miss Lena Belle Tartar at her vocal studio Tuesday evening, October 2, at 8 o'clock. All active members are urged to be present. Mr. Frederick Shipman, manager, will be present to complete the plans of organization. Musicians interested in becoming members are invited to attend this meeting.

The women's auxiliary of the St. Paul's Episcopal church will hold a silver tea tomorrow afternoon in the parish house, serving from 3 until 5 o'clock. The committee in charge includes Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, Mrs. James Olinger and Mrs. G. T. Spender.

All young men of the city interested in organizing a Bible study class, under the leadership of Mrs.

Charles Park, are asked to meet at the city library Monday evening, October 1, at 7:30.

The regular meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the First Christian church has been postponed from Friday, October 5, to October 12, in the church parlors, as usual at 2:30.

Miss Lena Belle Tartar, contralto, prominent in the musical circles of the city, was soloist with the La Grande band on Salem day at the state fair. For the past summer Miss Tartar served as soloist with the Cherrian band at the concerts in the city park. Her voice of unusual range and color, ample volume and satisfying carrying power, accounts for her popularity as an open-air singer.

With the opening of school tomorrow, Miss Tartar will resume the direction of the high school chorus which last year numbered 130 voices and featured programs of merit in chorus work and opera. Many of the young vocal soloists of Salem are among her following of personal students.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sorrell will be at home from 2 to 5 o'clock Monday, Oct. 1, to their friends and Englewood neighbors, in honor of Mr. Sorrell's 80th birthday. It will be just a social afternoon for any who care to call. A number of York, Neb., friends are invited for the evening.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson will be sorry to learn of their sudden decision to move to Eugene tomorrow. Mr. Wilson is located in business there, and the son, Kenneth, is attending the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Spaulding of Newberg will be guests for the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cameron and Miss Margaret Kul and of Portland are the house guests this week of Mrs. George Lucas.

Mrs. Charles O. Wilson has had as her guest this past week, her mother, Mrs. W. H. Riddell of Detroit, Oregon. Mrs. Riddell left Friday for her home after a ten day visit here.

An interesting event of Thursday evening was the no host supper party in the main dining room of the Gray Belle, which followed the night horse show. The group who made up the party included a number of owners of strings of horses at the fair and several of the women who are riding in the events at the show. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Cronan, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald West, Miss Nean West, Mrs. C. P. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Natt McDougal, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Davis of Kansas City, Mrs. Douglas Sutherland and Mrs. Hilda McCormick Cooke of Vancouver, B. C., Mrs. Martin's sister, and Judge Heyl.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward of Portland were guests Wednesday and Thursday of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Tweedale and daughter Dorothy are leaving next week for Newport where they plan to take a cottage for a number of months. The Tweedales have sold their home and will stay for the next few days at the Mark Skiff home.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hyde of Marshfield was a guest of Mrs. Charles Elgin for the last day of the fair yesterday. During the first part of the week Mrs. Elgin entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Halvered of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Van Husen of Albany and their families.

Mrs. Lillian M. Clarkson of Portland, impresario, was in Salem Friday arranging for the appearance of the Chamber Music trio, composed of Susie Fennell, Pipes, violinist; Ferdinand Konrad, cello, and J. Hutchison, piano.

The American Association of University Women will meet at luncheon next Saturday, October 6 (the place to be announced later) for their first meeting this season. All women eligible to membership, as well as members of the association, are urged to attend. The program will include music and reminiscences of the convention which was held in Portland in the spring. Mrs. George Alden, Mrs. C. A. Kelly, Mrs. George Hug, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. J. M. Dover and Mrs. Roy Klein will give short talks on their impressions of the convention and the suggestions they have in mind for the local organization.
