

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Flags at Half Mast—
Flags above the Union Oil company's service station are flying at half-mast in memory of Lyman Steward, founder of the corporation, who died last Friday. All stations were closed at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and will not open until 1 o'clock this afternoon. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon.

Young Man—
Wanted at The Spa.—O.2 ff.

Justice Court Has Busy Month—
During September there were filed in the justice court 75 criminal cases, including search warrants, and 27 civil cases. In this time $300 received from fines was turned over to the state.

Girl Wanted—
At The Spa.—O.2 ff.

Employment Agent Returns—
Sim Phillips, agent for the United States employment bureau at the YMCA, returned Monday after spending a part of his two weeks' vacation at the coast. While he was away from Salem U. S. Dotson, principal of the Park school, had charge of the bureau.

Happy Home Dresses—
In another big sale! Watch Millers for more news! O.2

Grass Fire Calls Department—
A grass fire at Seventeenth and Center called out the fire department Sunday afternoon.

Try Others—
Then a Maytag demonstrated in your home by a factory expert. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. O.2

Former Salem Man Visited—
After being out of the city for the past 25 years, Bert Hatch, well known Salem man, was in the city recently greeting old friends. Since leaving Salem Mr. Hatch has been making his home in San Francisco, and is a well-known house mover. Friends recalled yesterday that he was the owner of the first two-wheel velocipede to be seen in the city. Mr. Hatch is a nephew of John Farrar, postmaster.

Julia M. Weigel—
Teacher of Piano. Will be at room 6, Steuiff bldg., Wednesday and Saturday. Residence 1650 S. Church. Phone 1391-R. O.3

Two Pay Traffic Fines—
Speeding within the city fire limits cost Wayne Elgin, 246 South Cottage, $5 when he appeared before Police Judge Foulson yesterday. Walter Iliff was fined $5 for cutting a corner.

Does This Interest You?—
If you are looking for a job, or if you need to employ help, use the city free employment bureau at the Y. M. C. A.—Adv.

Salem Smoke Shop
Next Door Bligh Hotel
Magazines, Films, Candles, Cigars, Charettes, Soft Drinks. We make the best Milk Shake in the City for 10c.
TRY OUR BIRDS ROOT BEER

HYDRO-ELECTRIC THERAPEUTIC INSTITUTE
(Formerly Dr. Schenks)
949 S. Cottage St.
PHONE 1182

For Gifts That Last HARTMAN BROS.
Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry and Silverware
Phone 1555, Salem, Oregon

Salem Ambulance Service
Day and Night
PHONE 666
179 N. Liberty St. Oregon

CAPITAL JUNK CO.
WANTS
All kinds of junk and second-hand goods. We pay full value.
215 Center Street
Phone 398

LADD & BUSH BANKERS
Established 1863
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Traffic Violators Forfeit Bail—
Bail was forfeited yesterday by C. W. Gatterwood, Mill City, arrested Sunday for reckless driving and released under $10 bail. J. H. Crockett, Portland, failed to appear in police court yesterday and forfeited $10. He was arrested for speeding Sunday afternoon.

A Special Display—
Of Palms, Ferns and Foliage plants at C. F. Breithaupt, florist, 123 N. Liberty St. O.3

Women Injured in Wreck—
Mrs. B. E. Smith and Mrs. Louisa Elliott of Milwaukie received minor cuts and bruises Sunday afternoon when the automobile driven by Mr. Smith struck a telephone pole in an effort to avoid another car driven by Chester Daniels of Eugene. The accident occurred at Bush and Commercial streets. The two women were taken to the Willamette sanitarium where their injuries were dressed.

Runaway Captured—
Charles Rogers, who escaped a week ago from the boys' training school was picked up on the street in Portland Sunday by the police. He is the boy who made the escape from the Portland jail recently with Arthur Bartlett.

Jobelman in Kobe—
Fred W. Jobelman, Jr., son of F. W. Jobelman of the Bligh hotel, has written his father from Kobe, Japan, where his ship is now in the harbor to discharge a cargo of grain. The vessel touched the Japanese coast about three days after the earthquake, but could not land at Yokohama because of the devastation caused by the quake.

Reads the Statesman in Canada—
Secretary Kells is in receipt of a letter from Pickardville, Alta., which starts out as follows: "I am a reader of The Statesman and I often see in the paper where you have helped so many people get employment, etc." The Oregon Statesman does the work always, mostly at home, but sometimes in far-off Canada.

Young Man—
Wanted at The Spa.—O.2 ff.

Read in Georgia—
The Oregon Statesman is in receipt of a letter from Shollman, Ga., saying that the copyrighted sermonette published each Sunday was not always orthodox. Thus it is that people all over the country are reading The Statesman and taking note of what is published.

Girl Wanted—
At The Spa.—O.2 ff.

Father Buck Kiwanis Speaker—
Father J. R. Buck of St. Joseph's Catholic church, will continue his address upon his recent European trip for the Kiwanis at their noon-day luncheon at the Marion hotel today. Rodney Johnson, Portland tenor, will sing. He will be accompanied by Miss Eugenia Myers. Both are students in the music department of Willamette university.

Modern Furnished House—
For rent. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. O.2

Taxi Manager Satisfied—
P. F. Fisher, manager of the Red Top Taxi company, is satisfied with the try-out during the state fair and intends to keep his taxis in Salem. Five men are now employed as drivers, the additional man being kept for relief drive.

BEATRICE SHELTON
Teacher of Piano
STUDIOS
Dorby Bldg. Residence
Tues. Wed. Thurs. Mon. Fri. Sat.
Phone 304. Phone 1398

ELMA WELLES
PIANIST
Tone production through Modern Weight Relaxation Dunning System
For Foundation
Phone 1361
Studio 685 N. Liberty St.

OSTEOPATHY
The Original and Genuine Spinal Adjustment Treatment. Skillful, Painless Adjustment that gets results.
DR. L. C. MARSHALL
Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon
228 Oregon Bldg. Salem.

506 U. S. National Bank Building
Phone 659 Res. Phone 4657
DR. B. H. WHITE
Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon
Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment
(Dr. Abrams' Method)
Salem Oregon

ing. Three of the machines are on duty during the daytime, while two are available for night calls. Local men will be employed in the near future, Mr. Fisher said, although he will remain in charge of the Salem office.

Maytag Washers—
Being demonstrated by factory expert. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. O.2

Legion to Hold First Meeting—
Salem post of the American legion will hold its first meeting of the winter season at the armory this evening. Although armistice day is still two months in the future, plans are being formulated for its observance. These are expected to occupy the greatest portion of the meeting tonight.

Cashier Wanted—
Young lady wanted for steady position in theatre box office. Write P. O. box 88, give references.—O. 2.

Hop Picking Nearly Ended—
With the exception of picking in the vicinity of Oregon City and some clean-up work around Corvallis and Independence, harvest of the 1923 crop will be completed this week by the J. M. Seavey Hop company.

Business Good During Fair—
That business was exceptionally good during the state fair was the opinion of several of the downtown business men. Crowds were not all out at the fair grounds, they said, and out-of-town visitors found time to do considerable shopping.

Lessons in Singing—
Lena Belle Tartar reopens her vocal studio Oct. 1. Beginners and advanced students accepted. Tone fundamentals, phrasing, diction, interpretation. Special class features. Phone 334 for appointments. Studio, 164 N. Liberty St.—Adv.

Prunes are being canned by the Producers Canning & Packing company, and the season will be continued for about 10 days, it was stated yesterday. The fruit received is said to be of good quality.

Bicycle Is Damaged—
Though his bicycle was damaged when it was struck by an automobile driven by C. W. Chambers, 712 North Church, W. F. McAdams, rider of the bicycle, escaped without injury, according to a report made at the police station.

Tillamook Line Short—
According to a complaint filed with the public service commission a serious car shortage exists on the Tillamook branch of the Southern Pacific. The commission is attempting to secure relief for the shippers on that branch.

Girl Wanted—
At The Spa.—O.2 ff.

Rates Increased—
The McMinnville Telephone company has filed with the public service commission a new tariff schedule increasing rates on residence phones. Unless there is a protest and the schedule is suspended by the commission it will become effective November 1.

Hawkins & Roberts—
City loans; lowest rates.—Adv.

Locates in Salem—
P. H. Acton, representing the Northwest Mutual Life Insurance company, and family have become residents of Salem after motoring through several western states to select a location. Mr. Acton said that he was more favorably impressed with Salem than any other prospective location he found.

Young Man—
Wanted at The Spa.—O.2 ff.

Petitions Filed—
Thomas Greger Bligh, hotel and theatre manager, and Marie Charlotte Zirkel, housekeeper, yesterday filed petitions for naturalization. Mr. Bligh is a native of Great Britain and Mrs. Zirkel of Germany. They will be up for hearing February 6.

Happy Home Dresses—
In another big sale! Watch Millers for more news! O.2

Bank Files Suit—
The United States National bank yesterday filed suit against M. Jacoby, Portland Jeweler, for the recovery of money paid the Portland man by Albert Preston, alias Albert Morton, for jewelry which the Portland man did not give to Preston, alias Morton. The purchaser had secured the money from the bank under false pretenses and the plaintiff holds that the property of the bank and asks that it be returned to it. The sum is fixed at $531.75.

Universal Heaters—
H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. O.2

Selling Hogs—
H. W. Baillie, rural school supervisor, took a carload of hogs to Portland yesterday. They belonged to the boys and girls of the county and were on exhibit last week.

Maytag Washers—
Are best. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co., exclusive agents. O.2

Lyons Man in Trouble—
When R. R. Trask, Lyons, struck another car on the Pacific highway near Hubbard Sunday afternoon his troubles began. He was arrested for not having a driver's license and cited to appear in police court yesterday. This he failed to do and forfeited $10 bail.

Bicycle Is Claimed—
C. W. Widick called at the police station yesterday and claimed the bicycle found at Fifteenth and Oak by Officers Thompson and Edwards.

Happy Home Dresses—
In another big sale! Watch Millers for more news! O.2

Woman Struck by Motorist—
While driving along the Fairgrounds road Sunday morning, Olaf Eckstrom, Portland, struck a woman who stepped from behind a street car. Eckstrom did not learn her name, he reported to the police, but she was not injured.

Hoboes Beginning Migration—
Cooler weather in the north is causing weary wanderers of the road and those seeking a milder climate for the winter to move south, according to Officer Victor, who patrols the railroad yards at night. The number on the road over the week-end was greatly increased by attendants at the state fair, he said, who were moving with the concessions without bothering about car fare.

Bicycle Is Damaged—
Though his bicycle was damaged when it was struck by an automobile driven by C. W. Chambers, 712 North Church, W. F. McAdams, rider of the bicycle, escaped without injury, according to a report made at the police station.

Tillamook Line Short—
According to a complaint filed with the public service commission a serious car shortage exists on the Tillamook branch of the Southern Pacific. The commission is attempting to secure relief for the shippers on that branch.

Girl Wanted—
At The Spa.—O.2 ff.

Rates Increased—
The McMinnville Telephone company has filed with the public service commission a new tariff schedule increasing rates on residence phones. Unless there is a protest and the schedule is suspended by the commission it will become effective November 1.

Hawkins & Roberts—
City loans; lowest rates.—Adv.

Locates in Salem—
P. H. Acton, representing the Northwest Mutual Life Insurance company, and family have become residents of Salem after motoring through several western states to select a location. Mr. Acton said that he was more favorably impressed with Salem than any other prospective location he found.

Young Man—
Wanted at The Spa.—O.2 ff.

Petitions Filed—
Thomas Greger Bligh, hotel and theatre manager, and Marie Charlotte Zirkel, housekeeper, yesterday filed petitions for naturalization. Mr. Bligh is a native of Great Britain and Mrs. Zirkel of Germany. They will be up for hearing February 6.

Happy Home Dresses—
In another big sale! Watch Millers for more news! O.2

Bank Files Suit—
The United States National bank yesterday filed suit against M. Jacoby, Portland Jeweler, for the recovery of money paid the

May Employ Attorney—
Attorney General Van Winkle has written an opinion in reply to an inquiry by Governor Pierce, holding that a county court has authority to employ an attorney to advise the county tax supervising and conservation commission. The inquiry reached the governor from R. E. Bradbury, chairman of the Klamath county commission where W. A. Wiest has been employed to aid the commission.

Palms, Ferns—
And Foliage Plants, just what you are looking for, at C. F. Breithaupt, florist, 123 N. Liberty St. O.4

Will Stay Inside—
W. M. Crosby, trustee from the state penitentiary, who was arrested by the Salem police Saturday on charges of speeding, reckless driving and driving without an operator's permit, was released to Warden Johnson S. Smith on condition that Smith keep him inside the prison walls, which the warden agreed to do. A fine of $30 imposed on Crosby was remitted. Crosby was originally sentenced to serve 25 years for assault with a dangerous weapon in Portland, but his sentence was commuted to six years by Acting Governor Ritter.

Sheridan Man Lucky—
Walter M. Wood of Sheridan, Oregon, drew the lucky number, 2476, at our display at the state fair. Mr. Wood wins the portable talking machine of the Tallman Piano Store, 395 South Twelfth street.—O. 2.

Coming Under Law—
Truck operators in the Hood River district, engaged in hauling fruit and who were inclined to override the law relative to obtaining licenses from the state public service commission, are now coming under the law, according to members of the commission. It is said that 23 operators now have licenses as against six at the time the commission began checking up on them about two weeks ago.

Fire's Out—
Smoke all gone and business at the Parker Studio is again in progress.—Adv.

Truck Is Turned Over—
After running a short distance on two wheels, a delivery truck owned by the Roth Grocery company turned over at High and Ferry yesterday afternoon after being struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. Thomas H. Clark, 1145 Cross. The truck was uprigit by bystanders, and chugged off under its own power. The Clark machine received a bent fender in the collision.

Trade In—
Your old range on a new Universal. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. O.2

Minor Accident Reported—
No damage was done yesterday when an automobile driven by George D. McClure, 218 North Liberty, and Mrs. Anna Bligh, 325 North High, collided. Both reported the accident.

Pay Taxes Without Penalty—
Friday will be the last day to pay the taxes for the last half of 1922 without an additional penalty, Sheriff Oscar Bower said yesterday. Taxpayers are generally coming in early, he said, and the response so far has been good.

Traffic Violators in Court—
Poor brakes cost Arthur W. Landers $10 yesterday when he appeared before Judge Kuntz in justice court. Fred Vanderlip

A Good Thing - DON'T MISS IT.
Send your name and address plainly written together with 5 cents (and this slip) to Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa, and receive in return a trial package containing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, "flu" and whooping cough, and tickling throat; Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for stomach troubles, indigestion, gassy pains that crowd the heart, biliousness and constipation; Chamberlain's Salve, needed in every family for burns, scalds, wounds, piles, and skin affections; these valued family medicines for only 5 cents. Don't miss it.

You May Die
But
If the proper and careful filling of your doctor's prescription will save your life
We Will Save It
NEIMEYER DRUG STORE
175 N. Com'l St.,
PHONE 167

PERSONALS
Business called Allen Kafoury to Portland yesterday. He expects to be out of the city for about a week.
S. F. Haace, Castle Rock, Wash., was in the city yesterday for optical attention by Dr. H. E. Morris. The trip was made to Salem for the purpose of receiving glasses.
F. A. Kurts, of the Kings Products company, spent Monday in Dallas.
C. C. Kelly, division engineer of the state highway department, has returned after a leave of absence of six weeks.
Karl Hinges, who recently vacated a position in the state industrial accident commission, is now with the automobile division of the state department.

52 GET THROUGH STATE BAR TESTS
(Continued from page 1.)
Eben, Joseph, Ore.; Gladys M. Everett, Portland; Bert T. Ford, Salem; Edwin Foster, Portland; Harry Fraser, Portland; W. O. Gressman, Pendleton, Ore.; Earl B. Hallmark, Waldport, Ore.; Joseph C. Hedges, Oregon City; Daniel W. Hoffman, Portland; Frederick L. Howard, Jr., Portland; Glenn R. Jack, Oregon City; Henry H. Kiepping, Salem; Christian J. Kowitz, Salem; George D. LaRoche, Portland; Jack Levin, Portland; Forrest E. Littlefield, Portland; Donald E. Long, Hillsboro, Ore.; Ryland Eugene McClung, Portland; Edward Taylor McCulloch, Eugene; Mrs. Birdie McKenzie, Portland; Eugene Ervin Marsh, Metolius, Ore.; Francis Ervin Marsh, Metolius, Ore.; Fred A. Miller, Gladstone.

Strange Woman Returns Valuables to Mrs. Hunt
Mrs. J. T. Hunt lost a handbag containing $24 in cash, several checks and some valuable and prized jewelry, at the night show, Thursday night.
Having searched everywhere for the bag she called at the office of the secretary, Fred Currier, and had not been turned in there. Just as she was leaving the office her granddaughter came to tell her that a woman had left the bag at the Hunt cottage just outside the fairgrounds gate.
The finder was a stranger in town but finding Mrs. Hunt's name on a card in the purse, and seeing the name J. T. Hunt on the cottage, stopped at the door to return the purse. She left Mrs. J. T. Hunt lost a handbag without leaving her name.

WANTED
100 Women and 20 Men
For Canning Dept.
Work on Pears
Report for Work
8 A. M. Tuesday, Oct. 2
King's Food Products Co.

My! What Values
Is the expression heard from Hundreds of people. You too would say, what wonderful values are offered this week in our children's department. Come in today and see these many bargains for yourself.
School Shoes for the Children at a Great Saving
Walk-Over Shoes For Men and Women $7.00 TO $11.00 The Quality Shoe
Do Your Feet Hurt? Wizard Arch Supports Fitted by our Expert, will give you instant relief. SEE HIM
Bergmann Shoes For Outdoor Wear Men and Boys Try a Pair on - See How They Fit. True Value All Through Stickles Shoes Made to Wear By The Way Their Made For Growing Girls

Stickles and Oro High Top Boots
The High Tops That Fit and Wear
12-inch $7.75
16-inch tops $8.95
JOHN J. ROTTLE
The Walk Over Store
167 N. Commercial

PERSONALS
Business called Allen Kafoury to Portland yesterday. He expects to be out of the city for about a week.
S. F. Haace, Castle Rock, Wash., was in the city yesterday for optical attention by Dr. H. E. Morris. The trip was made to Salem for the purpose of receiving glasses.
F. A. Kurts, of the Kings Products company, spent Monday in Dallas.
C. C. Kelly, division engineer of the state highway department, has returned after a leave of absence of six weeks.
Karl Hinges, who recently vacated a position in the state industrial accident commission, is now with the automobile division of the state department.

Strange Woman Returns Valuables to Mrs. Hunt
Mrs. J. T. Hunt lost a handbag containing $24 in cash, several checks and some valuable and prized jewelry, at the night show, Thursday night.
Having searched everywhere for the bag she called at the office of the secretary, Fred Currier, and had not been turned in there. Just as she was leaving the office her granddaughter came to tell her that a woman had left the bag at the Hunt cottage just outside the fairgrounds gate.
The finder was a stranger in town but finding Mrs. Hunt's name on a card in the purse, and seeing the name J. T. Hunt on the cottage, stopped at the door to return the purse. She left Mrs. J. T. Hunt lost a handbag without leaving her name.

AFTER EVERY MEAL
WRIGLEYS
Sealed for You
Wrigley's is made of pure chicle and other ingredients of highest quality obtainable.
But it is no use to make WRIGLEY'S 100% in quality and then reach you in poor condition.
So we put it in the wax-wrapped package and SEALED IT TIGHT to keep it good - for you.
Aids digestion - keeps teeth white - helps appetite.
Save the Wrappers They are good for valuable presents

Webb & Clough
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers
Rigdon & Son's
MORTUARY