SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—The San Francisco Seals clinched their second successive Pacific coast league pennant today when they won their fourth straight game from Sacramento, their closest rivals, 9 to 5. The champions have been in the lead from the start of the season.

Manager Ellison's men won today in the seventh inning when they pounded out six hits for as many runs, sending Pitcher Yellowhorse to the clubhouse. Vala's single with two men on the paths sent across the runs that tied the score and sewed up the hunting for the Seals.

Chemawa and Linfield
Play Football Today

Chemawa's football warriors will remain at home and play Linfield college, McMinnville, this afternoon instead of meeting the Gonzaga aggregation at Spokane. The two teams are about evenly matched and a good contest is anticipated.

The game with Gonzaga was cancelled by Coach George L. Bent, who believed that the Indians could not offer their opponents a brand of ball at this time that would warrant the expense of making the trip. Chemawa was defeated in Portland last Saturday by the High School of Commerce by a score of 27 to 7.

PITCHING STAFFS ARE MADE KNOWN

Four of McGraw's Men Were Formerly on Boston
Braves Payroll

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Four pitching veterans—all former members of the Boston Braves—are being groomed carefully by Manager McGraw of the world's champion Giants to match speed and curves with the all-star Yankee array in the world's series that begins next Wednesday. Upon them McGraw pins much of his hopes for a third successive world championship.

The quartet are Jack Scott, twirling hero of the Giant triumph last year; "Silent John" Wilson, a 1923 addition to the staff; McQuillan, whose acquisition last season helped turn the pennant tide in favor of the Giants, and Art Nehf, diminutive southpaw star.

Nehf, Scott and McQuillan accounted for three of the 1922 series victories over the Yankees, while Nehf twirled the deciding victory for the McGraw men in the eighth game of the 1921 classic.

On paper, the Yankee mainstays—Jones, Hoyt, Bush, Penneck and Shawkey—outclass the Giant moundmen, but memories of the 1922 reversal, when the Giant staff came through with flying colors while their rivals cracked, have prompted the belief that McGraw may again run his squad into winning condition.

Nehf, McGraw believes, is at the top of his form, after a somewhat erratic season. The little southpaw blanketed Brooklyn in the game which enabled the Giants to clinch the 1923 flag and is likely to twirl the opening contest against the Yankees.

The Western Winter Poultry and Rabbit Show held in conjunction with the Pacific International Live Stock Exposition, Nov. 3-10, is one of its chief charms and principal attractions. There will be a full house in that department.

Commercial Basketball Is Again to Operate Though the YMCA

Managers of six basketball teams met with R. R. Boardman at the YMCA last night to work out plans for the coming season. With six teams assured and prospects of two others coming into the league, it is expected that 50 or more men will be in competition this year. The games will be played on the armory floor instead of the YMCA floor, it was decided. While the schedule was not made last night, the first of the games will begin the week of November 5, and the complete schedule arranged next week.

Teams which will be seen in action this season are being entered by Anderson & Brown; Hauser Brothers; Company F, national guard; Central pharmacy; Standard Oil and the United States National bank. In addition to these it is anticipated that both the American Legion and the Valley Motor company will try their luck in the league.

The sheep show or the Pacific International Live Stock Exposition has always been so good that it is hard to improve on it. It promises to be as good as they make them this year. A new breed is added—Suffolks. The angora and milk goat division will be larger than usual.
