

SOCIETY

By BETTI KESSI, Phone 106.

Mrs. Mary K. Logan, former state president of PEO, and Mrs. Parks, of Portland, also a former state officer of the sisterhood, will be among the guests of Chapter G, PEO on October 18, which has been set aside as a special guest day for the chapter. A number of delegates to the national convention recently held in Seattle are expected to be among the visitors. Each member of the chapter will be entitled to one personal guest.

A special afternoon of music is being arranged for the occasion by Mrs. Laura Grant Churchill which will include numbers by well known musicians of the city.

Members of the Phoenix society at the high school were honored at a line party at the Oregon theater Tuesday evening. After the theater the maids proceeded to the rose room at the Spa where the tables were attractively decorated in purple and lavender for the informal supper.

The guests of the evening were, Miss Hazel Paden, faculty adviser for the group, and her guest, Miss Humphrey from the Washington junior high school, Miss Gladys Murphy, Miss Dorothy Hobson, Miss Maxine Rensrou, Miss Frances Nates, Miss Fay Woltz, Miss Dorothy Bollen.

The members of the club who were in the party were Miss Hazel George, Miss Florence Busch, Miss Dorelle Anderson, Miss Fay Waasan, Miss Jenny Hoppes, Miss Luella Church, Miss Daisy Collins, and Miss Pauline Marnach.

Among other important issues to be brought before the business meeting of the Salem Woman's club, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in the club house, will be the election of delegates for the county federation meeting in Jefferson, October 25.

Proceeding the regular meeting, the executive board will hold session at 2 o'clock. The usual tea hour will follow the business interval. Mrs. Harry Styles, chairman of the music committee, is preparing a musical program that will be of special appeal to the women.

The hostesses for the social hour will be Mrs. T. C. Smith, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. David W. Eyre, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. J. L. Rand, and Mrs. J. A. Churchill.

Elaborate preparations are under way for the Harvest social to be given in the Leslie Methodist church parlors tomorrow evening by the members of the Epworth league. Miss Elaine Cooper, fourth vice president of the league with a committee of helpers are in charge of the affair. It is hoped that a large number of young people will come to share in the evening of games and good times.

To greet the Reverend H. F. Pemberton and Mrs. Pemberton as they enter upon their third year of work with the Leslie Methodist church, a pot-luck chicken supper has been planned for the members and friends of the congregation this evening at the church at the hour of 6:30. This will afford the opportunity for a community get-together and good times.

The congregation of the Jason Lee Methodist church will hold a picnic supper at 6:30 tomorrow in the church, at which time the annual budget will be presented. John L. Brady will make the address of the evening.

Mrs. Frederick Lampert will be hostess to the Bridge Luncheon club this afternoon. This will be the first of the series of luncheons and afternoons of bridge which will be given during the winter. During the summer the club entertained with a series of bridge teas.

Mrs. H. S. Logan of Tualatin spent yesterday in Salem at the home of her son, C. K. Logan. Mrs. Logan is former state president of PEO.

FOR BEAUTY'S SAKE

By JANE HILL.

Every real woman wants to be beautiful, so those who are not born so must use whatever means and artistry are at hand.

Complexions, are, of course, of primary importance. But the woman whose skin isn't in good condition, and who refuses to deny herself sweets or meats, or whatever it is that experience proves is not kind to her—that woman has disqualified herself for instruction at the very start. Drinking water might clear her complexion—glasses and glasses of water, one every time she thinks of it. But this, too, takes patience in keeping it up. Exercise will work wonders, particularly if taken under a trained instructor. But some women have so little will-power, even in pursuit of their own ends, that a course of action of any kind seems impossible to them. And yet, nothing in the way of cosmetics, colors or well chosen clothes will disguise fundamentally unhealthy skin conditions. Do, for beauty's sake, attack your problem strenuously, if strenuous methods are needed.

Little Things about the Complexion.

Cold cream at night, well massaged in (a thin film in the daytime as a basis for powder) rouge of the right shade, well placed, or emphasize high cheek bones by a spot at the top—the right powder to blend with the natural tint of the skin—these may all be worked out individually, and are well worth the effort.

The powder question, by the way, is not only very important, but much neglected. Half the women who use white powder should substitute brunette; almost all of the remainder should declare for flesh color unless, in individual cases, it is found better to blend one's own powder, using a little of this and a little of that until the exact shade of one's skin is attained. Except to accentuate the fashionable pallor which some women affect as a background for a Cupid's bow of brilliant lipstick, white powder has no place on the human countenance. And it is only the exceptional woman—willing to make a French poster of herself, and able to live up to the exotic if decorative effect of it—who should attempt this bloomless makeup. To look extraordinary may be very good on Broadway, permissible on Fifth Avenue or Michigan Boulevard, but against the quiet background of one's local Main street, it would probably be in very bad taste.

A word more as to makeup—don't forget that your head isn't an isolated phenomenon. It exists only as a continuation of your face, and leave a brown column below it.

Mr. Lyle Bechner and Miss Verda Vincent were quietly married at the parsonage of the Court street Christian church yesterday morning at the hour of 9:30 by the pastor, the Rev. R. L. Putnam. Mrs. Bechner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Vincent on Garden road, and Mr. Bechner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bechner of Clear Lake. After a few days in Portland, the young couple will make their home near Clear Lake.

Previous to the wedding, the bride-elect was entertained at an attractive dinner-party at the home of Mrs. F. A. Baker, Monday evening, Tuesday evening the members of the Loyal Fifties

Sunday school class of the Court street Christian church gave a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Bechner in the church parlors.

Mrs. Harry Zelsdorf and children, Robert and Lois Marie, returned the first of the week from Orland, Cal., where they spent a month visiting with Mrs. Zelsdorf's mother, Mrs. Mary Cantwell, and uncle, Dr. R. D. Speck.

Proceeding the social meeting of the Monday night dancing club, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding entertained with an attractive dinner for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyers, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Compton. Fall flowers in yellow formed a pretty centerpiece for the lovely table appointments.

Over 50 women were present at the meeting of the WFMS of the First Methodist church which met at the home of Mrs. B. E. Carrier of Court street yesterday afternoon. Devotions were led by Mrs. M. C. Findley, after which Mrs. C. E. Powell, the president of the organization, gave a report of the branch meeting which held session last week at Walla Walla, Wash. This year is to be young people's year for the WFMS, it was decided at the meeting. Next year the branch meeting will be held in Bellingham, Wash., and in 1925 Salem is the appointed place of meeting. During the session Mrs. Powell appeared several times on the program, besides which she spoke twice at the special Sunday services.

After the business hour the remainder of the afternoon was spent in a social way, chatting over the tea cups.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford, Mrs. H. M. Durckheimer, Mrs. L. L. McAdams, Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. Mary Roeschen and Mrs. F. C. De Long.

Miss Iala Gilbert was appointed agent for supplies at the branch meeting of the WFMS of the Methodist church which met at Walla Walla October 9 to 13. This will necessitate her moving to Portland where she will have an office in the Artisan building and handle supplies for Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana. Miss Gilbert has charge of the young people's rally Friday evening at the district meeting at Forest Grove.

Mrs. C. E. Powell will give an address at the meeting.

At the regular meeting of Barbara Fritchie Tent, Daughters of Veterans, held Wednesday evening, Miss Julia Webster, department president, gave a report of the national convention held early in September in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, at the same time as the national encampment of the GAR and the national conventions of the other allied organizations. She said in part:

"Milwaukee treated its guests royally. Our badges were accepted as street-car fare. Autos were always at hand bearing placards 'GAR Hop In,' and the Boy Scouts were everywhere, everyday, from early morning until every frisky old veteran was safely in for the night. By the end of the week the little fellows looked tired-eyed, but they were still game. The business men of the city were also cordially at our service. Our order wished some flowers for memorial and other occasions and when they arrived from the florists there was a true load of fresh, wonderful gladioli.

"The GAR parade was of course the event of the week, and was an hour in length. The Sons of Veterans were the official escort and marched with heads up and a spring to their step which showed the pride they felt in their heritage. The veterans wore out for their annual play-spell and were not to be outdone by the younger fry in responding to the martial music and the gaiety of the occasion.

"Our session opened with its memorial service, in which President Harding was remembered as a member of the Sons of Veterans and an obligated member of our order.

"During the week we had many guests from the GAR and they were always an inspiration and we delighted to do them honor.

"Oregon was given special mention in the president's report, for its growth during the year, its winning the $10.00 prize for the largest tent organized in the United States, its extensive 'good cheer' to the comrades' program and its persistent and unique methods of spreading information as to the proper use of the flag, mentioning our radio message on that subject broadcasted from the Oregonian tower on the evening of July 3.

"I was proud of our small organization in every way. They gave the GAR $800.00 for its use wherever needed, which was quite a gift considering the proportionate size of the order.

"The presiding genius of the convention, Mrs. Lola S. Elliott of Des Moines, Iowa, was gracious, efficient officer, and the members of the convention were business-like, capable, charming women, who carried on the business creditably and harmoniously and at no time lost sight of the objects of the organization."

All arrangements for the annual Junior Guild dance to be given in the armory on October 19 were completed at the meeting of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's church which took place in the parish house Tuesday afternoon. One of the big features of the dance this year will be the appearance of the Portland Telephone quartet, which will sing during the dancing and intermissions. An eight piece orchestra has been selected from among the best musicians in Salem especially for this occasion.

Mrs. William Walton has charge of the ticket sale this year, and they may be obtained from any of the members of the guild.

Mrs. Charles H. Hay of Wray, Colo., and Mrs. Emma R. White of Portland, were guests yesterday of Mrs. B. E. Sisson. Mrs. Hay is the organizer of the PEO in the state of Colorado and is now on her way home from the convention which met last week in Seattle. During the day, Mrs. Sisson drove the visitors about the county on a sightseeing tour, and Mrs. Hay was most enthusiastic about the scenery Salem has to offer.

The young women employees in the executive offices of the Oregon Fruit Grower's Co-operative association met at the home of Miss Mabel Updegraff, Tuesday evening for a surprise kitchen shower, given in honor of Miss Bella Schroeder whose marriage to Philip Fahnlander of this city, will be an event of the near future.

The evening was happily passed in chatting, with a group of piano solos volunteered by Mrs. Ethel Lau. Mrs. Colla West also sang several songs for the pleasure of the occasion. Dainty refreshments were served to the guests later in the evening.

It is easy to condemn a preacher who goes wrong, if you never have been courted by a few emotional women in the name of religion."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Salem Woman's club will meet for an important business session Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the club house. The executive board will meet at 2 o'clock for the half hour preceding the regular meeting.

The Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae club will meet this evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Allan Carson at 765 Ferry street. All Thetas in the city are invited to attend the meeting and join the group.

The OAC club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cupper, 805 Union street this evening.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Christian church will meet in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon at the hour of 2:30.

The Ladies' Aid of the WRC will hold an all-day meeting at the armory today. Each member is reminded to bring dishes and silver for her own use for the pot-luck luncheon.

The Highland Parent-Teachers will meet at the school house this afternoon at 3:30.

Friends and neighbors of the Central Congregational church are invited to come this evening at 7:30 for an evening of music and entertainment. It is the plan of those in charge that this will prove to be an occasion of better acquaintance among all in the community whose interest in any way centers in this church. Parents of the children in the Sunday school are particularly welcome and will find in this a splendid opportunity to better know the people who are carrying on this service for the children of this community.

Rally and Promotion day will be observed next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, and again the invitation is cordially extended parents and friends of the Sunday school children.

The Federated clubs of Salem will meet tomorrow evening in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 7:30. Plans for the year will be outlined. The part the federation will take in the highway dedication of October 25, will also be discussed.

Father J. R. Buck will deliver a lecture, "Impressions of Europe," this evening at 8 o'clock in the Knights of Columbus hall in the McCornack building. No admission will be charged and everybody is invited to attend.

RECOVERERS FROM CROUP

"My boy had a very bad attack of croup. Tried everything but nothing did him much good. Then I used Foley's Honey and Tar and he not only recovered quickly but he has had no trouble since," writes Mrs. William Sims, Burlington, Wyoming. Coughs, colds and croup quickly relieved with Foley's Honey and Tar, the largest selling cough medicine in the World. Free from opiates—ingredients printed on the wrapper. Sold everywhere.—Adv.
