Schenck Wins Verdict-

The jury yesterday brought in a verdict for the defendant, C. J. Schenck, in the case of Engle vs. Schenck. Adam Engle asked damages of $276.96 which he claimed was still due him for work moving and remodeling the old Breyman building which formerly stood at Church and State street. C. J Schenck had filed a cross-complaint and asked for damges of $1678 in a counter claim. The jury denied the damages, while giving the verdict to the defend

Van Koten Wins Case-

George Van Koten, a black smith of Marion county, received a favorable verdict from the jury n a case against the state industrial accident commission yesterday. A rock crushing firm took Van Koten to its plant to make some repairs, and while doing so he was injured. He put in a claim for compensation, but the commission turned it down on the grounds that he was not an employe of the company, but was an ndependent contractor. Van Koten contended that since he was working under the direction of the foreman he was entitled to compensation. This was upheld by morning at the Catholic church the court. The case will be ap pealed to the supreme court.
