The Woman's Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will hold the regular monthly meeting in the church parlors Friday, Oct. 26, at 2:30 in the afternoon. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Frank Power, Mrs. John McCourt, Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. N. M. Finkbinder, Mrs. H. B. Glaisyer, Mrs. A. T. Wain and Mrs. Max O. Buren.

Another delightful social occasion was the party of last evening when Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Henderson entertained a group of friends at their lovely new bungalow home on South of Fourteenth street. Grinning Jack o' lanterns, black witches, arch-backed cats, and wise old owls more than suggested the approach of Hallowe'en. Jardines of rose berries and autumn leaves, with bowls of marigolds and dahlias were effectively used in the decorative scheme. The guests were greeted at the door by little Mary Frances Henderson and Velma Wagner, attracted in attractive Hallowe'en costumes. The evening was happily spent at a number of clever games which had been arranged by the hostess for the occasion. Before the party adjourned the guests were served refreshments in the form of delicious pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee.

Guests for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barker, Mrs. L. A. Kezar, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Don Worden, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Ben G. Wocike, Miss Dorothy Kezar, Miss Velma Wagner, and the host and hostess and their little daughter, Mary Frances.

The many friends of Miss Mary West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wharton L. West, who is attending the University of Oregon, will be pleased to hear that she was the only freshman to be appointed on the staff of the "Emerald" the college daily newspaper, when appointments were made the first of this week.

This is considered quite an honor, as there were many upperclassmen trying out that were not successful.

The newly organized Willing Workers' class of the First Christian church met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Will May, on North Capitol street, last Wednesday evening. A business session was called, and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Guy Wilcox, secretary, Mrs. E. Carper, treasurer, Mrs. Slier. Delicious refreshments of punch and cookies were served during the evening by the hostess.

This is a newly organized class composed of young married couples and business women of the church. All persons interested are cordially invited to join the class on Sunday mornings.

The following members were present for the first meeting: Mrs. C. W. Macy, Mrs. Helen Dickson, Mrs. C. W. Elgin, Mrs. Pearl Wood, Mrs. Irene Nash, Mrs. J. W. Richardson, Mrs. Guy Wilcox, Mrs. Harvey Stanton, Mrs. Marguerite Branson, Mrs. Slier, Mrs. R. Carper, Mrs. R. E. Petes, and Mrs. May.

"As we have opportunity let us work" is the theme of the county Christian Endeavor convention which will hold session at the Highland Friends church, October 26, 27 and 28. Although the program is not yet complete, the keynote address has been announced for Friday evening when a state worker will address the convention upon the subject of "Opportunity." Saturday afternoon and evening will be devoted to four periods each of classes to be held with various conference leaders. The leaders thus far known have been announced as Miss Viola Ogden, a state worker from Portland, Mrs. Kate Bothmann also a state worker from Portland, and two Salem leaders, Miss Edna Jennison, who will have charge of classes in mission work, and Miss Vera Lull. A cafeteria lunch will be served on Saturday, and in the evening a six o'clock banquet will be given in the church.

The Reverend Ward Willis Long will address the convention delegates at 7:45 in the evening upon the topic, "Personal Application of our Opportunity." The program for Sunday will be as follows, with possibly some additions: Sunday morning at 8 o'clock there will be an opportunity banquet in the church. At 3:30 in the afternoon there will be a missionary address by the Reverend Edward Mott of Portland, upon the subject, "As We Have Opportunity Let Us Work Good to All Men." The union Christian Endeavor prayer meeting under the leadership of Paul Poling, a brother of Dan Poling, the vice president of the international association of Christian Endeavor. The convention will close with a church address at the hour of eight, the subject "Our Opportunity for Church Loyalty," by the Reverend I. G. Lee.

The Community Nose
By E. G.
Mine's a story old—
I have a bad cold;
But—from top of the head to the tip of my toes
I am glad today,
In most gladful way,
That I am unable to breathe thru my nose;
or the odor, I'm told,
Has today been so bold,
It has almost made citizens wish to turn "cold."

I allude to the smell
Of the fumes (shall I tell?)
Like those from the naughty, bad place they call—well,
The sulphurized, barbarized place,
I don't you know—
The place not a one of us e'er wants to go.
But the smell—we have here!
And 'most makes me fear
That awfully naughty, bad place is more near
Than it really ought to be—isn't that queer
In our beautiful Salem?
And therefore let's trail 'em,
'Til Council and County out-wit or out-wall 'em!

Now that the Salem Woman's club is comfortably settled in their new club house, plans for the free study classes are well under way. After a busy week of appointments and the outlining of the courses by the appointed leaders, the club is ready to announce definite information on the work that is planned for the club year, the active work of which closes in May. The following announcement comes from the press committee of the club:

All members of the Salem Woman's club are urged to join one or more of the study classes presented to them free of charge. These classes meet under capable leaders once in every two weeks, beginning this month and lasting until May. This gives you an opportunity to fill your spare time with profitable and constructive reading. Carefully read the courses outlined below, make your selections at once and telephone some time this week. The following classes will be organized if a sufficient number of women indicate such a desire:

1. Political science—Miss Mattie Beatty, leader. In general the work of this class will be a study of the fundamentals of government—both state and federal. Questions of common interest, such as the vital question of
