Name _____
Address _____
Town _____ RFD _____ State _____
Nominated by _____

A candidate may nominate him or herself or be nominated by a friend.

NEW Overland CHAMPION

Front seat adjusts to three positions to accommodate short driver or tall driver.

Rear seat also adjustable to accommodate tall or short people.

America's Only Versatile Car

Another Innovation

The greatest creation in Willys-Overland history—the first all-purpose car—the new Overland Champion! Features and utilities never before offered the salesman, merchant, farmer and American family!

Front and rear seats adjustable forward and backward for short people and tall people! Front and rear seats and upholstery entirely removable—50 cubic feet clear space for samples, luggage—anything—by removing rear seat and upholstery! Seats and upholstery make up into a full sized bed in the car!

Doors front and rear—no seat-climbing! Trunk at rear at small extra price. Washable blue long-grain Spanish upholstery. Steel body. Bigger new engine. Triplex springs (Patented). Overland quality, reliability and economy. Come in and see the Champion.

Purchased From Vick Bros., Salem, Oregon

Both seats and upholstery make into a full-length, full-width bed in car for camping.

50 cu. ft. of space for farm produce, luggage, etc., by removing rear seat and upholstery.

Information, Rules and Conditions of the Oregon Statesman's Big Automobile Contest

Any person over 14 years old, who is of good character, married or unmarried, old or young, is eligible to compete in this Salesmanship Club Campaign. Children under 14 years of age are only allowed to enter with the consent and assistance of their parents or guardians.

Candidates may nominate themselves or be nominated by their friends. Nominations must be accompanied by the proper address of the candidate.

Nominations may be made at any time during the contest.

Vote coupons good for 25 votes as provided in the Statesman, which, when neatly cut out, name filled in and brought or mailed to the Prize Contest Department of The Oregon Statesman will count for the amount thereon.

A committee of well known business men will be selected by the Oregon Statesman to count the votes and decide upon the prize winners.

The Judges' Final Count of votes will be made in public and all candidates and their friends may witness it. All Contest records will be open to the inspection of the candidates the day following the Judges' Final Count of Votes.

Cash must accompany all subscriptions where votes are to be issued.

Candidates can secure subscriptions any where.

The Oregon Statesman reserves the right to add more prizes or to give extra prizes.

The Oregon Statesman reserves the right to encourage the candidates in every way possible.

No regular adult employee of the Oregon Statesman or members of his or her family can enter or compete for any of the prizes. Salesboys, Carrier Boys or City or Suburban newsdealer agents are not considered regular employees.

In case of a tie, the prizes effected will be equally divided among those polling a tie vote.

The Oregon Statesman guarantees fair treatment to all contestants and should any question arise a decision of the management will be considered final and absolute.

No statement or promise made by any solicitor or agent varying from the rules or statements published in The Statesman will be recognized by the Statesman.

A candidate is not required to be a regular subscriber or agent of the Statesman to enter the competition.

The Statesman reserves the right to reject any nominations.

All votes issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the contest, and will be polled at the discretion of the candidate, subscriber or the Statesman.

Candidates who seek to lessen competition by discouraging other competitors or whose friends endeavor to lessen competition for the same reason, will be disqualified and dropped from the competition.

Votes are not transferable except under the following circumstances: If a candidate wishes to withdraw from the contest he or she may change his or her votes to a suitable substitute, but said substitute must be a new candidate who has not been before accepted in the contest.

The Statesman reserves the right to give extra votes and to alter the vote schedules, but it guarantees the candidates that all subscriptions turned in from the beginning of the contest will receive the benefits of any alteration in the vote schedules, if same are altered or if any extra votes other than those mentioned in this ad, are given.

Candidates influencing or attempting to influence any of the Judges shall forfeit all rights to either prize or commission.

The Campaign will end Saturday, January 5, 1924, at 11:30 p. m.

The Statesman reserves the right to amend the rules of the campaign if it becomes necessary for the protection of the interests of both the club members and the newspaper.

The winners of the prizes will be decided by the accredited votes, said votes being represented by vote ballots issued on subscription payments and from the free coupons clipped from the paper.

In case of a typographical error, it is understood that neither the publishers of this paper nor the campaign manager shall be held responsible except to make the necessary correction of the same.

Every candidate who enters this campaign is an authorized agent of The Oregon Statesman and as such may collect arrearages and past due subscription payments from present subscribers to the Statesman as well a payment for new subscriptions.

There will be a cash commission of 10% paid to all active non-prize winners. An active candidate is one who turns in at least $25.00 on subscriptions during the life of the contest, but it is distinctly understood that in due event any candidate becomes inactive failing to make weekly cash report he or she will at the discretion of the management become disqualified and thereby forfeit all rights to a prize or a commission.

A subscriber once turned in by a candidate and extended at any time during the campaign beyond the time it was originally turned in for will have the same vote value as though the full subscription had been turned in originally.

The Judges' awards are final and in no instance will a commission be paid in lieu of a prize.

Any candidate once nominated and not wishing to continue in the race must notify the campaign manager in writing, written five days after his or her name appears in the printed list.

Candidates are not confined to their own particular section in which to work. They may take subscriptions any where. Candidates may have any one any where work for them.

Votes are issued on new and old subscription payments to the Oregon Statesman. Cash must accompany all subscriptions where votes are issued.

In accepting nominations candidates agree to abide by the above rules and regulations.
