Residents of this section are aroused over the slaying of Skeen, who was a son of the late Fred Skeen, a Siskiyou county pioneer. The sheriff's office is inclined to link the killing with the tunnel holdup and with the killing of a man named Clark at Chiloquin, Or., in September.

Deputies Fire After He Opens Bay Horse mine in Baker county serted. Fire on Them - Uncle Is Taken at Neighbors

EUGENE, Or., Nov. 2 .- "Kid" Gilstrap, 22, was shot and badly wounded by deputy sheriffs during a raid on a moonshine stille at his home in the mountain near Cheshire Station and 20 miles northwest of Eugene this afternoon. His uncle, Joseph Gilstrap, 45, was arrested at a neighbor's home as being one of the owners of the still. The deputies surrounded the clump of plum trees near the Gilstrap residence where the still was located and as they closed in upon it, young Gilstrap appeared and bgean to fire upon the deputies with a revolver.

All members of the posse, five in number, opened fire with their shotguns loaded with buckshot. Gilstrap ran, still firing at the officers. He was brought down and tried to shoot even after falling, the deputies said. Gilstrap was ceived slight wounds in one arm strictions proposed by France may shot in the head and back and reand one leg.
