Information, Rules and Conditions of the Oregon Statesman's Big Automobile Contest

Any person over 14 years old, who is of good character, married or unmarried, old or young, is eligible to compete in this Salesmanship Club Campaign. Children under 14 years of age are only allowed to enter with the consent and assistance of their parents or guardians.

Candidates may nominate themselves or be nominated by their friends. Nominations must be accompanied by the proper address of the candidate.

Nominations may be made at any time during the contest.

Vote coupons good for 25 votes as provided in the Statesman, which when neatly cut out, name filled in and brought or mailed to the Prize Contest Department of The Oregon Statesman will count for the amount thereon.

A committee of well known business men will be selected by the Oregon Statesman to count the votes and decide upon the prize winners.

The Judges' Final Count of votes will be made in public and all candidates and their friends may witness it. All Contest records will be open to the inspection of the candidates the day following the Judges' Final Count of Votes.

Cash must accompany all subscriptions where votes are to be issued.

Candidates can secure subscriptions anywhere.

The Oregon Statesman reserves the right to add more prizes or to give extra prizes.

The Oregon Statesman reserves the right to encourage the candidates in every way possible.

No regular adult employee of the Oregon Statesman or members of his or her family can enter or compete for any of the prizes. Salesboys, Carrier Boys or City or Suburban newsdealer agents are not considered regular employees.

In case of a tie, the prizes affected will be equally divided among those polling a tie vote.

The Oregon Statesman guarantees fair treatment to all contestants and should any question arise a decision of the management will be considered final and absolute.

No statement or promise made by any solicitor or agent varying from the rules or statements published in The Statesman will be recognized by the Statesman.

A candidate is not required to be a regular subscriber or agent of the Statesman to enter the competition.

The Statesman reserves the right to reject any nominations.

All votes issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the contest, and will be polled at the discretion of the candidate, subscriber or the Statesman.

Candidates who seek to lessen competition by discouraging other competitors or whose friends endeavor to lessen competition for the same reason, will be disqualified and dropped from the competition.

NEW Overland CHAMPION

America's Only Versatile Car Another Innovation

The greatest creation in Willys-Overland history—the first all-purpose car—the new Overland Champion! Features and utilities never before offered the salesman, merchant, farmer and American family!
