At a pretty wedding which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, Miss Olga Kirkwood became the wife of Lawrence Imlah. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Bertha Vick, the bridal party proceeded down the aisle formed by baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and white ribbon streamers to take their places before the chancel of yellow flowers and lighted tapers. There the simple ring ceremony was read by the Reverend C. C. Poling.

Preceding the ceremony Iva Claire Love played a violin solo and Mrs. Malcolm Ramp sang Cadman's "At Dawning."

The bride made a lovely picture in a gown of ivory satin and point lace, with a long lace veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. On her arm she carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. In a frock of blue taffeta, wearing a silver wreath, Miss Bernice Kirkwood, sister of the bride appeared as maid of honor. She carried a bouquet of pink and white Ophelia roses. Mr. E. H. Kennedy acted as best man, and ushers for the occasion were Mr. La Doyt Davis, Mr. Kenneth Campbell, and Mr. Roy Jacobson.

A reception followed the ceremony at which the bride's mother served a dainty buffet luncheon. Mrs. E. Reed Rowland, Miss Florence Ingham, Miss Nalden Smith and Miss Jessie Gibson, assisted in serving.

The wedding guests included over 40 friends and relatives of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Imlah left in the evening for Astoria where they will spend a short honeymoon after which they will return to make their home on Nob hill.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kirkwood, and is well known in Salem where she has lived for the past three years. She attended the Oregon Agricultural college for two years where she was a member of Sigma Kappa sorority, and also of the Madrigal club. Before going to the agricultural college she attended Willamette University for one year.

Mr. Imlah is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Imlah of Salem and is at the present time connected with the West Side Sand and Gravel company of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Fiest entertained over 40 friends at their home on North Capitol street at a Halloween party Wednesday evening. The decorations were in keeping with the spirit of the day with innumerable cats, witches, owls and cheerful pumpkin faces. The evening was pleasantly passed at games and music with a delicious luncheon served at a late hour.

The announcement of the recent marriage of Melville Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Jones, and Miss Esther Booth, daughter of Dr. Joel Booth of Lebanon, comes as a complete surprise to the friends of the young couple here. Before the immediate family of the bride and groom, the wedding took place in the First Methodist church parsonage at Albany, Wednesday afternoon, Dr. Hewitt officiating. The attendants at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Jones, Miss Junette Jones, Dr. Joel Booth, Miss Margaret Booth and Mr. Clarence Booth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones left immediately for Portland and the beaches, where they will spend a week or more before returning to Eugene to make their home in the new Osborn apartments.

Mrs. Jones is now a senior at the University of Oregon and will resume her studies upon her return to Eugene. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Jones is a former University of Oregon student, and before entering the law school there was connected with the state highway department in Salem. He is now with the state highway department in Eugene. He is a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Laflar are entertaining as their guests over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harper of Portland.

Chapter G of PEO sisterhood met at the home of Mrs. G. W. Laflar for the regular business meeting Thursday afternoon. After the business session Mrs. Ray Smith was initiated into the sisterhood. Mrs. A. M. Reeves was a guest of the afternoon.

Miss Dorothy Marsters and Miss Helen Brethaupt will be hostesses at the meeting of the Senior King's Heralds this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee. The games will be in charge of Miss Grace Allen and Miss Christy Maxwell, and Miss Allen will also have charge of the story hour. Mrs. L. W. Miller will assist Mrs. Lee during the afternoon.

Mrs. E. E. Bragg who has been quite ill in Portland for the past few weeks, returned to Salem yesterday afternoon accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Daniel McClellan of Wenatchee, Wash. Mrs. McClellan will visit here until the middle of December before going to southern California to spend the remainder of the winter. Before making her home in Wenatchee three years ago, she lived in Portland where she was quite prominent socially. Mrs. McClellan is well known in Salem and a number of social affairs are being planned in her honor.

Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson and her young grandson, Charles K. Bishop, returned last Saturday from Des Moines, Iowa, where they spent the past two months visiting with Mrs. Gabrielson's mother and other relatives.

Mrs. H. P. Blodgett, daughter of Dr. James Lisle will return to her home in Gooding, Ida., today, after having spent the past week visiting at the home of her father. Mrs. Blodgett lived here a number of years ago and the week has been pleasantly spent renewing old friendships and acquaintances. A number of very informal luncheons and teas have been given for her pleasure during her visit. Mrs. Blodgett will remain in Portland to visit with friends before going to Wenatchee, Wash. where she will be the guest of her son for a short time before returning to her home in Idaho.

The Senior King's Heralds of the First Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee this afternoon at 2:15.

At the end of the second day of the Bridge Luncheon club rummage sale last night, a most satisfactory report of sales was made. Already definite plans are being formulated for the decorative scheme and furnishing of the reception room at the new Salem hospital for which the proceeds of the sale will be used. A good number of practical and appetizing dishes have been promised for the cooked food sale which will be held today in conjunction with the rummage sale.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Race of Lewistown, Mont., were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Laflar last week. During their visit they motor and up the Columbia River highway. They were enthusiastic in their praise and enthusiasm for the scenery and climate of Oregon. Mr. Laflar and Mr. Race have been friends since their college days.

Mrs. Lloyd A. Lee returned Wednesday evening from a two months visit in the east with relatives and friends. In Illinois and Indiana she visited with relatives, and in New York state she was the guest at the home of her brother, Mr. Hamlin Coleman. From New York Mrs. Lee went to Boston to visit with an old friend. On her trip home she took the steamer from New York city to New Orleans, and from there the journey was continued by Santa Fe to Los Angeles where she remained for a visit with Mrs. Paul Morse, daughter of Dr. B. L. Steeves, before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Laflar are entertaining as their guests over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harper of Portland.

Jones Defends Income Tax
ROSEBURG, Nov. 2.—Hon. Seymour Jones, ex-speaker of the state house of representatives, spoke last night to a small audience of people at the Majestic theater on the state income tax question, which is being referred to a vote of the people. On account of the weather the attendance which had been expected was cut down considerably and few farmers were able to get in from the country. The speaker gave a very clear explanation of the bill which is to be voted upon and gave his arguments against the referendum. He made it plain that some of the prevailing ideas in regard to the measure have no foundation and emphasized his position in the matter. Mr. Jones' arguments are regarded as authority, and his information is all first-hand.

As we understand the radical group, the new slogan is to be: "Raise less wheat and more hell."

BUS AND RAILWAY FARES INCREASED

Summer Rates Removed From Willamette Valley Points to Portland

Effective November 12, both the Oregon Electric Railway company and the bus lines operating between Portland and Willamette valley points have taken off their summer fares, and both yesterday filed increased schedules with the public service commission.

Between Salem and Portland the bus lines take off the summer excursion rate of $2 round trip and put back the $2.20 fare. They give a week-end round trip fare of $2.20, sold Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays, the same including Tuesday. Both also file 15-day special fares. The changes made by both are practically parallel.

A number of advances are made by the Oregon Electric, some of which are shown below: The week-end round trip fares between Portland and other Oregon Electric stations to Eugene, on sale Friday, Saturday and Sunday, return including the following Tuesday, are as follows:

	New rate	Old rate
Salem to Portland	$2.20	$2.00
Albany to Portland	3.30	3.15

Corvallis to Portland	3.70	3.55
Eugene to Portland	5.30	4.90
No changes north of Salem.
Fifteen-day round trip tickets between Salem, Albany, etc., and all other Oregon Electric stations on sale daily are:
	New fares	Old fares
Salem to Portland	$2.50	$2.00
Albany to Portland	3.75	3.30
Corvallis to Portland	4.40	4.00
Eugene to Portland	6.00	5.80
West Woodburn to
Portland	1.85	1.85
Salem to Albany	1.30	1.30
Salem to Eugene	3.80	3.80
Salem to Hillsboro	3.25	2.75
Eugene to Hillsboro	6.75	6.55
Eugene to Albany	2.50	2.50

It will be noted that the changes are between the Portland district (including the Hillsboro branch and Tualatin) and Salem and points south of Salem. Fares between the latter local points are not changed.

It is estimated that 80 per cent of all the people transported by common carrier in Oregon are patrons part of that time of auto buses and for-hire cars, so that riding by motor stages is no more a novelty but a sure-enough means of travel. The result is a lot of responsibility upon the bus operating companies.

"Under the rigid system of accounting recently ordered by the public service commission," said Chairman Corey of the commission, "bus companies in this state are beginning to realize that the business of common carrier of passengers is more complicated than would at first seem. While I do not doubt for a moment that the auto passenger bus is here to stay, and that eventually its traffic will increase in size and importance, the operators have not heretofore realized just how expensive the common carrier business is. "Our accounting system, such as we are required by law to demand that all carriers adopt, is a letter perfect as can be organized, and it is through this system that the bus operators are enabled to carry on their business intelligently and with absolute certainty as to what it really costs to carry passengers by automobile."

A town may boast of its culture but its chief source of pride is the traffic problem.

HEAD STUFFED BY CATARRH OR COLIC?

If your nostrils are clogged, your throat distressed or your head is stuffed by little pure catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic, germ destroying cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing inflamed, swollen membranes and you get instant relief.

How good it feels. Your nostrils are open. Your head is cured. No more hawking, snuffing, dryness or struggling for breath. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from any druggist. Colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up. Relief is sure.—Adv.
