The Music Teachers' association of Salem will hold their initial meeting of the year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Churchill Tuesday evening, beginning at the hour of 7:30. As this is the first business meeting of the new club calendar, payment of dues and the election of officers will be in order. It is hoped that every member will make it a point to be present. This will be the last meeting before the state convention of music teachers in Portland and much important business is to be discussed.

Following the business session Mr. Churchill will entertain the group with a complete photograph recital of the opera "Rigoletto."

The birthday of Dr. W. H. Byrd was the occasion for a delightful family dinner Wednesday evening at the Byrd home on Court street. Baskets of yellow, white and pink chrysanthemums arranged about the rooms added their bit of seasonal cheer to the enjoyment of the evening. The dinner table, around which the family gathered, was centered by an attractive basket of huge pink blooms. The climax of the meal came when a large pink and white birthday cake bearing 69 lighted candles, was brought into the room. It has long been the custom to celebrate Dr. Byrd's birthday in this manner with a family dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Johnson of 1864 Fir street entertained at a Halloween party at their home Monday evening in honor of Mr. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Victor Clark of Waterloo, Ind., who is visiting here until Christmas. Witches, black cats and jack-o'-lanterns, mingled with autumn leaves, made attractive decorations for the festivities. The evening was spent in music, games and dancing. Refreshments were served to 35 guests.

From Mrs. Mark Skiff in Syracuse, N. Y., comes a letter saying that she has been in that city over a week visiting with relatives of Dr. Skiff, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hooker, former Salem residents. Although she is having a wonderful time, she says she is becoming a bit homesick for Oregon. She is expecting to start home this week. Mrs. Skiff represented the War Mothers of Salem at the national convention held in Kansas City the first of last month, and since the convention has been visiting in the east.

The young ladies' Bible class, under the leadership of Mrs. C. A. Parks, will meet at the city library Monday evening at 7:30. All the young women of the city are invited to attend. Mrs. Parks has been ill, but will resume teaching at the Monday evening meeting.

Plans for the coming season's programs were discussed at the American Association of University Women's luncheon yesterday. It was held in the Marion hotel and officially opened the year's work. Reports from those members who attended the national convention in Portland last summer were given by Mrs. George H. Alden, the official delegate of the Salem branch, Mrs. J. M. Devers, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. George Hug, Mrs. C. A. Kells and Mrs. Roy H. Klein.

Dr. Edith Hale Swift who has been giving a series of talks at Willamette university for the American Hygiene society, addressed the women on her field of work and the aim of the society in sending out women to give instruction in sex hygiene. Dr. Swift is a graduate of Radcliffe and took her medical degree at John Hopkins. She is considered especially capable for the work she is doing because she is both a physician and a mother.

Australian Labor Movement Stunned By Report of Fraud

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Nov. 2.—(By Mail)—A political bombshell crashed into the midst of the Labor movement in this state with the announcement of recommendations of the executive, which have been adopted, as the result of the discovery of the use of alleged crooked ballot boxes in certain elections at the headquarters of the party.

It was found that a number of the boxes had secret panels, enabling manipulation of the ballots. The affair caused a sensation on the eve of the annual conference of the party and a special committee, with A. C. Willis, the new president, as chairman, was appointed to ascertain the facts and make recommendations. Its decisions touched some of the most prominent figures in the party and their expulsion, four without limitation of time, and two others for two years each, has resulted.

HEIRESS AND HER KIDNAPED CHILDREN.

Robert Howard Gamble, 2, and his sister, Catherine Bruce Gamble, 3, are in Jacksonville, Fla., with their father, Robert H. Gamble, who took them from their mother's home at Huntington, L. I., Tuesday, according to George Gordon Battle, counsel for Mrs. Gamble, who says he will take drastic action for the return of the children to this State. Mrs. Gamble, a survivor of the Lusitania disaster, obtained a divorce from Mr. Gamble in Paris last April, and received the custody of the two children, but the father was allowed to visit them when he saw fit. Photo shows mother and children.

Would Apply Gold Mouse Legend, if True, to British

COLOGNE, Nov. 4.—British officers and soldiers of the forces occupying this city never tire of visiting its majestic cathedral.

A life size mouse of solid gold under an inverted crystal bowl set upon a marble table in one of the chapels invariably causes much curiosity and inquiries as to the cause of the little golden rodent's presence are frequent.

It is told that some hundreds of years ago the cathedral was infested with mice which were responsible for much damage to the paintings, sacerdotal costumes and other costly silk and cloth ornaments. All efforts to rid the cathedral of the plague had proved failures until some one suggested that the presence of a mouse of gold as a permanent fixture would prove effective in frightening the live ones away. The legend says that the remedy was successful.

"Do you really believe such was the case?" a ranking British officer asked of the old sexton the other day.

With a sad smile the latter replied: "Hardly; otherwise, I am certain we should have found enough of the precious metal in Germany to set up a gold statue of a British soldier somewhere in Cologne."

USE OF MIGRATORY BIRDS AS FOOD BARRED BY LAW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Hotels, restaurants and other eating places may not serve wild ducks or geese, or other migratory ad-ble birds for food, the Department of Agriculture announces. The migratory bird treaty act and regulations make it unlawful to buy or sell such birds, except under proper permits for scientific or propagating purposes.

Migratory water fowl raised in captivity under proper federal and state permits may be bought and sold and served in hotels and restaurants, but this does not apply to wild birds. The serving of wild birds with meals in hotels, restaurants and other places is unlawful if a price is charged for the meal, and the law cannot be avoided under a pretense that no charge is being made for the wild birds, the department states.
