

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Men's Club Meets Tonight

The monthly meeting of the men's club of the Presbyterian church will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight instead of 6:30 o'clock. A splendid program has been arranged, with a general song service. John L. Brady, editor of The Oregon Statesman, will make a Thanksgiving address. Refreshments consistent with the season will be served. All men, whether members of the church or not, are invited to attend.

Salary Issue Settled

According to an opinion handed down by I. H. Van Winkle, attorney general, it is not within the province of the state tax supervision and conservation commissions to pass upon the salaries of the number of employees that are to be in the service of any municipality. It was held by the attorney general, however, that these commissions have authority to investigate the municipal tax budget and eliminate or reduce any items therein. The opinion was given at the request of Governor Pierce.

Declare Gunmen Hired

The Northwestern Electric company, of Portland, is bringing to Portland gunmen for work as electricians and linemen for strike breakers, according to a complaint filed today with the public service commission. This is being done, it is alleged, with a view to breaking the strike of the International Brotherhood of Electrical workers of Portland. The "gunmen," the complaint alleges, are all inexperienced in electrical work but, nevertheless, are entrusted with work of a most "hazardous nature."

Can Order Safety Zones

According to an opinion offered by the attorney general, for the benefit of Sam A. Koser, secretary of state, municipalities have authority under the law to establish safety zones, but they cannot put into effect ordinances permitting motor vehicles to pass street cars when they are stopped to receive or discharge passengers.

Missing Son is Sought

In Chicago a mother is becoming hysterical over receiving no word from her son, Norman Gordon, who left his home about four months ago and who wrote home from Salem November 1. Letter addressed to him here failed to be called for. The boy is described as 21 years old, 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches tall, dark brown hair, combed pompadour. He is said to be rather boastful and talkative. In his postcards home he said he thought he had been disinherited because he had not heard from his parents. This is said to be untrue, and his mother wants him back. Gordon's home address is 3543 Cortland street, Chicago.
