Mrs. Gertrude Robinson Ross will entertain the modern writers' section of the Salem Arts League at her home for the regular meeting this evening. Guests of honor during the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Albert Richard Wetjen who have recently come to make their home in Salem. Mr. Wetjen is a contemporary short story writer of national reputation, and publishes in the better class of magazines. Columns and Everybody's recently carried biographical sketches and pictures of him, and Everybody's announces a story from his pen in each issue for the next several months. Current issues of "Action Stories" also advertises a series of sea stories by Mr. Wetjen during 1924. Alfred Knopf has contracted with him for a book of short stories and has also secured option on his first novel.

One of the most elaborate affairs on the social calendar of the season was an event of Wednesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Lampert were hosts at a charming formal dinner in the new ball room at their home at Ben Lombard park. The ball room was appropriately decorated in the foliage of the season and large baskets of yellow and red dahlias. The same colored flowers and palms were used in the reception rooms. The feature dance of the evening was carried out in the same color combination by red and yellow favor hats worn by the guests while dancing.

The dancing terminated with a serpentine in which many lovely color effects were gained by the use of special lighting. A midnight buffet supper was served after the dancing.

The guest list included Salem's society folk, Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. John H. McNary, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William S. Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn, Dr. and Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spars, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deckebach, Dr. and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Gillingham, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Ashel Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. Edward S. Lamport, M. F. Lamport and the hosts Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lamport.

Covers were laid for twenty eight guests at a dinner given by Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., and Mrs. W. Connell Dyer and Mrs. Curtis Cross at the Cross home preceding dance. Mrs. O. C. Locke and Mrs. William Walton also entertained with a winner party at the Walton apartments before the dance. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mrs. L. F. Griffith entertained a small group of society matrons with a luncheon and afternoon of cards at her home Thursday. A large bowl of artistically arranged autumn fruits and autumn leaves with lighted candles made colorful the daintily appointed luncheon table, around which were seated Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Mrs. Frank Meredith, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith.

Yellow and white chrysanthemums were effectively used in the reception rooms, where three tables of cards were in play. Mrs. George Baumgartner won the high score for the afternoon.

The personnel of the group included the members of a bridge luncheon club which was active and met regularly in the days before the war. During the afternoon, Thursday, they reorganized the club under the name of the Capitol bridge luncheon club with the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Baumgartner, November 15.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Shanks, accompanied by Mrs. C. F. Wilson, returned yesterday from a week's trip through central Oregon.

Arrangements are being made by the Marion county health association to hold clinics at the various health centers of the county, sometime during the next two weeks. Each of the centers, Woodburn, Silverton, Mill City, Stayton and Jefferson, will hold clinics four times during the school year at which the school children will be examined and treated by physicians of the respective towns. It is hoped that sufficient Red Cross Christmas seals will be sold to pay for the services of a county health nurse whose duty it will be to visit the schools of the county to attend and advise all cases of minor illnesses among the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Richard Wetjen who have recently come from Montara, Cal., to make their home in Salem, have been feted much during the week with a number of charming informal affairs. Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert entertained with a delightful studio party Monday evening in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Wetjen were special guests at a reception at the home of Professor Roberts Tuesday evening. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford entertained informally for Mr. and Mrs. Wetjen and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ross. The newcomers were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dibble at the tulip farm.

Mr. Wetjen is prominent among contemporary writers by virtue of his sea stories which are being widely sought for by the leading fiction magazines. Mrs. Wetjen is a charming young matron and has many warm acquaintances since coming to Salem.

Games typical of the bag rush, the football game, the dance and the other events of the recent homecoming week-end at the alma mater, will pass the evening of the next meeting of the OAC club at the home of Mrs. J. R. Luper, 185 South Fifteenth street. A number of snap shots taken during homecoming will be shown and a good part of the time will be devoted to homecoming gossip. The committee for the evening will be Mrs. Luper, Mrs. W. H. Weeks and Joe Chambers.

Little Miss Marian Alice Shaw entertained a number of her friends at a charming party Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw, celebrating her twelfth birthday. The time was merrily passed at games and music, and later each of the guests wrote her name in the "book of fortune." Assisting Mrs. Shaw during the afternoon were Mrs. B. E. Bower and Mrs. Henry S. Poisal.

During the refreshment hour the guests were seated around a long table attractively decorated with candles, flowers, favors and place cards in two shades of amber. A large doll in colonial dress of the two predominant colors, flanked on each side by fall flowers of the same shades, formed an unusually artistic centerpiece. The menu, also, was carried out in colors with amber ices, and the huge white birthday cake, carried into the dining room by little Ruth Jean Garajobst, was garnished with amber wreaths and tiny burning candles to harmonize.

The rooms were transformed into a bower of autumn leaves, and marigolds and chrysanthemums of the yellow and amber effects.

Covers were laid for Mary Kightlinger, Margaret Tossend, Ellen Jean Moody, Grace Thompson, Maxine Ulrich, Gretchen Thielsen, Lolita and Lorita Robertson, Frances Martin, Dorothy White, Janet Walker, Isabel Morehouse, Dorothy Smith, Dorothy Moore, Roberta Barley, Margaret Morehouse, Cella and Harriet Howard, Iola Kopp, Leora Smith, Virginia Sisson, Ruth Jean Garajobst and Marian Shaw.

Silverton Choral Society A very enthusiastic meeting of the Choral society was held at the Christian church Monday night, October 29. The society was reorganized, the following officers being elected after the adoption of a new constitution: Pres.—Mrs. Gunderson. V-Pres.—Mr. McCall. Secy. and Treas.—Miss R. A. Richardson. Librarian—Mrs. Stine. Pianist—Mrs. Gertrude Cameron.

In electing a director, after a straw vote taken, several names were placed in nomination and upon balloting, Vida Bennett was elected to serve until the first of the year.

The following committees were appointed by the chairman: Membership committee: Violet Crofoot, Marietta Kemper, Jeanette Towe, Mrs. Lais and Mr. Jensen. Music committee: Mrs. Vida Bennett, director; Mrs. Gertrude Cameron, pianist; Mrs. S. Richardson, Mrs. Gordon McCall and Mr. Axel Larson. Building committee: Mrs. G. Benson, Miss Violet Crofoot and Mr. Axel Larson. Press committee: Violet Crofoot.—Silverton Tribune.

Only the immediate members of the families witnessed the wedding of Miss Hattie Aspinwall and Burke Jones of Brooks, which occurred at the hour of two thirty at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Aspinwall of Brooks. The bride wore a dark crepe dress and was attended by her sister, Ella Aspinwall. Lynn Jones was best man and the Reverend Lovell read the service. Mr. and Mrs.

Jones left soon after the ceremony for Silverton where they will make their home. Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Foster motored from Portland Friday evening for a short visit with Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Rosebraugh. Saturday morning they continued their trip to Corvallis to participate in the week-end festivities of the annual homecoming at the Oregon Agricultural college. Mrs. Foster will be better remembered as Miss Ruth Rosebraugh. She is a former OAC student and is a member of Delta Delta sorority.

Fall flowers and autumn leaves made attractive the church parlors Friday afternoon when the woman's missionary society of the First Presbyterian church held its annual praise service. The business session was followed with an interesting program which included the following numbers: "The Joy of Harvest," Mrs. Ward Willis Long; a sextet from the Chemawa Indian school, Grace Peterson, Maude Pott, Harriet Hill, Cora Black, Catherine Brooks and Anna Brendible. Miss Gertrude Eakin accompanied them in their group of songs. Mrs. A. J. Rahn gave a reading, "Thanksgiving Ann," and a group of girls from the Elizabeth Lewis circle gave a pantomime of "Rock of Ages" which was sung by Mrs. Ward Willis Long.

During the tea hour Mrs. J. A. Pooler presided at the tea table assisted by the committee.

Delta Delta Delta sorority at the Oregon Agricultural college announced the pledging of Miss Loreta Miller of Salem, the latter part of last week. Miss Miller is a sophomore in the school of vocational education.

Black and orange made attractive the luncheon tables over which Mrs. John Carson presided as hostess to the members of the bridge luncheon club Friday afternoon. Around the tables were seated the members of the club with Mrs. Frederic Lampert, Mrs. C. K. Logan and Mrs. Hugh McCammon as special guests. The afternoon was spent at cards, and after the scores were added, the honors went to Mrs. Hollis Huntington. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Homer Egan.

Saturday evening at six o'clock, Mr. Loyd N. Sundin and Miss Ethel J. Germond were married at the home of the officiating minister, the Reverend J. C. Tibbits. The couple were attended by Mr. Ralph Germond and Miss Gladys S. Krebs. Both the bride and groom are residents of Salem, and after a brief honeymoon they will make their new home here. Mr. Sundin is working in connection with the Sundin tailor shop on State street.

Coming as a complete surprise to her many friends was the marriage of Miss Mabel Murphy to Walter Olson yesterday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Murphy on North Capitol street. Miss Ruth Edwards attended the bride and Ralph Olson, brother of the groom, was best man. Only the members of the bride's family witnessed the simple ring ceremony which was read by the Reverend G. L. Lovell. Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Olson left for Portland where they will remain until Wednesday at which time they will leave for San Francisco where Mr. Olson is in partnership with his father in business. Miss Murphy is well known in Salem and has for some time been employed in the office of the secretary of state.

A wedding of interest will take place at the hour of three this afternoon in the First Methodist church when Miss Janette Jones is to become the bride of William B. Ashby. Autumn leaves and blossoms will decorate the church for the simple ceremony which will be witnessed by only a few intimate friends and the immediate members of the two families. The service will be read by the Reverend S. W. Hall, pastor of the First Methodist church of Silverton. Miss Jones is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Jones and Mr. Ashby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ashby of Salem.

Important to all Women Readers of this Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so. But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle of this Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.—Adv.

BINGHAM RAPS DIVORCE EVIL

Hasty Marriages Held Chief Cause of Present Problem By Local Jurist

"Hasty marriages bring about trouble and divorce while hasty divorces bring about additional troubles through later marriages," declared Hon. George G. Bingham, judge of the third judicial district, in speaking to the Salem Chamber of Commerce at the regular luncheon Monday noon upon the divorce problem in America. "Divorces are not necessarily an evil though through carelessness they may become such. There are some men so ornery that no woman could live with them, and there are some women who are able to make life unbearable for any man.

"Watchfulness, taking particular care that proceedings are not 'too raw,' is the only safeguard," Judge Bingham continued. "It is the policy of the courts to uphold marriage relations, for it is not only the individuals that must be borne in mind, but in a majority of instances, there are children. About three-fourths of delinquent children come from homes in which one or the other parent has died or where separation has occurred through divorce. It is better to keep the home together, even though it is not ideal, than to deliberately divide the home where there are children.

"There are three parties to every divorce," he said. "The state, the husband and the wife. No divorces can be granted by the court unless provided for by statute. In a few places divorces are granted only by the legislature, adultery, conviction of a felony, habitual drunkenness, willful desertion, cruel and inhuman treatment and disease contracted after marriage."

The history and development of marriage customs was briefly outlined by Judge Bingham, who said that each state decides upon the marriage and divorce laws in that state, and what may be legal in one, such as the common-law marriage, may not be recognized in another. Persons who are divorced upon certain grounds in one state may find themselves considered wedded in another, with many resultant entanglements. Among methods of marriage employed are those of the picture brides, marriage by proxy and by mail. The courts are divided in opinion as to the validity of these, the speaker said.

"Internal troubles are the greatest menace to this country," Judge Bingham said in closing. "I do not fear complications from the outside or attack from other countries. Lack of respect for home, government and Americanization is the present evil. The burden rests upon each individual to uphold the government. I would disfranchise every qualified voter who fails to go to the polls at election times."

Reminders of National Apple week were furnished by A. C. Borhnstedt, while August Huckenstein called attention to the Annual Red Cross Roll Call which begins November 11. Announcement of a drive for 100 new members was made by Dr. Henry E. Morris. The campaign will begin Thursday and will continue for two days only. Workers will meet for a dinner and instructions at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Wednesday night. Seating is limited to the forenoon only. Roy Shields presided at the meeting yesterday.

Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough Mrs. Will Hall, R. No. 3, Bailey, Ga., states: "I am writing to all who suffer from coughs, colds, croup or whooping cough. I cannot recommend Foley's Honey and Tar too much, and I can't keep house without it. Have been using it since 1919 and have found it the best medicine there is for grown-ups and children." Best and largest selling cough and cold remedy in the world. Refuse sub-stitutes. Sold everywhere.—Adv.
