New M. E. Parsonage
MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 6.—In the opening of one of the prettiest and best constructed parsonages in Southwestern Oregon, Rev. and Mrs. T. H. Temple, of the Marshfield Methodist Episcopal church last night entertained about 150 guests from 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock at a house warming in the new home, which is an asset to the local pastorate.

From the exterior, the Dutch colonial home presents a very pleasing appearance, and upon entering, the picture is made even more complete. The large sitting room on the left, with the pretty fireplace along the opposite wall,

Broccoli Growers Organize
ROSEBURG, Nov. 6.—The annual meeting of the Umpqua Broccoli Exchange was held this morning at the city hall, a large number of growers being present. The growers were well pleased with the manner in which the affairs of the exchange have been handled and unanimously re-elected the officers who served during the past season. The officers are: R. A. Hercher, president; H. A. Winston, vice president; D. S. Houser, secretary-treasurer; Foster Butler, secretary-manager; W. A. Burr, Walter Leake, J. E. Pickens, H. A. Winston, R. A. Hercher, directors. The reports showed that the growers were paid approximately $120,000 net for their crop last season, and predictions are that the crop next year will be two or three times as great.

Lumber Freight Reduced
GRANTS PASS, Nov. 6.—Lumber mills of Josephine county can now compete in the Los Angeles market with the Klamath Falls and northern California mills, according to a decision of the interstate commerce commission, which allows the reduction of rates to go into effect. At the request of Medford and Grants Pass lumber shippers, the Southern Pacific agreed to put rates in effect which would allow lumber to go from Grants Pass and Medford into the southern market on a basis that would allow competition with the other mills. The new rate of 4 1/2 cents per hundred, went into effect on October 31, a reduction of 12 cents from the former rate of 53 1/2 cents.

A saving of some $3.25 per 1000 feet will be possible through the order of the commission. It means a permanent advance in the price of lumber at the Grants Pass shipping point.

Only One Atheist

Of those expressing religious preferences, 435 are Presbyterians; 285 Methodists; 187 Christians; 168 Episcopalians; 135 Catholics; 90 Christian Scientists; 87 Baptists; 86 Congregationalists; 50 Lutherans; 18 Unitarians; 12 Jewish; 7 Evangelical; 5 Unitarian Brethren; 4 Friends; 4 Latter Day Saints; 2 Universalists, 2 Ethical Culturists, and one each of the following: Greek Orthodox, Church of God, Church of Truth, New Thought, Sivaist, Minneapolis, Theosophist and one Solar-anite.

Walnuts Go Out By Carload
EUGENE, Nov. 6.—The Eugene Fruit Growers association is preparing to ship in a few days its first carload of walnuts. The shipment will go to Kansas City, said J. O. Holt, manager of the association.

The local association began handling the walnut crop around Eugene last year. The nuts are cleaned and dried in one of the prune evaporators operated by the association and are marketed for the growers if they desire. This is the first large shipment sent out by the association. The nuts are shipped in sacks bearing the label of the Oregon Walnut Growers association, but the name of the local association is also printed on the sack.

Walnut Trees Win
CORVALLIS, Nov. 6.—The walnut has thousands of friends in this city, who regard it as the ideal tree for parkings.

American walnut (or black walnut, as it is often called) ranges from Massachusetts and South Ontario west through the southern half of the Lake states to middle Nebraska, to central Texas and northern Florida.

The walnut is being fast depleted. The family name for walnut is derived from "Jovis Glans," or nut of Jupiter. In ancient times, walnut was called "Regia," or royal, and "Juglans Regia" is the name of the European walnut. This species is spread over Europe and has been planted in California. The white "English" walnuts of commerce are of this species, as is also the cabinet wood known as "Circassian walnut." The Circassian walnut wood of commerce comes from near the Black Sea, where the trees grow under very unfavorable conditions, their struggle for life producing the weird, twisted, streaked wood which was once so popular as a cabinet wood.

P-T Organization at Albany
ALBANY, Nov. 6.—The citizens of Albany have been invited to attend a mass meeting at the senior high school building Thursday night at 8:15 o'clock to organize a Parent-Teacher organization for the purpose of cooperating in the work of the Albany schools. Mrs. J. Horning, one of the state organizers, is to be present and speak on the importance of such an organization.

Most of the leading towns of the Willamette valley have these organizations, it is said. Those best informed to pass judgment on the merits of the Parent-Teacher association movement in the state pronounce it a success, when rightly directed. The question has been an issue in Albany before, but under the present prospects is in no way being organized as a criticism on the schools, but simply as an auxiliary.

Courtesy an Asset
EUGENE, Nov. 6.—Courtesy generally pays, it is said. Here it is believed to have brought new capital to the city.

Some time ago Eugene Chadwick, secretary of the chamber of commerce, received a letter from Saylor Delaney, asking about labor conditions. Chadwick answered fully, saying there was little work at this time of year.

A day or so ago he was surprised to see Delaney stand before his desk. "I sent 25 of those letters," the visitor from Washington said. "and only from Eugene did I get a civil answer. Evidently other towns don't think a man who labors outdoors is the most desirable citizen. I think I'll locate here."

It came out that Delaney is a former professional man, well able to live on income of properties he has accumulated, and seeks outdoor employment for the benefit of his health.

Diphtheria Is Roseburg
ROSEBURG, Nov. 6.—Twenty-one positives, or carriers of diphtheria, were found by the test made in the Benson school last week, and have been placed in quarantine until their throats are cleared up and the epidemic is halted. Drs. Wade and Shoemaker last week took cultures from the throats of 124 pupils in the lower grades of the Benson school where diphtheria has made its appearance and these were examined in the state board of health laboratories, where it was found that 21 pupils are carrying the disease. Diphtheria is peculiar in the fact that certain people may carry the germs in their throats and yet not suffer any ill effects, while at the same time they may pass the disease on in malignant form to some other person. Twenty-one such carriers were discovered in the examination, and these have been ordered quarantined.

TURKEYS TO SELL AT LOWER RATE

Hold Over in Cold Storage of 7,000,000 Pounds Will Be Felt.

With a 7,000,000-pound hold-over in cold storage and an abundance of this year's crop being made ready for shipment in large districts in Texas, Kentucky and Tennessee, to say nothing of advances that foreign markets will send a large supply to this country, every indication points to plenty of turkey for Thanksgiving and at prices in reach of a majority of people.

As a result of these early forecasts, it is predicted that turkeys will sell for from 40 cents to 45 cents a pound, dressed, in comparison with the 55 cents and 60 cent prices asked in Portland last year.

Turkeys being offered in Salem at 24 cents a pound, live weight, have been refused by local dealers, who believe the season to be too early to buy at present. Real buying will not begin until 10 days or two weeks before Thanksgiving.

giving. Local men say that turkeys lose a full pound the first day and about 3-5 of a pound each succeeding day that they are held in the market. A shipment of 1100 pounds last week, purchased at 28 cents a pound, is being regretted by a local dealer. The same man refused to purchase more of this poultry at the 24-cent price.
