FOOTBALL TEAMS TO TAKE TRIPS

High School to Play at Medford and Willamette at McMinnville

Football fans will have to journey to other fields if they desire to see a football game this weekend, for there are no contests scheduled for Sweetland field, both Willamette university and Salem high school playing away from home.

Saturday the red and black of Salem will clash with the red and black of Medford in the latter place. This is the longest trip ever taken by the local high school representatives on the gridiron. Medford is easily the strongest team in southern Oregon and a hard game is anticipated.

Additional interest in the contest develops around the coach. Before coming to Salem Coach Hollis Huntington was football mentor at Medford. Coach, team and substitutes will leave Salem Friday evening.

Dope points to a Willamette victory over Linfield college at McMinnville Saturday afternoon in a game between the two institutions. Both teams have played the Chemawa Indians, and the edge is decidedly in favor of the Bears. Linfield and Chemawa battled to a 0 to 0 score early in the season, though Chemawa had the right to win. Willamette later walked over the Indians to the tune of 36 to 0. While Linfield was able to score a total of 118 points, the Indians were held to a 40 to 0 score over the teachers.

DRUGGISTS WIN UNUSUAL GAME

Hauser Brothers Also Winners in Commercial Basketball Last Night

A finish that is not seen once in a thousand times was that whereby the Central Pharmacy basketball team won last night from the Standard Oil team in the Commercial league series, 11 to 10.

As the time approached for the second half to end the score was 8 to 6 in favor of the Standard Oil. Just as the timekeeper started to ring the bell and end the game, Sparks of the Pharmacists tossed the ball from the center of the floor toward the basket.

The ball rang, but the ball was in the air, and it dropped through the hoop and counted, tying the score. In the five-minute extra period to play off the tie each team scored a basket, and the Pharmacists a foul to boot. It was the best game of the season so far. The score at the end of the first half was 1 to 0 for the Pharmacists. Sparks was the star for the Druggists and Mike Edwards for the Standard Oil. The latter is a good squad of players, but hasn't mastered the art of playing teamwork.

The other game last night between the Hauser Brothers team and the Company F boys, was won by the Hausers, 23 to 13. Left Forward Jones and Center Lieske were the stars for the Hausers, and Jack Elliott, right half, for the soldiers. The guardsmen were off on basket shooting.

INCOME TAX REPEAL ASKED

Initiative Measure Filed by C. C. Chapman for Vote Next Year

Action looking to the appeal of the income tax law ratified by the people of Oregon at the special election this month was started yesterday with the filing here by C. C. Chapman, editor of the Oregon Voter, of an initiative measure to be voted upon at the general election next November 4.

The measure will be submitted immediately by Secretary of State Sam A. Kozier to the attorney general, who has 10 days' time in which to prepare a ballot title. Before the measure can be placed on the ballot the referendum petitions must carry 13,498 signatures, representing 8 per cent of the largest vote cast for a supreme court justice in the last general election.

The initiative bill proposed by Chapman reads as follows: "An act to repeal chapter 279 of general laws of Oregon for 1923 known as the income tax act. Effect Worse Than Feared."

"Be it enacted by the people of the state of Oregon: "That chapter 279 of the general laws of Oregon for 1923 known as the income tax act be and the same is hereby repealed."

The following statement was issued by Chapman in connection with the filing of the initiative measure:

"The effect of the ratification of the state income tax is so much worse than feared that in order to forestall, if possible, the withdrawal of capital and business from the state, I am filing an initiative measure at once for its appeal.

"During the last few days I have learned of millions of pending investments that have been cancelled because of the outcome of the income tax election. I have also learned of many owners of branch houses in Oregon who are taking steps to curtail the business territory of Oregon branches, turning over large areas of southern and eastern Washington, Idaho and southern and eastern Oregon, as well as foreign fields, to be handled out of San Francisco and Seattle branches. This loss of business to Oregon would be immense, and anything that is right that can be done to induce these owners to reconsider should be done.

Emergency Pointed Out. "I have also learned of Oregon branches which are to be abandoned, and the business status of the state reduced to that of a mail order territory, to be milked without local pay rolls and local taxation.

"Some of the latest newcomers in Oregon have already announced their intention of closing out their business in Oregon as rapidly as they can and beginning business anew in some other Pacific coast field that has more opportunity for growth and development than is possible under a tax law that retards state growth.

"An emergency exists, and the only chance to keep these investors and enterprising business houses is to at once initiate the repeal of this illadvised measure. There is no time to wait for the organization of repeal leagues or for business associations to act, so I am filing this petition as an individual citizen.

"I am certain that the people of Oregon would not have ratified this measure if they had understood the effect it was likely to have upon the future of our beloved state. I am firmly confident they will repeal it when they fully understand the facts.

Watchword Given "Encourage honest business; encourage honest industry; encourage investment to develop our Oregon—these should be the watchwords of Oregon legislation. I am convinced there are enough people in Oregon who are determined to have their home state grow and prosper that a law which really handicaps Oregon development will be overwhelmingly repealed when its effects are known.

"I will campaign for this repeal bill myself and will observe the spirit as well as the letter of the Oregon law which requires publicity for campaign contributions and expenditures, as I always have done in every campaign I have conducted, so that all voters may know in advance of election day just who contribute to the campaign fund and how much and exactly what the money is spent for.

"So far not one cent has been contributed, and I am undertaking this responsibility on my own initiative, without consultation or backing, merely exercising my rights as a citizen and taxpayer of Oregon, who is endeavoring sincerely to contribute by his effort to state development and the prosperity of all the people."

Filing May Be Illegal There is a possibility that Mr. Chapman will have to make another filing in order to have a solid legal basis for his action.

Theoretically there is not yet an income tax law, and will not be until the vote has been officially canvassed by the secretary of state. If that theory is correct Mr. Chapman probably will have to refile.

There is another theory, however, that may have the support of a supreme court action in the past. This is that the law was in existence as soon as the last vote was cast on the day of the referendum election. The Chapman move will not prevent the act operating during 1923.
