Chapter G of PEO Sisterhood met at the home of Mrs. Laura Grant Churchill yesterday for the regular meeting and social hour. The club has adopted for the course of study this season the subject, "Our American Neighbors," and the last two meetings have been devoted to a study of Canada. During the afternoon Mrs. W. W. Moore read a paper on "Montreal and Quebec," giving an interesting account of the cities and people as they are today, with a bit of historical background.

Mrs. Harry Styles from Chapter AB, was a special guest for the meeting. During the afternoon plans were made for the bazaar which is to be held next Thursday afternoon, Nov. 22, at the home of Mrs. O. E. Price on North Cottage street. Cooked food and fancy work will be special items on the list. It was decided that tea and waters will be served during the afternoon to the callers.

Miss Loraine Parsons, who spent the summer in the north, will leave this morning for Los Angeles where she expects to study art during the winter.

The Dorcas society of Christ Lutheran church, State street, are completing final arrangements for the annual dinner and supper to be held on Tuesday, November 20, at the Labor Union hall.

Miss and Mrs. Roy McCallister of Prineville are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCallister for a few days.

Earl Shafer and Richard Lyman came from the University of Oregon at Eugene, to spend the week-end at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shafer. Saturday both young men attended the Oregon-Stanford game in Portland, and returned to spend the remainder of the vacation here.

The concert of Winifred Byrd last night attracted a number of people from Portland, Corvallis, Albany and other towns in the valley. Mrs. E. C. Peets, Mrs. W. T. Bushong, Lillian Jeffries Petri, Helen Calbreath and David Campbell came down from Portland for the evening. Miss Helen Caples, instructor of public school music of the Albany schools, attended the concert and while in Salem was the guest of Miss Gretchen Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mercer are planning on leaving soon for a motor trip through southern California where they will spend a month or more visiting the numerous places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm of Corvallis were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kuntz over the week-end. Both Mr. and Mrs. Schramm are alumni of Willamette university and took part in the festivities of the homecoming week-end. Mr. Schramm is cashier of the Corvallis State bank.

Miss Inez Goltra returned the latter part of last week from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Ballard at their ranch home near Yakima. While at Reed college Mrs. Ballard and Miss Goltra became good friends.

Mrs. William Burghardt entertained during the week-end Miss Gertrude Talbot, chaperone at Hendricks Hall, on the campus of the University of Oregon.

The Ladies' Aid of the Central Congregational church held an all-day sewing bee at the church Wednesday in preparation for the bazaar which they will hold on Tuesday, December 4. A covered dish luncheon was served, and but for a short business session the entire day was spent at sewing.

Wednesday, November 24, is the date set for the annual well-baby clinic to be held between the hours of 1 and 5 o'clock in the chamber of commerce rooms. Although this is designated as the well-baby clinic it does not mean that only well babies will be accepted for examination. It is hoped that all mothers will avail themselves of the opportunity of the free examination given to all children between the ages of six months to high school age by the physicians of Salem. The Salem clinic accommodated children living in the districts of Livesley, Rosedale, Liberty, Salem Heights, Turner, Shaw, Waconda, Brooks, Hayesville and the surrounding country.

White and bronze chrysanthemums decorated the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene Wednesday evening when they were hosts to the members of the B. E. club for a five-hundred party. From the scores of the six tables of cards the honors went to Mrs. T. W. Davies and Arthur Keene, and Mrs. Claude Townsend and S. C. Kightlinger took low score. After the cards were cleared away the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Keene in serving dainty refreshments to the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keene and Miss Emma Maplethorp were additional guests of the club for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Watkins will entertain the club for the next meeting on November 28.

The membership of the B. E. club includes Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. F. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. George Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kightlinger, Mr. and Mrs. John Spong, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Stafford and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaw.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hal Hibbard auxiliary of the United Spanish War Veterans will meet this afternoon with Mrs. C. W. Brant, 494 South Winter street.

A pleasant evening's musical entertainment is planned by the Woodmen of the World for this evening at the hour of 8 in the Woodman hall. All Woodmen and their families and friends are invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

Mrs. C. M. Roberts will be hostess to the ladies of the Jason Lee church at her home, 1015 Shipping street, this afternoon at 2:30 for the regular social afternoon. Mrs. C. A. Gies and Mrs. Sam Eckert will assist the hostess.

A good attendance is desired at the next meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America at the next meeting Monday evening, because of the membership contest which the organization has recently been entered with the Woodmen of the World. After the business meeting there will be drill work and it is important that a full membership be present.

The WRC will hold an all-day work meeting in the armory Saturday. All members having blocks for the nursery quilt are asked to bring them to the meeting, as the quilt will be made during the day in preparation for the bazaar which will be the following Saturday, November 24.

Because of the Apollo club concert Tuesday evening, the meeting of the Yomarco class of the First Methodist church was postponed until next Tuesday evening when it will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard.
