

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Arguments Ended—The arguments in the case of D. C. Minto against the Salem Water company were completed yesterday and the case taken under advisement by Judge Percy R. Kelly.

Travelers' Insurance Money—To loan on farm property, 6 1/2 per cent interest, no additional expense. Anderson & Rupert, Oregon Bldg. n16f

Licenses Granted—Marriage licenses were granted yesterday to Henry G. Boedighelmer and Barbara Gehlen both of Stayton and Matthias A. Beyer Mt. Angel, and Ottilia Fessler, Woodburn.

Business Name Assumed—The Pettie shop is the assumed business name filed yesterday by Anna M. Busick whose shop will be in the Greymann building.

Final Hearing Set—December 26 is the date set for final hearing in the estate of George M. Grilley. Florence E. Grilley is administrator.

They Are Here—The new process Columbia double disc records. Just arrived. To prove the quality will sell this demonstration record for 25c. I ordered 1000. Plays on all machines. Geo. C. Will, 432 State St., Columbia dealer. n20

Boston Club Formed—Former Willamette students now living at Boston, Mass., have formed a Boston-Willamette club. The members are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wilken, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ray Attebury, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cason, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Keefer, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Day, Dr. and Mrs. Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Douglas, Paul H. Doney, Ralph W. Barnes, Harry McEwen, John G. Moody, Truman W. Collins and Miss Ruth Stoor. Truman Collins, class of '22 was elected president.

Robert Littler Visits—Robert Littler, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Littler, formerly of Salem, is spending a short time in Salem visiting with his friends. Mr. Littler was last year a member of the Willamette debate team which went on a tour as far east as Chicago, and attracted considerable attention by its consistent winnings. He is now at Stanford where is leader of the Stanford Friday negative debate team. Last Friday he won second place in Pacific Coast conference extemporaneous contest which was held at the University of Oregon.

Christmas Pictures—$2.50 doz. and up, at Parker's Studio, Eldridge bldg., across from YMCA. n25

Ballot Title Completed—I. H. Van Winkle has completed the ballot title for the bill initiated by C. C. Chapman of Portland for repeal of the state income tax act. The title in 18 words merely states that as the purpose of the initiative measure.

Prosecutor Named—Governor Pierce yesterday appointed E. L. Elliott of Klamath Falls to assist District Attorney O. C. Brower in the prosecution of liquor cases. It is said the appointment is not a reflection on the district attorney's ability, but was made with Brower's sanction to relieve the pressure of work in his office.

Salem Smoke Shop—"Oriole" Chocolates in Boxes or Bulk. Magazines. Kodak Finishing Work. A Place Where Ladies Can Trade.

MR. FRUIT PLANTER—Our cherry, prune, apple, pear, peaches, walnut trees are of the very best.

MATHIS NURSERY CO.—Nursery 7 1/2 Miles East of Salem on Silverton Road. Phone 10F4.

Equitable Savings & Loan Association—Portland, Oregon. Harry G. Koenig, Representative, 201 Masonic Bldg. Phone 1446

The Seavey, Bell Insurance Agency—General Insurance "Billy" Bell Frank Wagar

HYDRO-ELECTRIC THERAPEUTIC INSTITUTE—(Formerly Dr. Schonka) 249 S. Cottage St.

PHONE 1182

Conferenced Called—A conference of Portland-Seattle stage service will be held by the public service commission and representatives of the stage companies in Salem on November 22.

Extradition Granted—Governor Pierce yesterday issued an extradition for the return of Charles Crutchfield and McClellan Moody, both colored, from Portland to Los Angeles where they are wanted on charges of automobile theft.

Garnjobst Captain—Adjutant General George A. White yesterday announced the appointment of Dr. George B. Garrison of Portland and Dr. Julius H. Garnjobst of Salem as captains in the medical corps of the Oregon national guard. Both were lieutenants overseas in the World War.

Case Postponed—The case of the Foreign Missionary Board against W. E. Purdy of a local realty company, was postponed for a time until information is received regarding checks which Mr. Purdy says he sent to the eastern office of the Foreign Mission board.

Meat Market Burglarized—Approximately $5 in cash was stolen from the cash register in the McDowell Meat Market, 173 South Commercial, Sunday night, according to a report made to the police yesterday. Entrance to the building was gained by cutting a screen from a back door.

Christmas Pictures—$2.50 doz. and up, at Parker's Studio, Eldridge bldg., across from YMCA. n25

Many Speeders Fined—Fines of $5 for speeding were paid in the police court Monday by L. M. Melvin, 325 South Fourth; E. E. Armstrong, 1036 Belmont; M. Gwynn, 1480 North Fifth; J. H. Van Winkle, Albany, was arrested Sunday and deposited $8 bail. He did not appear yesterday. Others arrested for speeding over the week-end were G. P. Sharkey, 461 North High; Vern Mathis, 161 South Fourth; Henry Odum, Dallas, and J. C. O'Reilly, 1985 South Cottage. Dr. John L. Lynch, 403 Oregon building, was arrested for having no lights upon his automobile, while R. Hill was fined $5 for driving without lights.

Oleson Playing Handball—Members of the Long Beach Y. M. C. A. are being shown how handball is played, in Salem, according to word received from Ole Oleson, now in California, by C. A. Kells of the Salem Y. M. C. A. While here Oleson established quite a local reputation for his work on the handball court.

Another Big Dance—Independence army—Wednesday, November 21. Travellers playing. n21

Heavy Fine for Booze—When L. J. Woolford, Silverton, appeared before Judge P. J. Kuntz in the justice court Monday to receive his sentence for possession of liquor he was fined $300 and costs. Victor Gilstram, also of Silverton, changed his plea to that of not guilty and will stand trial. He was released under $200 bail. The date of the trial was not set yesterday.

Liberty Plans Display—An Assurance that Liberty would be represented at the Marion-Polk County Corn Show and Industrial Exhibit at the armory this week has been given the Chamber of Commerce, bringing the total number of community displays to five. North Howell Lash Center, Brush College and Salem Heights have already given their promise to enter exhibits. Every indication is that the show this year will be the best in the history of the two counties.

Travelers' Insurance Money—To loan on farm property, 6 1/2 per cent interest, no additional expense. Anderson & Rupert, Oregon Bldg. n16f

OSTEOPATHY—The Original and Genuine Spinal Adjustment Treatment. Skillful, Painless Adjustment that gives results. DR. L. C. MARSHALL, Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon, 226 Oregon Bldg., Salem.

506 U. S. National Bank Building Phone 550 Res. Phone 4697

DR. B. H. WHITE—Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon. Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment (Dr. Abrams' Method). Salem—Oregon

Alleged Forger in Jail—Elvis Lindsey, charged with forgery, was arraigned in the justice court yesterday. He demanded hearing which was set for 10 o'clock this morning. He is being held in the county jail.

Illustrated Lecture Offered—Bird and nature lovers will be given a treat in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night at 8 o'clock when three illustrated lectures will be offered. W. F. Findley will speak on "Oregon Bird and Wild Life," J. A. Ormady, traveling passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, will speak on "Oregon for the Tourist," and R. W. Price on "Oregon Outdoors Illustrated." There is no admittance charge.

Pike Is Rotary Speaker—Nelson Pike of Portland will be the principal speaker at the Rotary club luncheon Wednesday noon. Mr. Pike has held many high offices in the Rotary organization and was once mentioned for international president.

Literary Societies Pledge—The women's literary societies are pledging new members this week at Willamette university. Nearly every woman on the campus belongs to one of five literary societies.

Travelers' Insurance Money—To loan on farm property, 6 1/2 per cent interest, no additional expense. Anderson & Rupert, Oregon Bldg. n16f

They Saw The Game—Illustration of the old saying that "where there's a will there's a way" was made by two Salem high school youths who greatly desired to see the football game in Medford yet lacked the finances necessary for the long trip. The two boys, aided by members of the team, boarded the train at Salem and were smuggled into a berth of the Pullman car. The trip south was easy but that back home took a little more ingenuity. The boys hid between seats until the conductor had made his rounds. Owing to the number in the party, two more were not noticed. The trip proved a huge success, both coming and going.

Piper Declines—Governor Pierce yesterday appointed Edgar B. Piper, editor of the Oregonian, as Oregon chairman of the Marding Memorial fund, but Mr. Piper declined to accept. His reason for not accepting was that he did not have the necessary time to give to the work.

Salesmen Wanted—See F. H. Kunkle, Lotz-Larsen Mining company's office, Terminal Hotel, if you're a hustler. We can get together on a proposition that will help us both. n21

Petty Thefts Reported—W. P. Ellis, 244 South Fourteenth, complained to the police Monday that someone had stolen his boy's tricycle. C. D. Barhyte, route 7, reported the theft of two robes from his automobile, which was parked near the Christian Science church Sunday night.

Collides With Freight Train—His automobile was badly wrecked when it collided with a Southern Pacific freight train on Union Monday afternoon. B. J. Teal, route 9, told the police. Teal was driving north on Capitol and failed to stop his automobile in time to avoid the train, which was en route to Falls City.

Funeral Notices—Funeral services for the late Mrs. Anna C. Gans will be held from the Episcopal church today, November 20, at 2:30 p. m. The body will lie in state at the Rigdon mortuary until 2:20 o'clock, and will then be removed to the church. Interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

DIED—MULLIGAN—At Santa Cruz, Cal., Nov. 15th, Mrs. Anna Mulligan, wife of C. D. Mulligan, former residents of Salem. The remains will arrive early Tuesday morning Nov. 20th, and will be taken to the Rigdon mortuary, from whence the funeral cortege will depart for the City View cemetery at 11 o'clock, the Rev. H. F. Pemberton officiating at the graveside service.

LAITINEN—Urho Laitinen died at a local hospital Nov. 17, 1923, at the age of 35 years. Funeral services will be held at the Webb funeral parlors Tuesday, Nov. 20 at 10 a. m. Conducted by Rev. George Koehler. Interment will be in City View cemetery.

Webb & Clough—Leading Funeral Directors. Expert Embalmers. Coal and Dry Wood. Rock Springs and Utah Coal. We have no bargain days—Our Prices are right all the time. LARMER-TRANSFER CO. 408 State St. Phone 920

Rigdon & Son's MORTUARY—Unequaled Service

Three Fire Alarms Sunday—Chimney fires disturbed the peace and serenity of the Salem fire department three times Sunday. There was practically no damage as a result of the blazes. The alarms came in from 1130 Oak, 575 North Cottage and 845 Chemeketa.

Legion Will Meet Tonight—Capital Post No. 9 will meet in regular session at the armory at 8 o'clock tonight. A financial report of the Armistice day celebration will be read. Other business will be transacted and it is expected several other nominations for office will be made.

Patient Recovers—Mrs. H. A. Smart, wife of Officer Smart, who was operated upon recently at the Salem hospital, is recovering and will be able to return to her home within the next few weeks.

Ten-Acre Prune Tract—In McElchrist district for sale or trade. E. E. Fisher, M.D., 514 U. S. Nat'l. Bank. n20e

Prohibition Man Misquoted—That he had been misquoted regarding certain liquor seized in a recent Silverton raid was the statement made last night by H. H. Lant, state special prohibition agent. Five one-gallon jugs with a small quantity of liquor in each were found together with about one quart of beer and half a pint of wine in the offices and living room of Dr. Wrightman. This was the report made in the office of the justice of the peace and not five gallons, as Lant was quoted in the evening paper as having said. Dr. Wrightman entered a plea of not guilty and will stand trial on the charge filed against him by Officer Lant.

Stolen Automobile Recovered—James Oline and a Ford coupe he is said to have stolen from Plyod Kester, 771 North Cottage Friday night were returned from Portland Sunday by Chief of Police Birtchet and L. S. Simeral, member of the police committee of the city council. Oline was turned over to the county court Monday and will probably appear in the juvenile department.

Christmas Pictures—$2.50 doz. and up, at Parker's Studio, Eldridge bldg., across from YMCA. n25

Will Sail for Chile—Francis Kinch, graduate of the class of 1923 from Willamette, is spending a few days in Salem visiting with friends before leaving for Seattle from where he will sail November 22 on the steamship Santa Cruz for Chile. He has a three year contract to take charge of recreation of boys' schools in one of three places, La Pah, Bolivia, or Concepcion, all in Chile.

Choir and Pipe Organ Concert—At First Methodist church at 8 o'clock tonight. Admission 50c—n20.

YWCA Secretary Here—Miss Harriet Bromley, finance secretary in the northwest region of the YWCA, met with the finance committee of the local association yesterday. Mrs. John J. Roberts is chairman of the committee. Miss Bromley will return next Tuesday to meet with the YWCA board and women of Salem. The meeting will be held at 2 o'clock in the YWCA rooms.

Four Hurt in Accident—Four people were injured Sunday afternoon when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by another automobile, said to have been traveling at a fast rate of speed, knocked 30 feet against the curb, where it turned over. Mrs. Robert Schmutz, 50, was cut about the head; Mrs. Anna Stoops, 23, suffered severe bruises; Paul Walp, 12, was thrown from the car and bruised while Albert Stoops, 2, was cut

A Good Thing—DON'T MISS IT—Send your name and address plainly written together with 5 cents (and this slip) to Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa, and receive in return a trial package containing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, "flu" and whooping coughs, and tickling throat; Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for stomach troubles, indigestion, greasy pains that crowd the heart, biliousness and constipation; Chamberlain's Salve, needed in every family for burns, scalds, wounds, piles, and skin affections; these valued family medicines for only 5 cents. Don't miss it.

SALEM CORVALLIS ALBANY WOODBURN

FOR THIS WEEK 3000 Lbs. Italian Prunes

Prunes are healthy as well as appetizing. These prunes grow in the Liberty district. They are superior to those grown in any other state. 40 to 50 prunes to the pound, just the right size for home cooking. We are selling this lot of prunes this week at less than the wholesale price if packed in cartons

14 Pounds 97 Cents

Our Vim Flour sales are increasing daily. There is no other flour made in Oregon equal to Vim quality selling at so low a price. October 10, 1923, we purchased 12 full carloads of Vim flour. That accounts for low price. 49-pound sack $1.73

BUY YOUR GROCERIES AT A STORE WITH THE ORANGE COLOR FRONT IT'S YOUR GUARANTEE OF SERVICE

ped off in Salem yesterday for a short visit with C. A. Kells, executive secretary of the local YMCA. Elmer D. Widmer, Albany, was a visitor in Salem Monday. R. Jacobson was a Marshfield caller in the city yesterday. Southern Oregon was represented in Salem recently by W. R. Gaylor, Medford. W. W. Smith was a Hood River visitor in Salem over the week-end. Chief of Police Walter Birtchet spent Monday afternoon on business in Albany. Harry L. Holgate of Portland, representing the United States reclamation service, was in Salem yesterday. D. G. Tyree of Medford, representing the California-Oregon Power company, was here yesterday. Henry M. Hansen, political editor of the Portland Telegram, was in Salem Monday. State Senator George Joseph was here Monday from Portland. Rev. John E. Youel, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Dallas, was in the city Monday. He was a guest at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon. Nick Carter, former student at the University of Oregon, was in the city yesterday en route to Portland. Paul W. Campbell, secretary of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, was a business visitor in Salem Monday.

Lectures on Advertising—Prof. H. T. Vance of Oregon Agricultural college gave a very instructive and interesting lecture on "How to Conduct a Local Advertising Campaign" last night at the YMCA to a small but enthusiastic group of Salem business men. This is one of a series of 16 lectures that he is giving each Monday evening.

Double-Parking Charged—Arrested Saturday on a charge of double parking, Baylis G. Flanning will appear in police court next Saturday.

Bicycle Is Claimed—Wallace Morgan, Chemawa, has claimed one of the bicycles held at the police station.

Appeal Taken—The California-Oregon Power company has filed with the state tax commission notice of an appeal to the circuit court for Jackson county in an effort to get a reduction in the assessed valuation of its Oregon properties under the valuation fixed by the tax commission. The commission placed a valuation of $2,125,237 on the properties of the utility. Last year the valuation was placed at $1,248,937. The company seeks a reduction this year to $1,825,716. The company's headquarters is at Medford.

PERSONALS

L. H. Jones was down from Oregon City during the week-end. Miss Martha Aeschelman, Co-fax, Wash., spent Monday in Salem.

Week-end visitors in Salem included H. I. Quinlivan and family of Astoria. J. H. Van Winkle was an Albany visitor in Salem Sunday.

Henry Odum, Dallas, was in Salem Sunday afternoon and evening.

W. W. Dillon, state YMCA secretary for Idaho and Oregon, stopped off in Salem yesterday for a short visit with C. A. Kells, executive secretary of the local YMCA. Elmer D. Widmer, Albany, was a visitor in Salem Monday. R. Jacobson was a Marshfield caller in the city yesterday. Southern Oregon was represented in Salem recently by W. R. Gaylor, Medford. W. W. Smith was a Hood River visitor in Salem over the week-end. Chief of Police Walter Birtchet spent Monday afternoon on business in Albany. Harry L. Holgate of Portland, representing the United States reclamation service, was in Salem yesterday. D. G. Tyree of Medford, representing the California-Oregon Power company, was here yesterday. Henry M. Hansen, political editor of the Portland Telegram, was in Salem Monday. State Senator George Joseph was here Monday from Portland. Rev. John E. Youel, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Dallas, was in the city Monday. He was a guest at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon. Nick Carter, former student at the University of Oregon, was in the city yesterday en route to Portland. Paul W. Campbell, secretary of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, was a business visitor in Salem Monday.

From "Bill" to "Buddy" is the keynote of the invitations being sent to members of Salem Elks' lodge No. 336 and to American Legion men for the big entertainment that will be staged in the local lodge rooms Thursday night. The Legionnaires will be extended the freedom of the club rooms after 7 o'clock. From 8 o'clock until 8:30 o'clock will be held the regular session of the lodge followed by an open meeting until 9 o'clock. After this the ex-service men will be entertained by the Leakes' Orchestral Entertainers, three women and one man, who are appearing on the Ellison-White lyceum program this year. After the entertainment, the guests will be taken to the basement of the temple where they will be served a banquet.

Without effort life would stagnate. To have nothing to do would indeed be hard work—

Elks Will Be Hosts To American Legion Members

From "Bill" to "Buddy" is the keynote of the invitations being sent to members of Salem Elks' lodge No. 336 and to American Legion men for the big entertainment that will be staged in the local lodge rooms Thursday night. The Legionnaires will be extended the freedom of the club rooms after 7 o'clock. From 8 o'clock until 8:30 o'clock will be held the regular session of the lodge followed by an open meeting until 9 o'clock. After this the ex-service men will be entertained by the Leakes' Orchestral Entertainers, three women and one man, who are appearing on the Ellison-White lyceum program this year. After the entertainment, the guests will be taken to the basement of the temple where they will be served a banquet.

PERSONALS

L. H. Jones was down from Oregon City during the week-end. Miss Martha Aeschelman, Co-fax, Wash., spent Monday in Salem.

Week-end visitors in Salem included H. I. Quinlivan and family of Astoria. J. H. Van Winkle was an Albany visitor in Salem Sunday.

Henry Odum, Dallas, was in Salem Sunday afternoon and evening.

W. W. Dillon, state YMCA secretary for Idaho and Oregon, stopped off in Salem yesterday for a short visit with C. A. Kells, executive secretary of the local YMCA. Elmer D. Widmer, Albany, was a visitor in Salem Monday. R. Jacobson was a Marshfield caller in the city yesterday. Southern Oregon was represented in Salem recently by W. R. Gaylor, Medford. W. W. Smith was a Hood River visitor in Salem over the week-end. Chief of Police Walter Birtchet spent Monday afternoon on business in Albany. Harry L. Holgate of Portland, representing the United States reclamation service, was in Salem yesterday. D. G. Tyree of Medford, representing the California-Oregon Power company, was here yesterday. Henry M. Hansen, political editor of the Portland Telegram, was in Salem Monday. State Senator George Joseph was here Monday from Portland. Rev. John E. Youel, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Dallas, was in the city Monday. He was a guest at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon. Nick Carter, former student at the University of Oregon, was in the city yesterday en route to Portland. Paul W. Campbell, secretary of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, was a business visitor in Salem Monday.

ped off in Salem yesterday for a short visit with C. A. Kells, executive secretary of the local YMCA. Elmer D. Widmer, Albany, was a visitor in Salem Monday. R. Jacobson was a Marshfield caller in the city yesterday. Southern Oregon was represented in Salem recently by W. R. Gaylor, Medford. W. W. Smith was a Hood River visitor in Salem over the week-end. Chief of Police Walter Birtchet spent Monday afternoon on business in Albany. Harry L. Holgate of Portland, representing the United States reclamation service, was in Salem yesterday. D. G. Tyree of Medford, representing the California-Oregon Power company, was here yesterday. Henry M. Hansen, political editor of the Portland Telegram, was in Salem Monday. State Senator George Joseph was here Monday from Portland. Rev. John E. Youel, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Dallas, was in the city Monday. He was a guest at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon. Nick Carter, former student at the University of Oregon, was in the city yesterday en route to Portland. Paul W. Campbell, secretary of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, was a business visitor in Salem Monday.

Without effort life would stagnate. To have nothing to do would indeed be hard work—

Elks Will Be Hosts To American Legion Members

From "Bill" to "Buddy" is the keynote of the invitations being sent to members of Salem Elks' lodge No. 336 and to American Legion men for the big entertainment that will be staged in the local lodge rooms Thursday night. The Legionnaires will be extended the freedom of the club rooms after 7 o'clock. From 8 o'clock until 8:30 o'clock will be held the regular session of the lodge followed by an open meeting until 9 o'clock. After this the ex-service men will be entertained by the Leakes' Orchestral Entertainers, three women and one man, who are appearing on the Ellison-White lyceum program this year. After the entertainment, the guests will be taken to the basement of the temple where they will be served a banquet.

Without effort life would stagnate. To have nothing to do would indeed be hard work—

PERSONALS

L. H. Jones was down from Oregon City during the week-end. Miss Martha Aeschelman, Co-fax, Wash., spent Monday in Salem.

Week-end visitors in Salem included H. I. Quinlivan and family of Astoria. J. H. Van Winkle was an Albany visitor in Salem Sunday.

Henry Odum, Dallas, was in Salem Sunday afternoon and evening.

W. W. Dillon, state YMCA secretary for Idaho and Oregon, stopped off in Salem yesterday for a short visit with C. A. Kells, executive secretary of the local YMCA. Elmer D. Widmer, Albany, was a visitor in Salem Monday. R. Jacobson was a Marshfield caller in the city yesterday. Southern Oregon was represented in Salem recently by W. R. Gaylor, Medford. W. W. Smith was a Hood River visitor in Salem over the week-end. Chief of Police Walter Birtchet spent Monday afternoon on business in Albany. Harry L. Holgate of Portland, representing the United States reclamation service, was in Salem yesterday. D. G. Tyree of Medford, representing the California-Oregon Power company, was here yesterday. Henry M. Hansen, political editor of the Portland Telegram, was in Salem Monday. State Senator George Joseph was here Monday from Portland. Rev. John E. Youel, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Dallas, was in the city Monday. He was a guest at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon. Nick Carter, former student at the University of Oregon, was in the city yesterday en route to Portland. Paul W. Campbell, secretary of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, was a business visitor in Salem Monday.

5 WEEKS UNTIL XMAS
Hartman Jewelry Store

After Every Meal WRIGLEY'S

All the goodness, flavor and quality that goes into WRIGLEY'S at the factory IS KEPT IN IT FOR YOU.

The sealed package does that—you break the seal.

WRIGLEY'S is pure chiclet and other ingredients of the highest quality obtainable. Made under modern sanitary conditions.

WRIGLEY'S aids appetite, keeps teeth white and helps digestion.

Save Wrigley's wrappers

BUSICK'S STANDARDIZED CASH STORES

SALEM CORVALLIS ALBANY WOODBURN

FOR THIS WEEK 3000 Lbs. Italian Prunes

Prunes are healthy as well as appetizing. These prunes grow in the Liberty district. They are superior to those grown in any other state. 40 to 50 prunes to the pound, just the right size for home cooking. We are selling this lot of prunes this week at less than the wholesale price if packed in cartons

14 Pounds 97 Cents

Our Vim Flour sales are increasing daily. There is no other flour made in Oregon equal to Vim quality selling at so low a price. October 10, 1923, we purchased 12 full carloads of Vim flour. That accounts for low price. 49-pound sack $1.73

BUY YOUR GROCERIES AT A STORE WITH THE ORANGE COLOR FRONT IT'S YOUR GUARANTEE OF SERVICE

LADD & BUSH BANKERS
Established 1868
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.