A pretty wedding occurred yesterday morning at the St. Joseph's church when Miss Martha Woelke of Salem and Joseph Pietrok of Stayton were married at the nine o'clock nuptial mass. To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Mary Lebold, the bridal pair took their places before the floral chancel where Father Buck performed the ceremony and read the mass. Father Keenan and Father Lainck of Sublimity assisted during the ceremony.
The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine with a long veil held in place by a dainty wreath of orange blossoms, and on her arm she carried a large bouquet of white carnations. Miss Mabeline Pietrok, a sister of the groom, attended the bride. Her gown was of sand canton crepe and she carried pink carnations.

Following the ceremony the wedding guests adjourned to the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Gehrmann, on North Church street, for a large reception and wedding breakfast. Over 70 relatives and friends partook of the festivities.
The young couple are leaving for Stayton this morning where they will make their home on a small farm near that place.
Thursday will be a busy day for the ladies' aid of the WRC

when they meet at the armory for the all day work meeting, for there are quilts, rugs, rompers and other things to be finished in tip top style for the bazaar which will be held all day Saturday. The proceeds from the bazaar will go into the fund for purchasing the memorial day flags to decorate the old soldiers' graves and for the Christmas box to be sent to the old soldiers' home.
The Royal Neighbors of America met for the regular business meeting Monday evening. After the business session much of the time was given over to drill work, followed by a social hour and refreshments. The Royal Neighbors have entered into a membership campaign with the Woodmen of America and they have organized themselves into a "Speedway" contest, with Mrs. Walter Persons, state deputy of the organization, as garage manager. Mrs. C. H. Peterson has charge of the filling station, and is captain of the following chauffeurs: Mrs. Henry Schott, Mrs. Margaret West, Miss Odille Persons and Miss Minnie Comstock.
The members of the Nemo club spent a delightful evening, Monday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Rodgers. The fall flowers in the bright shades were attractively placed about the living room where the evening was pleasantly passed at the card tables playing "500." Mrs. H. H. Olinger and Frank Durbin won the high scores for the game. After the cards were cleared away the hostess served dainty refreshments to the guests, and the remainder of the evening was spent visiting. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert were invited to participate in the evening's pleasure.
The membership of the club includes: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner and Dr. and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith.
Mrs. W. T. Whittig was hostess to the members of the Round Up club Monday afternoon for the regular game of bridge. Mrs. J. Beck was specially invited for the afternoon and the high score of the games went to Mrs. Lenta Westcott. After the cards, a delightful half hour or so was spent chatting over the tea cups, with Miss Mary Jane Albert assisting the hostess in serving.

Mrs. C. K. Spaulding will be hostess to the club at the next meeting on Monday, December 3. The personnel of the Round Up club is as follows: Mrs. Joseph Albert, Mrs. E. Hartley, Mrs. R. E. Downing, Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mrs. J. H. Scott, Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mrs. E. C. Patton, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mrs. T. E. Kay, Mrs. Lenta Westcott, Mrs. J. C. Griffith and Mrs. J. T. Whittig.
At the meeting Monday night of the Junior and senior ballet classes of Mrs. Ralph White's dancing academy, December 26 was decided as the date for the annual dance for which the class is hostess to escorts and one additional guest couple for each member. Whether or not it shall be formal is always a much debated question, but this time the pros and cons diplomatically agreed that it shall be a semi-formal affair, meaning that the girls appear in formal dress, while the men are spared the ordeal of the so-called "soup and fish."
Marie Briggs, the general chairman of the dance, named her program committee Monday night with the following appointments: Luella Patton, chairman; Fay Hendrickson, Marjorie Mellinger, Valerie Briggs and Fay Wassam.
Sewing for the bazaar occupied the afternoon meeting of the Junior Bazaar club of the First Congregational church Monday afternoon when about twenty ladies met at the home of Miss Mary Fake. The annual church bazaar will be held in the church basement on Wednesday, December 5.
