The number of dances listed on the social calendar has caused much flutter among the high school set these past few days.

surprise has been planned for the feature of the evening. The TNT club will also entertain with an informal dance this evening at Cotillion hall.

The appearance of Efrim Zimbalist at the state normal school at Monmouth, December 3, is attracting much attention from Salem folk.

Zimbalist is a pupil of Professor Auer, the "master of master" violinists. When Professor Auer was master of the violin at the Imperial Conservatory of Petrograd, Zimbalist's father, a noted conductor of opera and orchestra sent the young violinist to study under the professor. It was through Zimbalist's influence that Jascha Heifetz, virtuoso, was admitted to the conservatory. During the revolution in Russia, Professor Auer escaped with his violins and some of his music and came to Aerica, where he was met by his former pupils, Zimbalist and Heifetz, now wealthy and eager to help him.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Richard Wetjen have recently purchased the small farm belonging to D. S. Hildebrand about one mile south of Salem located between the Liberty road and the Pacific highway.

The Illahee country club will be the scene of a smart dancing party this evening. This is the first social function to be held in the club house since the beginning of the season's social activities.

After the business meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America Monday evening the ladies gave a shower for the five newly weds in the society, Mrs. Emma Peterson, Overgard; Mrs. May Peterson McElhany, Mrs. Laura Schwab MacInn, Mrs. Anna Anderson Sitner, and Mrs. Kathryn Gibbard Persons. Many lovely and useful gifts were received by the honored ones.

At the next regular meeting, Monday night, the officers for the coming year will be elected, and everyone in the order is urged to be present.

With alrge American flags draped from the rafters, and huge baskets of the brightly colored chrysanthemums arranged about the hall, the armory is all set for the annual Eastern Star card party and dance which will be given there this evening. This is one of the large social affairs of the season given for the public, and always a great many private parties enjoy the evening of cards or of dancing.

Mr. Charles Pratt is the general chairman of the affair and he has been assisted by the following committee chairmen with their army of helpers. Floor committee, Mrs. Albert Smith; refreshments, Mrs. Ralph Thompson; door, Mr. Ralph Thompson; decorations, J. W. Maruny; check-room, Mr. Arthur Welch; advertising and publicity, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser; cards, Mrs. M. L. Darby.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shand will spend Thanksgiving as house guests of the Emory Thompsons of Sutherland, Douglas county.

Mrs. Emma Loomis of Tacoma, Wash., is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henry S. Belle.

The Mizpah and MJLB classes of the Jason Lee Methodist church held their monthly social meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bond. A very enjoyable time passed with music and games. Special numbers were a solo by Mrs. Ruth Farko, and readings by Mrs. Mudd and Miss Marcia Feustman. Later refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. C. A. Gies, Mrs. E. E. Roberts and Miss Beryl Bond.

Those enjoying the evening were Rev. and Mrs. Hocking, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Roberts, Mr. C. M. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Carpenter, Mr. W. N. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Feustman, Mrs. Fred Farko, Mrs. Phil Aspinwall, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gies, Mr. Dunlap, Mrs. Mudd, Mr. Ward, Mr. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bond and Miss Beryl Bond.

The members of the Friday Bridge club with their husbands were delightfully entertained on Monday with a 7 o'clock dinner, followed with an evening of bridge at the home of Mrs. S. G. Delano. Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mrs. S. G. Delano and Mrs. Elmer Dae were joint hostesses for the affair. The dinner was served in cafeteria style at the six small card tables arranged about the living and dining rooms. The remainder of the evening was spent playing bridge, and the prize of the evening, a book on bridge for beginners, went to Dr. Olson, the winner of the low score.

The club, which is composed of three tables, is divided into three groups, each group entertaining the members of the club and their

The Special Prize Offer

Two Additional Diamond Rings To Be Given Free

The Contest Department of The Oregon Statesman wants to help every candidate get a good start in the Big Automobile Prize Contest, consequently we have decided to give a splendid Extra prize offer which we feel sure will aid every candidate in securing votes and subscriptions. It is as follows:

- District No. 1 — To the out of town candidate (this means any candidate who lives outside the city limits of Salem) who turns in or places in the mail the greatest amount of money on subscriptions between the dates of 8 a. m. Monday, November 26th and 9 p. m. Saturday, December 8th, we will give a splendid Diamond Ring.
 - District No. 2 — To the candidate in the City of Salem (this means any candidate who lives in the City of Salem) who turns in the greatest amount of money or subscriptions between the dates of 8 a. m. Monday, November 26th and 9 p. m. Saturday, December 8th, we will give a splendid Diamond Ring.
- These two Special Prizes of Diamond Rings are Extra Prizes and all votes secured while working for them count toward the regular prizes consisting of Automobiles, etc.
- Candidates may secure subscriptions any place. That is, a country candidate may secure subscriptions in the city or a city candidate may secure subscriptions in the country. Any money collected on old arrearage subscriptions, renewal subscriptions or new subscriptions to the Daily Oregon Statesman count toward these special prizes and also earn votes towards the grand prizes.

The Diamond Rings

These Diamond Rings were purchased from and are on display in the window of Hartman Bros. Jewelry Store, 399 State Street, Salem. These magnificent rings have Blue White perfect stones and have 18 karat gold mountings. They are valued at $85.00 each.
