No more wood to pack!

No — nor any more coal or ashes for anyone to lug! The convenience and efficiency of Pearl Oil-made heat means comfort for everyone — fire-tending for none. Heat by the roomful at the touch of a match! Simply turn the wick high for initial warmth — then low to maintain it. And remember, Pearl Oil burns clean — it leaves absolutely no odor.

For best results your heater needs more than just kerosene. "Kerosene" or "coal oil" may mean any kind of kerosene — "Pearl Oil" but one. It is the highest-quality kerosene only, the result of years of research and study, and refined for heating and lighting purposes exclusively by the Standard Oil Company's own special process. Your dealer knows Pearl Oil — ask for it by name.

Mrs. Harry Hawkins, assisted by other members of the local Kappa Alpha Theta alumni chapter, will be hostess for a smart tea this afternoon, for the pleasure of the active members of the sorority who have returned from their various schools to spend the Thanksgiving vacation at home. A number of invitations have been issued to members of the younger set.

At the hour of two, tomorrow afternoon in the parsonage of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, Miss Edna Howard and Harold Cate will be married by the Reverend H. D. Chambers. Although both the bride and groom are well known in Salem among the university folk the wedding will be very intimate with only a very few intimate friends and relatives witnessing the ceremony.

Miss Helen Roberts, who is attending St. Helen's hall this winter, is spending the Thanksgiving vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Roberts. She is entertaining as her house guests over the week end her school friends, Miss Virginia Baken of Montana, Miss Grace McKeown of Coos Bay and Marjorie Mariner of Berkeley. The young maids were guests at the country club dance Wednesday evening and today they will be guests at the tea given by the Kappa Alpha Theta Alumni club. They will return to Portland Sunday evening to resume their class work Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Harrelson of Vancouver, Wash., are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Eley. They will visit in Salem for about a week before departing for Long Beach, Cal., to spend the Christmas holidays at the home of Mrs. Harrelson's brother, B. R. Mynatt. Mrs. Harrelson and Mrs. Eley are sisters.

To bid Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dent farewell, before they leave to make their home in Tacoma, Wash., a number of the members of the Leslie Methodist church gathered at the Dent home Tuesday, to enjoy the evening at games and chatting. Each of the forty visitors presented the honor guests with a post card bearing a personal message in keeping with the season.

After spending a number of years in Salem Mr. and Mrs. Dent are returning to their former home in the north. They have been staunch and faithful workers in the church here, and their absence will be keenly felt, both in the church and among their many friends. A fitting close to the evening was effected by the friends when they joined hands to sing the old songs, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and "Auld Lang Syne."

Chapter AB of PEO sisterhood met at the home of Mrs. Harry Styles Monday evening with Miss Osborne, a PEO of Gooding, Idaho, and Mrs. Mary Reeves, of the Lebanon chapter, as guests. An account of her recent Alaskan trip by Miss Mae Ruch was an interesting part of the evening's program. During the business session it was decided that the women will entertain their husbands at the home of Dr. Mary Rowland on the evening of December 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Loose entertained a number of young people at their home Friday evening to celebrate the fourteenth birthday of their daughter, Carol. The rooms were made colorful by an effective arrangement of autumn leaves and bronze chrysanthemums, and the birthday cake which was later served to the guests was iced in the same autumnal colors. The evening was merrily spent at games with a bit of music. The guests were: Georgia Williams, Ora Williams, Helen Walcher, Madge Britano, Lois Lippold, Edna Kugel, Margaret Van Velle, Josephine Neumann, Hazel Russell, Doris Nelson, Fern Johnson, Nellie Roberts, Betty Clorine Van Santem, Carol Loose, Mrs. N. Kugel, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Santem, Carl Ramsie, Harold Kelly, Kenneth Seely, Perry Walcher, Percy Johnson, Edward Parker, Harry Olson, Carl Noskie, Charley Russell, Pearl Patterson, Voorhis Loose, Arthur Martin and the hosts.

With Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre and Gladys Steele as hostesses, the Business and Professional Woman's club of the city entertained with a social evening, Tuesday, for the pleasure of the new members and those who will join the organization in the near future. The membership drive for the club under the leadership of Dr. Mary Purvine, is now getting well under way, and during the evening many new cards were signed. The program arranged by Miss Laura Hale added much to the evening's pleasure. A number of club women presented a playlet, "The Economical Boomerang," the cast including Grace Taylor, Mrs. Blanche Isherwood, May Hale, May Cleveland, Mrs. Hester Harding and June Zeller was formerly Marie Evans, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Evans.

Mrs. Howard Taylor, of the China Inland Mission, will hold a mass meeting for women this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church at two o'clock. Mrs. Taylor is the author of a number of books dealing with her work in the mission. Aside from her wonderful message, she has a strong and appealing personality, and her power of description is far above the average in the ability to create clear, clean cut, and vivid word pictures. The lecture promises to be one of unusual interest, and it is hoped that the women of Salem will be able to enjoy this unusual opportunity to hear of the work being done in the China Inland Mission.

The fourth program to be broadcasted this week from the local station, KFCD was sent out last night by members of the writers' section of the Salem Arts league, and included a variety of poems, songs, stories and sketches, as follows: "House Ghosts," a poem by Mrs. Edna Daily; "The Last Switch," a poem by Perry Prescott Reigelman; "Boontown," a story sketch, by Grace Elizabeth Smith; "Asure Wings," a song, the words and music written by Mrs. J. M. Clifford, sung by Mrs. Richard Robertson; "To Mother," a short story by Mrs. Ruth Fargo; "The Wind Spirit," a poem by Miss Mina Harding; "Sunset," a poem by Miss Monroe Gilbert; "Autumn," a rondeau by Mrs. Viola Pierce Franklin; "Button Lady," verse, by Mrs. J. C. Nelson; "cultivate Your Likes," a sketch by Mrs. Blanche Jones; "The Star," a poem by Miss Reneska Swartz; a group of three poems by Gertrude Robinson Ross; "Birds," a poem, Mrs. Merrill Ohling; a poem by Professor M. E. Peck; a group of poems by Audred Binch; and a lullaby, "Sleepy Little Child," words by Mrs. F. S. Barton, music by Mrs. Ralph C. Walker of Portland, and sung by F. S. Barton.

Miss Josephine Jaskoski departed yesterday for Portland to spend the week end as the guest of Miss Janice McKinnon. Miss McKinnon is a former Salem resident but now lives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh entertained as Thanksgiving guests Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Whitten and Frank Rosebraugh of Salem.

Miss Marjorie Flegel is spending the week end as the house guest of Miss Maxine Buran.

Congratulations are being accepted by Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Zeller upon the birth of a daughter Wednesday. The baby has been named Viola Marilyn. Mrs.

MEASLES CAN BE KEPT SUPPRESSED

Portland Physicians Say Invasion of Disease Is Not Necessary

By FREDERICK D. STRICKER, M. D.

Why should your children have measles? Measles is a preventable disease. Notwithstanding this fact there are probably more than twelve hundred cases of measles in Portland at this time, and three deaths have resulted from the disease. The epidemic, however, is not confined to Portland alone, as reports show that it is prevalent also in some of the smaller communities. It is well therefore for all teachers to be on the lookout for cases of measles in their schools. The disease is more common among school children, but it may also occur among adults.

Measles is an acute febrile disease, characterized chiefly by skin eruptions in the form of rash, and inflammation of the mucous membrane, accompanied by a watery discharge from the nose, eyes, and throat. In the beginning it is hard to differentiate from a common cold in the head, but the diagnosis is generally settled upon the appearance of the rash. Measles is probably the most contagious of all diseases.

and spreads throughout a community like wildfire. The disease is transmitted generally through droplets and the sprays from the nose and throat of persons having the disease. It also is probably conveyed to some extent through the use of handkerchiefs and towels. It is not believed that the scales from measles have much to do with the spread of the disease. Measles is one of the most difficult conditions to control. This is due not only to the contagious character of the disease but also to the fact that it is contagious before the rash appears. Ignorant and indifferent mothers also play a part in its spread. Mothers should keep their children away from picture shows and all public gatherings until the epidemic has been abated.

About all some of us have saved for a rainy day is rheumatism.

Coroner Fails to Locate Man Who Visited Cemetery
SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 29.—NO clues as to the identity of a man who Monday drove to Deer Park cemetery with the body of a newborn babe, wrapped in paper and with a rough box for a coffin, buried it in an unused plot, have been found after a two-day investigation, Coroner Baker announced today. There were no evidence of violence on the body, he said.
