or Roll? It means a great deal to you. Ask some of the contestants who are already on. They will tell you. Connell Ward of Salem, Oregon, eads the whole race in contest to day with 481,400 votes. Connell Ward is a boy who is doing some very fine soliciting. He is to be praised in this contest. He wishes his friends to know that he needs their help as much as they are able to give him. Rayford Ely, still holds second place with 481,-300 votes. Miss Nellie Mitchell of Salem, Or., is a young lady who started working in the contest about seven days ago. She has a total at present time of 480,100 votes. Miss Mitchell entered this contest in real earnest during this diamond special, and she is a very deserving candidate. Miss Mamle Denison of Dallas, Ore., still is showing her city that she means business. Leo Weir, of Valley Motor Co., has been laying very low during this contest, but this week we find that he is gradually creeping towards the top. That does not mean that he has not been working, for Mr. Weir is doing as much as any contestant in the contest, Mr. Joseph Barch-told, of Mt. Angel, Or., has a total today of 468,100 votes. Mr. Berchtold is another contestant who has just started in since the spe prize offer was put on. I feel that if Mr. Berchtold keeps this good work up without a doubt he would be one of the winners at the end of the big Automobile Voting Contest. Blanche Gough of Mehama Or., is another in the 400,000 mark. She too, has just started working in earnest. Mrs. Foley, of route 7, is leaving quite a bit of her campaign to her friends and you can see what they have done for her but that does not mean that she is not working. Evelyn Haworth of Stayton Or. has been doing some very fine work. Ethel Mason of Mill City. Or., reached the 400,000 mark today, Mrs. T. M. McClellan of West Stayton and Mrs. Carl Muller of Silverton are going a pretty good pace. Mrs. G. N. Thom of route 8, Salem, Or., made quite
