

Society

By BETTI KESSI, Phone 196.

The auditorium of the Woman's club building was well filled at the December meeting which took place Saturday afternoon, when the club met to observe education day. With Mrs. J. A. Churchill, chairman of the educational committee of the state federation as well as chairman of the same committee of the Salem club, in charge of the program, the women enjoyed one of the most interesting afternoons of the season.

A letter from the educational committee of the state federation to the Salem Woman's club was read by Mrs. Churchill, in which the women were urged to interest their congressmen in the passing of the Towner-Spaulding bill which provides for a department of education with secretarial head to be included in the president's cabinet; it also calls for an appropriation of two million five hundred thousand dollars to aid the states in carrying out their various educational measures without the control of the federal government. Questionnaires were presented for the members to fill out, regarding suggestions of omissions or additions in regard to the present course of study.

A group of girls from the Indian school at Chemawa, attractive in their uniforms of red and white, sang two songs, after which Mrs. Harwood Hall read a paper explaining the work the government is doing for the Indians in the country and especially just what kind of training the government school at Chemawa is giving this generation of Indian boys and girls. In her paper, Miss Mabel Robertson, head of the history department of Salem high school, outlined the plan of the study of history in the grade schools, showing the effect this background has upon the high school student's decision of whether or not he shall incorporate history among his electives. Miss Robertson dwelt at length upon the modern ideas and methods of teaching history in the grades, in order to make it more interesting and attractive to the children.

In his address, Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette University, spoke of the club as an adjunct of the schools, for after school, unless one's education is put to use, it is lost, and in the club work, where the women are working with and for the vital issues of the day, it is most necessary to keep adding to the store of knowledge gained in the schools.

During the business hour which preceded the club program, resolutions of thanks were passed for the gifts donated to the club by a number of the individual members. A letter from the head of the Associated Charities of Salem, asking for one member to be chosen to represent the Salem Woman's club on the board of directors which is to be made up of representatives from the various clubs of the city. The representative will be chosen at the next meeting.

Nearly one hundred women partook of the delightful tea hour in the cheerful new tearoom in the club house. Mrs. Seymour

Jones, president of the club, presided over the tea table, which was centered by holly with its vivid red berries, and red candles burning in old brass holders. During the hour, Mrs. Arthur Rahn sang charmingly for the pleasure of the occasion. Those serving on the social committee for Saturday were: Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. John Clifford, Mrs. Connell Dyer and Mrs. C. E. Bates.

The next meeting of the club is scheduled for January 12, when Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, chairman of the art department, will sponsor a program concerning lace, with a special lace-making exhibit.

The Yomarc class of the First Methodist church is meeting this evening at the home of Professor and Mrs. T. S. Roberts on North Summer for a social time. Something unique in the way of a Christmas party is being planned for the occasion, and the many members anticipate an interesting evening.

Honoring the birthday of Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith presided over a pretty family dinner party Sunday. An artistic basket full of fall blossoms were effectively used as a centerpiece for the attractively appointed table, where covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding and daughter, Leone, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Spaulding and Jean and Clifford, Jr., of Newberg, Mrs. Beulah Mills and Roberta, Ila and Charles Mills.

Meeting with Mrs. Karl Kugel as hostess the members of the Community Bridge club enjoyed the usual afternoon of cards yesterday. From the scores of the three tables, Mrs. Wright, who was invited to take the place of Mrs. Lou Grote, won the high number. Before the guests departed the hostess served light refreshments.

With Christmas only fourteen days in advance, shoppers are coming out in busy numbers, for it will soon be time to be sending the gift packages to the members of the family away from home, and many are the cards and letters of greeting that will be flying to all parts of the world, bearing their messages of Christmas cheer. This year, as in the past number of years, the little Christmas seals bearing a red double cross are being sold to help in the fight against tuberculosis in the country.

For the past week the sale of the seals has been conducted in Salem and Marion county with many prominent society matrons and club women assisting in the work. Mrs. J. A. Carson is managing the sale in the county and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger is managing the sale by mail. Mrs. Fred H. Thompson and Mrs. F. G. Bowerson, with their assistants, are in charge of the booth sale in the city. Ten committees serve for a period of one week from Tuesday to Tuesday, continuing until Christmas day. During the past week the following matrons took charge of the various booths: The First National Bank, Mrs. G. E. Schuneman, assisted by Mrs. Fred Brock, Jr., Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Willa Hueckstein, Mrs. L. W. Gleason, Mr. John L. Rand, Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, Mrs. Guy Smith and Mrs. Albert O'Brien. Ladd and Bush bank, Mrs. Morton Peck, assisted by Miss Frances Richards, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Beta Chi sorority girls, Mrs. Paul Hendricks and Mrs. Everett Hobson. Kafoury's, the following PRO members, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. G. W. Laffar, Mrs. A. T. Woolpert and Mrs. D. X. Beecher. Miller's, Mrs. James Nicholson, with Mrs. A. J. Rahn, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. J. W. Harrison, Mrs. George Hug, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mrs. Chapler, Mrs. L. S. Sheldon and Dorothy Brant. Worth and Gray, Mrs. Karl Becke with Magie Hunter, Miss M. Lovell, Mrs. Darryl Proctor, Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. B. E. Forbes, Mrs. E. E. Brosius and Mrs. W. B. Mott. At the Bank of Commerce, Mrs. Ralph White with Mrs. James Teed, Mrs. Earl Paulsen, Mrs. William Prunk, Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. Jesse George, Mrs. Lewis Mishler and Mrs. Armin Berger are managing the booth sale.

During the past week at the post office, Mrs. William Walton had the following women helping during the week: Mrs. Merle Rosecrans, Mrs. Lynn Smith, Miss Mae Rauch, Miss Mjoenta, Mrs. L. F. Barr and Mrs. Armin Berger. New helpers for the week have not as yet been announced.

As retiring president of the Rapheterian club, Mrs. Ronald Glover invited the members of the club as guests for a charming one o'clock luncheon preceding the regular afternoon meeting of the club. Volleys and green candles centered the table around which were seated the members of the club whose birthdays occur in the spring and summer months, and a centerpiece of fruits with holly and red candles was used on the table whereon covers were laid for those born in the fall and winter months. The red and green of the candles on the two tables further carried out the Christmas motif. The places were marked by small gilded wish-bones.

After the luncheon hour the club convened for a short business session during which the following officers were elected for the year: President, Mrs. James West; secretary, Mrs. Cecil Hawley, and treasurer, Mrs. Lee Unruh. The personnel of the club includes: Mrs. Carl Abrams, Mrs. Charles E. Bates, Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mrs. H. V. Compton, Mrs. Elliott Colony, Mrs. J. C. Evans, Mrs. Ronald C. Glover, Mrs. James G. Heltzel, Mrs. Cecil Hawley, Mrs. A. A. Stewart, Mrs. Guy Smith, Mrs. Ray L. Smith, Mrs. Frederick H. Thompson, Mrs. Lee Unruh, Mrs. Floyd Utter, Mrs. James West, Mrs. Otto J. Wilson and Mrs. Phil Newmyer, who was elected to take the place of Mrs. Roy F. Shields who just recently moved to Portland.

The retiring officers are: Mrs. Ronald Glover, president; Mrs. Elliott Colony, vice-president; Mrs. H. V. Compton, secretary. After the election the new president was presented with the gavel in behalf of Rapheterian.

The remainder of the afternoon was passed with chatting and sewing curtains for the nurses' dining room in the new Salem hospital.

The club meets again the first Thursday of January.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford motored to Corvallis Sunday to spend the day with friends among the OAC faculty.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Garbade of Portland and Miss Gayle Acton of Dallas, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Roberts. Miss Acton spent the weekend at the Roberts home.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hopkins of Portland were guests during the past weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Remington have returned from eastern Oregon where they have been spending the early winter days.

The afternoon club of the Eastern Star will be entertained today in Masonic hall by the officers of the chapter. The ladies will bring their sewing and the time will be passed with the usual chatting and needlework. A short Christmas program has been planned for the event. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Ralph Thompson, chairman of the social committee, with her helpers, Mrs. Betty Smith, Mrs. William McCall, Mrs. Ann Kline, Mrs. Frank Minto, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Ida Babcock, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. Marcus and Mrs. M. C. Pettys.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Sons of Veterans Auxiliary will hold its regular meeting this evening in the armory at 8 o'clock, with the annual election of officers coming up. A full attendance is desired.

The Sons of Veterans will meet this evening at the armory.

The Junior Guild of the St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet this afternoon at 2:30 at the parish house.

The W.F.M.S. of the First Methodist church will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. F. L. Utter tomorrow afternoon.

The Etokta club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fisher this afternoon.

The Salem chapter War Mothers meets tomorrow afternoon in the chamber of commerce rooms for the December session. It is to be an unusually interesting meeting and all of the members are urged to attend.

The Home Missionary society of the Jason Lee Memorial church will hold its quarterly tea at the home of Mrs. A. M. Clough, 859 North Church street, Friday afternoon at 2:30.

The regular business meeting of Barbara Fritchie tent, Daughters of Veterans, will take place at the armory tomorrow evening at eight o'clock, at which time will be held the annual election of officers. All members of the tent are urged to be present. Following the business a short program is arranged for the celebration of the anniversary of the organization of the order, of which December 12 is the date.

The AAUW will give a covered luncheon Saturday at the YWCA. All members are urged to attend and each one is urged to bring as her guest, at least one person eligible for membership in the association.

There will be a general meeting of the Salem Arts league this evening at eight o'clock in the educational room of the public library.

Read the Classified Ads.

REVIVAL BRINGS GREAT INTEREST

Special Services Conducted By Christian Missionary Alliance

Special revival service is being conducted in the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on Ferry street. Mr. and Mrs. Caswell are pastors.

Rev. C. O. Benham, the evangelist, is a spirit filled, fourfold gospel preacher, and a real live wire in the cause of Christ. As he bends the mighty bow of gospel truth, the arrow of conviction sinks deep into the hearts of the listeners. It is wonderful to see the people flock to the altar. Many are being converted—many healed and believers filled with the Holy Ghost.

Very little work is done in the audience, urging people to go to the altar but the fervent effectual prayers of the Christians cause the "silver net" to settle down on the people when the altar call is given, and Jesus draws in the net.

An hour each afternoon is devoted to Bible study and the lessons for the past week were on the "Bride of Christ." To those assembled, all Biblical history becomes a living, present, reality as the evangelist goes through the Old Testament and points out the various types of the Bride of Christ as they are portrayed there; and then vividly pictures the time when Christ and His Bride shall walk beneath the ever verdant trees, whose leaves shall not fade and whose fruit shall not decay.

Saturday was a real spiritual feast day. Rev. Weber of Newberg was present in the afternoon and spoke on divine healing. He pointed out to his audience the scriptures, both in the Old and New Testament which prove that miracles were not just for the apostolic age and that Jesus healed today as he did when he walked in Judea and Galilee.

In the evening the tabernacle was filled to the utmost—representatives from Albany, Turner, Silverton, Newberg, Seattle and

A slim and graceful little woman with dark eyes, olive skin and curly black hair, arrived in New York by the steamship Tyrrenia, assembled her ten children around a pyramid of trunks on the pier and waited for the customs men to inspect her possessions, mostly dancing costumes. She is Mme. Calliope Charisi, a real Greek, proud of her Christian name commemorating the pagan muse of eloquence and epic poetry. Each one of her children, who resembles her strikingly, has a Greek name. She is a dancer and so are all the children, ages ranging from 7 to 20. In the family are a set of twins, a boy and girl. The reporters asked a Greek comedy chorus: "And why did you not bring your husband along?" "That," the gay little woman answered, "was impossible. They would not let him off. He is an engineer in a power house in Paris. Perhaps he may come later. Photo shows, left to right: Rita, Ivan, Marie and Andre (twins), Elana, Klitty, Beatrice, Eusta, Nicko, Noel and Mme. Charisi (above).

Canada were there and poured out their hearts in adoration to our Lord.

Rev. W. W. Newberry, dean of the Simpson Bible Institute at Seattle, and Miss Mary A. Funk, a returned missionary from China were present.

Miss Funk was the first missionary sent by the Christian Missionary Alliance to China, having gone in 1858.

In speaking of how marvelously God was working at the center in the Yangtsze valley, where she began her work, Miss Funk said that there were now 44 missionaries, 16 stations, 39 out-stations, 120 native workers and 1216 church members. That there were also two other missionary centers in China—one in the northwest part and one in south China. After a short talk by Miss

Funk, Rev. Newberry gave a very impressive and timely address on "What Shall Be the Sign of Thy Coming and the End of the Age."

He preached pre-millennial style, and cited his audience to the many infallible proofs in the Bible as to the pre-millennial coming of Jesus, which shot the post-millennial theory all to pieces. Mr. Newberry stated that the post-millennial theory was man-made—from "big man" and not from the Word of God.

The meetings will continue this week. Bible study each afternoon at 3 o'clock and preaching at 7:30.

With Donald McCrossan, from Albany, at the piano, Rev. Benham with his cornet and an excellent choir, a great "Hallelujah" time is expected.

Everybody is cordially invited. You'll miss a great treat if you are not present.

Back from Rome ALBANY, Dec. 8.—Mgr. Arthur Lane, pastor of St. Mary's church, returned last night from an extended trip to Rome, Italy. By virtue of his office of Monsignor, he is a member of the pope's household and it was in connection with this office that he made the trip.

In Rome Mgr. Lane had an audience with the Holy Father. Mgr. Lane left here September 18 and went to France, where he visited the western and southern provinces, from Paris to Marseilles on the Mediterranean. From Marseilles he went down the coast to Rome, where he spent a month on business and pleasure.

SWEATERS
$298 $398
Brushed Wool Coat Style
SHIPLEY'S

CUT OUT NEATLY
The Oregon Statesman's Big Automobile Prize Contest
Good for 10 Votes
For _____ Address _____
This Coupon, when neatly cut out and brought or mailed to The Contest Department of THE OREGON STATESMAN, will count for the person whose name is written thereon.
Cut out neatly. Void after Dec. 15, 1923.

Wesson Oil
Did you ever cook with salad oil?
Frying with Wesson Oil is not a new way to cook. You don't have to learn how. You always melt any fat to a liquid long before it is hot enough to fry in. With Wesson Oil you start with a delicious salad oil, instead of a melted fat that—well, frankly, would you care to eat your ordinary frying fat fare?
There is no difference in the way you fry—but an amazing difference in what it tastes like.

A delicious salad oil
The most wholesome fat for frying
And an excellent shortening

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY
Tires the old, lowers their vitality. The best standard family cough medicine for old and young.