

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Burglaries Are Reported—Continuation of the long series of burglaries is noticed by reports made to the police yesterday.

Potted Plants—New assortment. Flake's Petland, 273 State. d16

Order Issued—The public service commission yesterday issued an order granting the Shevlin-Hixon company authority to construct six grade crossings in Deschutes county.

Bargain Dance—At Dreamland Saturday night. Best music and floor in valley. Lot of Pop. d15

Don't Miss—The bargain dance at Dreamland Saturday night. Gents 55 cents, ladies free. Follow the crowd. d15

Always Acceptable—At Christmas—Cheney neckwear, 75c to $2. A. A. Clothing Co., Masonic Temple. d14

Suitcases Are Stolen—That two suitcases containing clothing had been stolen from them was the report made to the police yesterday by L. Craddock and W. C. Lane, of Alberta, Canada.

Board Asked to Sit—The public service commission has been asked to sit as a board of arbitrators in a controversy between the Silver Falls Timber company of Silverton against the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company. The controversy is over demurrage charges made by the railroad company.

Pupils Visit Salem—Mrs. Argyl M. Harris, teacher in District 52, Polk county, brought her entire school to Salem to visit the state schools here as an educational matter yesterday.

The Women's Club Chorus—Concert Monday evening, December 17, First Methodist church. Benefit Old People's home. Admission 50 cents. Tickets on sale at Moore's and Will's Music Houses. d16

House for Rent—590 South 17th. d14

Freck Calf Exhibited—A calf with two heads is being exhibited by Zoell & Cooley at The Man's Shop. The freak of nature is the property of T. G. Bligh and was loaned for exhibition purposes. The calf died shortly after its birth and was mounted as a curiosity.

Bicycle Riders Fined—Two bicycle riders without lights on their bicycles after dark were fined $2.50 each by Marten Poulson, police judge Thursday. The pair were Berl Taylor, 1795 Fairgrounds, and Vera Orey, route 8. The arrests were made by Officer Edwards.

Poultry Meeting Tonight—Information of interest to every poultry raiser, whether fancier or egg producer, in the Salem district will be forthcoming at the annual poultry meeting of the Auburn Community club to be held in the new Auburn schoolhouse about one mile east of Salem at 7:30 tonight. Prof. F. E. Fox of the poultry husbandry department of Oregon Agricultural college, will be the principal speaker of the evening. General informal discussion of poultry matters will follow Professor Fox's address. All interested in the poultry industry are invited to attend, according to those having the meeting in charge.

Realtors Meet Saturdays—Beginning next Saturday members of the Marion-Polk County Realty association will meet informally at the Gray Belle for luncheon. These meetings are in the nature of get-together affairs and are being held to discuss various trade subjects.

Hi-Y Club Meets—Nearly 20 members of the Hi-Y club, composed of representative high school boys, met for supper at the YMCA last night. Dr. E. E. Fisher made a short address on the general subject of ideals that should be before high school boys. The Hi-Y club is entirely self-supporting, as all members contribute to the dinners, and either cook the meal themselves or avail themselves of the friendship of high school girls, who occasionally prepare the dinner for them.

Benefit Cafeteria Supper—And Bazaar at Popcorn School, Oak Grove road, Dec. 15, 6 to 10 o'clock. d14*

Son Born—Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bosten are rejoicing over the birth of a son yesterday. Mr. Bosten is an employe of the Union oil company in Salem. Mrs. Bosten was formerly Miss Elsie Beckner.

Xmas Trees—Order now. Flake's Petland. We deliver. 4-d14f

Dance, Auburn Hall—Friday night. The Five Entertainers assure you a good time. d14.

Will Produce Oil Soon—That production of oil will begin within 60 days was the announcement made yesterday by H. W. Hartman, head of the Hartman Shale Oil syndicate, of Ashland. The huge retort has been moved to the holdings near Ashland and 14 houses have been built by the syndicate for employes.

Prunes Well Advertised—At least one merchant in each of the Willamette valley cities is featuring a display of prunes this week. Earl Peary of the Oregon Growers is in charge of the prune week program, and is spending the week throughout the valley. He went as far south as Eugene and Creswell.

Will Practice Law—Frank L. Mars of Klamath Falls has applied to the supreme court for admission to the practice of law in Oregon on a California certificate. It is understood the application will be granted on nine months probation according to the usual custom.

Holly for Sale—City View Cemetery. d25*

Shakespeare Section Organized—The Salem Arts league has organized a Shakespeare section under the leadership of Mrs. Gertrude Robison Ross. Anyone interested in this department is invited to communicate with the leader. The section will meet once a month, the first of these meetings to be held early in January at the home of Mrs. Ross, 320 South Sixteenth.

Capital Business College Dance—McCormack Hall, Monday, Dec. 17. Former students and friends cordially invited. d14*

Hughes Will Sing—Dan Hughes will sing at Fruitland church Sunday, December 16. This will be the last meeting that he will be there. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Church services at 11. Mrs. Hughes will conduct the singing at all the services.

Legion Building Progressing—Though the committee investigating a possible building site for a permanent home for the American legion has practically abandoned plans of a separate structure, they have several other proposals that will be in shape to present at the next meeting of Capital post No. 9, Tuesday night. Members of the special committee are E. C. B. O'Neill, Clifford Brown, Carl Gabrielson, Dr. Roy Tryd and George Griffith.

Clinic Opens—Doctors Folk and Stapan will open an ERA clinic at 1484 State street, according to reports. Dr. Stapan has had many years' practice both in Europe and America and Dr. Folk comes from the east where he practiced and was associated with well known men in the larger cities. The plans are for a daily children's clinic in addition to the general treatment of adults.

Hartman Bros. Co.—Jewelers, a store of gifts for all. d14

SALEM SMOKE SHOP Next to Bligh Hotel. Hot Coffee and Sandwiches. Baked Virginia Ham and Coffee, etc. Drop In and Try Our Coffee. "A place where ladies can trade"

Special on Electrical—Appliances and fixtures, highest quality. Halik's Electric Shop, 327 Court street. d14f

Greetings Come From Afar—Eric Butler, secretary of the Salem Rotary club, has received a holiday greeting for the club from the Rotary club of Auckland, New Zealand. The message read as follows: "International Director Charles Rhodes, Special Commissioner, the Hon. George Fowlds, President H. W. Seagar, and members of the Auckland Rotary club, send Christmas and New Year greetings. May the spirit of friendship, good will, health and prosperity be yours during this Christmas time and throughout the years to come. Our club is

TREES and SHRUBS Sales Yard and Office Cherry City Hotel, 130 S. High St. MATHIS NURSERY CO. Office Phone 1738. Res. Phone 1074.

Grafted Walnut Trees Improved French Prune Trees General Nursery Stock Sales Yard and Office, 644 Ferry St. FRUITLAND NURSERY A. J. MATHIS, Prop. Office Phone 199. Res. 1140M.

FUNERAL NOTICE The funeral of Henretta Carpenter, who died Monday, Dec. 10 will be held from Webb's Funeral parlors today at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. Hawthorne will be in charge. Burial in Leo Mission cemetery.

Equitable Savings & Loan Association Portland, Oregon. Harry G. Keeney, Representative, 201 Masonic Bldg. Phone 1846

OSTEOPATHY The Original and Genuine Spinal Adjustment Treatment. Skillful, Painless Adjustment that gets results. DR. L. C. MARSHALL Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon 226 Oregon Bldg. Salem.

DIED ELLIS—Dec. 11, at the late residence, Rivera station, Ore., Sarah Amanda Ellis, aged 88 years, mother of Mrs. Flora Boqua of Eugene, Ore.; Mrs. Rose Barker of Salem, Ore., and J. A. Leslie of Portland. The funeral services were held yesterday at 2:30 p. m. at Finley's mortuary, Montgomery at 5th, Portland. Commitment service Riverview cemetery.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC THERAPEUTIC INSTITUTE (Formerly Dr. Schenk's) 249 S. Cottage St. PHONE 1182

DR. B. H. WHITE Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon Rheumatic Diagnosis and Treatment (Dr. Abrams' Method.) Salem Oregon

Webb & Clough Leading Funeral Directors Expert Embalmers

LADD & BUSH BANKERS Established 1868 General Banking Business Office Hours From 10 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Rigdon & Son's MORTUARY Unequaled Service

your club, though thousands of miles divide us; we are joined by the Rotary spirit of service, friendship and good will. Kia ort, "Hutch." The message was signed by A. J. Hutchinson, Hon. Secretary, Auckland, N. Z." and was read as part of the program for the annual Ladies' night, December 1.

Hartman Bros. Co.—Jewelers, have a beautiful assortment old Dutch silver. d14

Auction Sale Today—1:30 p. m., 210 Market street, furniture of 7-room house. F. N. Woodry is the auctioneer. d14

Sportsmen to Banquet—Several local members of the Sautian Fish and Game association are planning to attend the annual banquet of the organization to be held at the St. Francis hotel, Albany, at 8 o'clock tonight. More than 100 invitations have been sent out by Frank C. Stellmacher, president of the organization. It is announced that members and visitors will be present from all towns in Linn county as well as from Salem, Corvallis, Eugene, Portland and other nearby places.

Visit Our Gift Shop—Hartman Bros. Co., jewelers. d14

Wrist Watches—Beautiful 25 year white gold cases, 16 jewel movements, special $15.00 and up. Hartman Bros. Co., jewelers. d14

Gents' Watches—17 jewel adjusted, 20 year gold case, special $25.00 and up. Hartman Bros. Co., jewelers. d14

PERSONALS

Rev. E. E. Gilbert is expected back tonight from a short trip to Forest Grove. Mr. Gilbert left Salem yesterday afternoon.

Roscoe Nelson, Portland attorney, was in Salem yesterday on business with the supreme court. U. G. Boyer, county clerk, is reported to be resting easily after undergoing a minor operation Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Poulton have returned from a few weeks' trip to southern California. While in Tia Juana they witnessed the destruction of the town by fire. Mr. Poulton was formerly prison engineer, and intends to remain in Salem until spring.

R. E. Wright of Klamath Falls is a business visitor in Salem. Mrs. Kittie Turner of Eugene was a recent visitor in Salem.

Fred Lockley, special writer for the Oregon Journal, spent a few hours in the city Wednesday on business.

Rev. Martin Fereshtelian, pastor of the Unitarian church, is reported to be recovering from his recent illness at his home, 557 Chemeket's street.

L. P. Spagole and John Gahler, Jr., of Aurora, were in the city recently.

Fred Kurinki and John Hyma were recent visitors in Salem from Albany.

R. F. Newman and wife of Portland were in the city Wednesday.

Gene Narrigen, local tobacco salesman, has returned from a few weeks' trip to Los Angeles on business.

George White, desk sergeant at the police station, Chris Kowitz and Batty Cooper have returned from a duck hunting expedition north of Haystack rock, off the coast at Tillamook. They report having had a nice time on the beaches, but never got a duck.

Joseph H. Keber of Mt. Angel was in Salem recently and attended the meeting of the Marion County Bankers' association, of which he is president.

Mrs. Dr. W. L. Mercer underwent a major operation at the Deaconess hospital Thursday morning. She is reported to be resting easily.

J. K. Daniel was a visitor in Salem yesterday from Newport.

William A. Mott, of Dallas, was in Salem Thursday on business.

HERES GOOD NEWS RACING CHART $1 GAS BILL STORE MANAGER SLASH... MILLER'S Good Goods ANNOUNCING A completeness of HOLEPROOF HOSIERY Stocks that will make your gift choosing easy and profitable. Pure Silk High Grade Qualities in Christmas Folders $1.75, $2.00, $2.50 per pair. "She will appreciate more Silk Stockings."

PIERCE PARDONS CHARLES PURDIN Man Who Killed Ex-Wife and Stranger Must Go to Soldiers' Hospital

Charles W. Purdin, who on December 30, 1921, killed his divorced wife and a stranger whom he found with her in their former home in Portland, was yesterday granted a conditional pardon by Governor Pierce. This is the first time the governor has extended clemency to a prisoner who has taken human life.

What Shall I Give "Her"? LINGERIE 98c to $5.95 Combinations, Nightwear, Knitted Silk Underthings, Camisoles SHIPLEY'S

The group, made up of a few delegates to a Ford-for-President meeting which was called off, held several meetings here yesterday and today at which plans for nominating Ford were discussed, but no definite action was taken. Roy E. Harrop of Omaha, who was selected as president of the national Ford-for-President club tonight announced the appointment of an executive committee, which was designated to take charge of arrangements for the contemplated conference next month.

Auction Sale TODAY 1:30 P. M. 210 Market St., corner Front and Market Near the King's Food Products Co. Including good 6-hole Opal Range, Heater, Beds, Springs and Mattresses, Child's bed like new, Dressers, Rugs, Kitchen Utensils, Dishes, Rocker, Chairs, Curtains; 75 lbs. Dried Apples, 75 lbs. Dried Prunes, and many other articles that make up the furnishings of a 7-roomed house. Terms cash.

F. N. WOODRY, Auctioneer, Phone 511 Woodry Buys Furniture for cash or sells on Commission