EDDIE RICHARDS ARRIVES TODAY

Prominent Portland Fighter Will Complete Training for Hunt Go

Eddie Richards, prominent Portland fighter, who meets Bill Hunt of Salem in the main event at the armory next Tuesday night, will arrive today to complete his training. Richards added another scalp to his already large collection when he put the Indian sign on Blackie Rice at the Portland armory Thursday night.

The colored man from California took the big 10 in the fourth round of what was scheduled to be a six round go. Richards won his only other fight in Salem when he knocked out Fred Hall about two years ago, but Bill Hunt is out to cut his batting average down to .500. Opinion among the fans seems to be about evenly divided as to the outcome but they all agree that the winner will know that he has been some place.

The local management has made a ruling that main event boxers must appear in Salem at least two days prior to the date of the smoker. This will insure the fans and the management against last minute substitutions or such an unfortunate occurrence as happened at the last smoker when one of the boys got lost in the fog and did not arrive in time to go on.

end it is up to you to make the biggest plan you ever made or expect to make.

The territory has not been half canvassed. There are hundreds and hundreds of new subscriptions to secure as well as renewals to collect. Do not take up your time finding excuses. Get the votes. It is the early bird that catches the worm. Be the bird!

Miss Evelyn Cummings of Salem, Ore., leads the whole contest today. Miss Evelyn has been doing some very fine work, and her many friends wish her success at the end. Miss Nellie Mitchell holds second place, and John

Evelyn Cummings

Varley third. Mrs. A. L. Beckendorf also is on the Honor Roll. These contestants are showing the public just what they can do by staying towards the top of the list. Mr. Connell Ward, Miss Hazel Mason and Mrs. Carl Muller on the outside territory have been doing some very fine work. The contest editor is unable to mention quite a few others, but the public will notice that they are not far behind, so let me see you contestants creep up toward the top of the list.

Miss Evelyn Cummings of 1357 North Winter street is the leader in the whole contest today. This little girl, age 12, has been doing some splendid work in the past week. She is in the 7th grade, junior high. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cummings. Has always lived in Salem, and is a very popular girl among the younger set. Miss Evelyn is trying hard to win one of these valuable prizes at the close of the contest, and I am sure if she keeps the good work up she can't help but be one of the winners on the big day, January 5. Miss Evelyn wishes her friends to know she is out to win and needs their help from now on until the end of the contest.

CARSON NOT TO BE DISLODGED IN CASE

fense demurred, the demurrer being overruled by the court. The defense is to file answer to the complaint next Monday. It is believed this legal sparring which has delayed the case may have caused the report in Silverton that the district attorney was not going to prosecute.

Sheldon-Sherwin Co. Opens New Store Today

The Sheldon-Sherwin company are opening a women's furnishing store today in the new Adolph & Waters building. The room occupied by the new firm is the first one on the south end of the building facing Liberty street. The store will carry a full line of women's furnishings, notions, piece goods and other allied lines. This is the first day the store will be open and a general invitation is being extended to the public to visit the store and find out the lines of goods carried.

distributed in accordance with the donor's scheme. This original plan of distribution is not departed from, the form of the property only, is changed. The urgent necessities of the widow will be cared for, and the remainder of the estate got broken in upon.

"Circumstances often arise, which had they been anticipated, would undoubtedly have been provided for, and that so far as may be, it will endeavor to occupy the place of the donor, and do with the property as he would, had he anticipated the emergency."

C. L. Ogle of Woodburn is appointed trustee to sell the land, pay the taxes, and invest the proceeds, paying the net income to the widow for her life time, and at her death, distribute the remainder by the will.

Judge Bingham said yesterday that he knew of only two other similar cases in which the last will had been changed in form but not in fact. One of the cases was in Chicago and the other in Wisconsin.

He said that while the proceedings were somewhat novel and original that under the system used power must exist somewhere to grant relief and that such power must necessarily be found in the equity court.

The widow's suit to sell the property, thereby in part setting aside the provisions of the will, was opposed by the children of the deceased.

BASKET BALL DOPE UPSET BY HAUSERS

Hauser Bros accomplished the impossible last night when they defeated the Union Oil basket ball team which has not been defeated before this season. This makes the championship a three cornered tie between the Anderson & Brown, Hauser Bros. and the Union Oil.

The score last night was 12 to 8 in favor of Hauser Bros. The winners took the Union Oil team completely by surprise and swept them off their feet.

Ross started for the Union Oil team and every player for Hauser Bros, was a star with special mention for Jones who played a fighting game throughout. Lieske at center made five of 12 scores chalked up for the winning quintet. Gonzans was an outstanding figure for the winners.

The Central Pharmacy defeated by non-appearance to the Bankers. The championship games will be run off during the coming week beginning Thursday. The champion must win two games out of three.

Deaf School Quintet Wins From Monmouth Hi

Playing a corking game replete with fast and brilliant play on both sides the Oregon school for the deaf beat Monmouth high school last night by the score of 33 to 21 at the deaf school. Both teams were good at passing but the deaf boys were more expert at basket shooting. Lloyd Hudson played a stellar game for the school, securing seven goals. In the second half the visitors came back strong and increased their score from 5 in the first half to 21. Arnold starred for his team.

The lineup and summary:
 OSC MHS

 Summary: Field goals, Hudson 7; Rickert 5; Tyler 3; Hummel; Arnold 5; Egleston 2; Winigar and Smith. Foul goals: Hudson 4 out of 5; Arnold 4. Referee, John Wiens.

Officers Elected By Central Congregational

At the annual meeting of the Central Congregational church on South Nineteenth this week John Brockman was elected new deacon to act with E. E. Elliott and Alvin Meade, whose terms have not expired. Amos Bernard will succeed himself as a member of the board of trustees.

C. C. Harris was elected superintendent of the Sunday school department, relieving Mrs. Bert Edwards, who has given faithful service in this department for the last five years. Albert Powell is to be assistant superintendent, with Mrs. Eibert Powell as deaconess. Laura Yantis will be the church treasurer and Ruth Van Patton, church clerk.

In their report the board of trustees announced that the budget for 1924, including all local expenses and benevolences, was within a few dollars of being completed, though the fund with which it was hoped to repair the church had not been completed as yet. For 1924 there is $2307.80 already pledged or in sight for the coming year.
