

Many out of town members were present for the Christmas ceremonial of the Willamette Shrine No. 2, White Shrine of Jerusalem, Tuesday evening in the Masonic temple. A class of four were initiated into the order, including Mrs. Ellen A. Royal, Mrs. Ethel De Feln, Mrs. Pauline Josse and Miss Caroline Nerod. After the business session the members and visitors were all invited into the banquet room where they were served to a delicious lunch by the sojourners, Nellie Taylor, Ola Miller, Alice Coolidge, Mary Lytle and Olive Skipton.

Some of the visitors from the nearby towns were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Settlemier, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Poorman of Woodburn; Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Speer and Mrs. Brewer of Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards and Miss Minnie Peterson of Turner; Miss Florence Cooley of Newberg; Miss Sylvia Jones of Gervais; Mrs. Howard Ramp and Mrs. Merle Ramp of Brooks.

Now that the Christmas season is with us again, many are the ones who are trying to think of different ways in which to wrap their gifts attractively. For that is half the fun of Christmas—making the wrappings as attractive as the gifts themselves. Mistletoe, holly, evergreen sprigs, cones, Santa Claus, holly papers, colored ribbons, and the vivid tissue papers in greens and reds should be used in profusion to help enunciate the brightness of the season.

The following suggestions might prove helpful to some friend who is looking for something different:

Use red tissue paper over white tissue and tie with white satin ribbon. Have the ends finished with tiny silver bells. Use green tissue paper over red tissue and tie with red ribbon. Have the ends finished with red tassels. Use white tissue paper over red. Tie with red satin ribbon, with a pom-pom of the same in the center. Use light green tissue paper and silver cord which has been wound with smilax. Use heavy white paper and wide red satin ribbon. Have an immense bow in the center. Use red tissue paper and green ribbon. Fir needles may be tied in with the ribbon. Use white paper and brown satin ribbon. Tie a pine cone (splashed with alum) in with the bow. Use green tissue paper over white and tie with gold cord. Tiny gilded wishbones may be tied in with the ribbon. Use heavy red paper and tie with white ribbon. Stand a small Santa Claus where the ribbons cross. Use red paper and tie with gold cord, on the ends of which are tiny gold bells. Use holly paper and red satin ribbon. Use red paper and hoily ribbon. Use white tissue paper over light green and tie with silver cord, on the ends of which are tiny silver bells. Use white paper, white satin ribbon, on the ends of which are tiny snowballs, made of white cotton covered with mica snow. On large packages use white paper, red ribbon, and a poinsettia tied in with the bow. On the ends of the petals have tiny snowballs tied on with silk thread. Use red paper and tie with red and green raffia, which has been braided. Use white tissue paper over green tissue and gold cord which has a spray of mistletoe tied which has been wound with smilax.

The Euterpean octette will make its debut in the musical world tomorrow evening when it will take part in the program which Dr. John R. Sites has arranged upon a request from the Portland Oregonian radio station, to broadcast from KGW. The octette, which takes its name from "Euterpe," the muse of music, was organized this fall under the direction of Dr. Sites and includes many prominent singers of Salem. The personnel of the chorus includes, as first sopranos, Mrs. H. H. Harms and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert; second soprano, Mrs. Richard Robertson and Mrs. William Prunk; first alto, Mrs. John J. Roberts and Trista Wenger; second alto, Mrs. John Lau and Mrs. Marie Rosecrans.

Much time and study has been expended by the singers and it is assured that the chorus will bring to the people of Salem one of the most finished repertoires of the season.

In addition to the octet, Mrs. H. H. Harms, dramatic soprano, Trista Wenger, contralto, Mrs. Leah Perkins Wyatt of Oregon City, formerly of Salem, and Lyman McDonald, all voice pupils of

Dr. Sites, will sing an excellently prepared program. The program for the concert has been arranged as follows with Dr. Sites acting as accompanist for all of the numbers: Lullaby, from "Erminie," by the act; The Supreme Adventure, April in Killarney, Mrs. Leah Perkins Wyatt; Beautiful Ship from Toyland, octet; Invictus, the Blind Ploughman, Lyman McDonald; Chinese Flower Fete, octet; Oh Hall of Song, aria from "Tannhauser"; In the garden of My Heart, Mrs. H. H. Harms; Requiem, from the cycle Love's Epitome, and Once in a Blue Moon, Trista Wenger; The Little Gray Home in the West, octet.

For the benefit of the Old People's home it has been the custom of the Woman's Club chorus since its organization three years ago to give a concert each year. Tomorrow evening in the First Methodist church the benefit concert of this year will be given by the chorus under the direction of Paul Petri of Portland. Assisting during the program will be Mrs. A. J. Rahn, contralto, Miss Nellie Schwab, soprano; Miss Iva Claire Love, violinist, and Mr. T. S. Roberts at the organ.

The personnel of the chorus is as follows: First soprano—Mrs. Hugh Harris, Mrs. G. R. Bonnell, Mrs. L. B.

Gibbertson, Mrs. Phil Newland, Mrs. E. C. Purvine, Mrs. E. L. Hobson, Miss Marie Marshall.
