

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Basketball Games Tonight—Championship basketball games in the commercial league will be played at the Salem armory tonight. The games are slated to begin at 7:30 o'clock. The final contest of the series, a postponed game, will be played a week from tonight.

Radio—For Xmas should be ordered as early as possible. We expect a big rush. Order yours early and give us a chance to install it properly. Salem Electric Co. Masonic Temple. Phone 1200. d23

Meyers Razes Building—What is commonly known as the "H. W. Meyers Skyscraper," located on State near the Red Cross headquarters has disappeared. The building was used as a small candy and soft drink establishment.

Eleventh Hour—Arrivals in smoking sets will interest prospective buyers. C. S. Hamilton. d22

Speeders Pay Fines—Two speeders and one bicycle ordinance violator appeared before Martin Paulsen, police judge Wednesday. The speeders were E. E. Poulten, 480 North Eighth. d22

Equitable Savings & Loan Association—Portland, Oregon. Harry G. Keenan, Representative, 301 Masonic Bldg. Phone 1848

The Seavey, Bell Insurance Agency—General Insurance "Bitty" Bell, Frank Wagner

HYDRO-ELECTRIC THERAPEUTIC INSTITUTE—(Formerly Dr. Schenck) 268 S. Cottage St. PHONE 1182

Grafted Walnut Trees—Improved French, Swiss, Trees General Nursery Dept. Sales Yard and Office, 544 Ferry St. FRUITLAND NURSERY—A. J. MATHIS, Prop. Office Phone 199. Res. 1140M.

OSTEOPATHY—The Original and Genuine Spinal Adjustment Treatment. Skillful, Painless Adjustment that gets results. DR. L. C. MARSHALL, Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon. 202 Oregon, Bldg. Salem.

DR. B. H. WHITE—Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon (Dr. Alameda Method.) 212 N. Liberty. Salem, Oregon.

teenth, former prison engineer, and R. P. Nourse, of the Willard hotel. Each was fined $5. W. P. Emmel, 335 North Summer, was fined $2.50 for riding his bicycle after dark without a light. The arrests were made by Officer Vogt.

Attention, BPOE—On Thursday evening the Buckeye Trio will entertain the Elks' lodge. The Christmas number of The Elklet is also expected to make its appearance that evening. —d20.

Overstayed Parking Limit—The first victim to be arrested for a violation of the 60-minute parking limit was John A. Krebs, 965 Saginaw, who was arrested Wednesday by Officer Branson. He was cited to appear in the police court at 11 o'clock this morning. Krebs parked on Liberty between State and Court long enough over the limit to attract the attention of the officer.

Dance at Macleay Saturday—Dec. 22. Lady and gents prize. —d22.

Licensees Granted—Marriage licenses were granted yesterday to Thomas H. Peterson, Scio, and Esther E. Huhleman, Salem; Henry Heine and Anna Schalky, Salem, and W. W. McDonnell and Ellen M. Baker, both of Salem.

Holly for Sale—City View Cemetery. d25

Meat Market Burglarized—Though his meat market was entered by burglars some time Tuesday night there was nothing taken according to a complaint made to the police yesterday by J. M. Snyder, of Highland street. Entrance was gained to the store by breaking a window.

Divorce Granted—Monroe Sturges was awarded a decree of divorce yesterday by Judge Bingham from Ima Belle Sturges and custody of two minor children. Desertion was the charge on which the divorce was granted.

A New Lot—Of smoking stands arrived late for holiday presents. Hamilton's. d22

Stage Will Build—Paul Stage will build a one-story dwelling at 1330 Center at a cost of $3000 according to a building permit issued yesterday by Martin Paulsen, city recorder.

Long Trial on Saturday—Trial of E. F. Long will be held Saturday in the justice court. Long was arrested December 8 on a complaint signed by W. B. Duncan, charging him with failure to keep a meat market in a sanitary condition.

Xmas Trees—Order now. Flake's Petland. We deliver. 4-d711

Pythians Hold Convention—Nearly 300 Knights of Pythias were present here for the district convention. Lodge members from the entire district were in attendance, with Claude W. Bar-rack, of Tillamook, grand chancellor and W. C. Gleason of Portland, grand keeper of records and seal, as visiting officials. The Dallas drill team defeated a local all-star aggregation by a narrow margin in putting on the work in the rank of knight.

Holly Wreaths, All Sizes—Also an assortment of potted plants for Christmas. Plant's Floral Shop, 185 S. Com'l.—d20.

Electric Curling Irons—Two-year guarantee; one year guarantee marcel wavers. Reduction on all appliances. Hallk's Electric shop, 337 Court. St. d23

Service Protected—Oretown Grange No. 354 of Tillamook county has registered a petition with the public service commission demanding better service by the Cloverdale Telephone company.

A Good Showing—Of smoking stands just arrived at Hamilton's.

Young Ladies Who Will—Volunteer to dance in chorus for charity in exchange for instructions in stage dancing, by professional. Call Chamber of Commerce Thursday, 7:30 p. m. —d20.

Hotel Lease Signed—Under a lease signed yesterday, work on a new $60,000 hotel in Eugene similar to the one maintained here by the Central State Terminal hotel, will begin at once. In addition to the cost of the building about $10,000 will be needed for furnishings. For the purpose of signing the lease, Richard Shepard, of Albany, secretary-treasurer of the hotel company, A. B. Parks and W. E. Powell of Eugene were in Salem Wednesday. The new hotel will be on Willamette, between Fifth and Sixth, in Eugene.

Calendars—At Standley & Foley office, Bush Bank Bldg. d20

Lions Hear Health Hints—Believing more can be accomplished by preaching prevention than by giving assistance after contracting disease, Dr. William B. Mott, president of the Lions club, will tell members how to take care of themselves at the weekly luncheon Friday. He will speak on "How to Live Longer." John J. Rottle will be the chairman of the day.

Opens Store Today—The West Fur company will open up today in the new location on Liberty street. George Alderlin, the owner and manager, says that the opening is at least four weeks late, but it will be open by noon today, sure. Decorators and employes were busy at the new store until an early hour this morning getting the shop in readiness.

Disabled Men to Meet—Edward L. Clark, commander of the Disabled War Veterans of the World War is going to have charge of the meeting of all those disabled men of the late war who are interested in organizing a chapter of the DAV here. The meeting will be held in the armory Friday night at 7:30. All those disabled, who have claims that can be handled, who have not been re-

DIED—COONEY—Leo J. Cooney, 40, died Dec. 18 at a local hospital. He is survived by his widow, Fay Cooney, of this city, by his parents, also three brothers and one sister in Yankton, S. D. Funeral announcement will be made later from the Salem Mortuary.

Webb & Clough
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers

Rigdon & Son's MORTUARY
Unequaled Service

5 DAYS UNTIL XMAS
Hartman Jewelry Store

Royal Ann Cherry Trees
Big reduction on all cherry and prune stock. Sales yard and office at Cherry City Hotel, 130 S. High.

MATHIS NURSERY CO.
Office Phone 1758. Res. 10F4

The ERA Clinic
Diagnosis and Treatment of Disease by the Abram's (E. R. A.) Method
Children's Clinic Daily
Consultation Free
Dr. Harrison I. Folk,
Dr. Paul G. Stapran
Hours—10 a. m. to 5 p. m.
Cor. 15th and State (1484 State)

habilitated to the right line of work, are asked to come. There will be a roll call made, for those who know say there is nearly 50 men to work on for a start. It is urged that everybody who can, be there. Those who have been honorably discharged from the service on account of disabilities incurred between the dates of April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, are eligible for membership.

Big Dance At Dreamland—Saturday night. Ladies free, gents 55c. Lots of pep, best of music and floor in the valley.—d22

Chimney Fire Calls—For the first time since December 8, the fire department received a call. Tuesday night a chimney fire called out the department. The alarm came from 852 Broadway Tuesday evening.

Salem Man Injured—Bruises were received by J. E. Gains of the Mason-Ehrman company Tuesday night when his automobile turned completely over while he was on the way to Albany. Driving through a thick fog Gains was unable to see several loose horses on the highway until in their midst. In an effort to avoid hitting any of these, the automobile was turned over and badly wrecked, though the driver was not seriously injured in the accident.

Purchases Barber Shop—H. G. Coursey, well-known Salem barber, has purchased the shop at 156 South Commercial, and after being out of business for some time, again takes his place in the ranks of Salem proprietors. Mr. Coursey has owned several city shops at various times, but until making his last purchase, had been employed in the shop on North Liberty.

Making Christmas Wreaths—Nearly 100 Christmas wreaths have been completed for the disabled war veterans of Portland. The wreaths were requested by the Portland headquarters of the American Red Cross. Oregon grape and mistletoe are being used in their manufacture.

Corvallis Kiwanians Organized—That a Kiwanis club of 50 members has been organized in Corvallis was the word received in the city Wednesday. Though the organization has been completed it will not begin to function until after the first of the year. It is expected that a big delegation of Salem Kiwanis in addition to those clubs in the district will be present for the installation ceremonies.

Wrightman Trial Today—Selection of the jury to try Dr. A. E. Wrightman, Silverton physician charged with possession of liquor, will be made in the justice court at 10 o'clock this morning. The trial will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Prosecution of the case is in the hands of James West, of the attorney general's office.

Florist Opens City Office—A. D. Smith, local florist with greenhouses at 1276 North Liberty, has opened temporary downtown offices in the Adolph & Waters building adjacent to the Oyster Loaf restaurant on Court street. He will remain here until after the holidays and is able to secure permanent offices. Mr. Smith has another greenhouse under construction with a ground space of 33 by 100 feet. He plans the erection of two others in the near future.

Berry Meeting Today—Loganberry growers and others interested in the future of the industry will meet in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon to hear the situation discussed by H. H. Haynes, president of the Haynes-Foster Baking company, Portland, and the Salem Baking company. Mr. Haynes recently returned from a three months trip through the east where he devoted himself to a study of conditions. While he gave the major result of his studies at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday, but was willing to come to Salem again in order that more growers might hear of his trip and what he found out.

Vacation Begins Friday—With the last class completed tomorrow afternoon, all pupils in the Salem grade schools and students in the high school and at Willamette university will begin their two week's holiday vacation. Examinations are now under way at both the state university and OAC and Salem people who are attending either institution are expected to arrive home late Friday night and on through the week-end.

Assist Ex-Service Women—Ex-service women of the north-

REMOVED BOY'S COUGH—Mrs. L. Van Belle, Pendroy, Mont., writes, "I like your Cough Medicine very well. My little boy 6 years old, had a very bad cough and after using FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND he secured relief." For coughs, colds and hoarseness there is no better remedy on the market today than FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND. It has stood the test of time, serving three generations. Get the genuine; refuse substitutes. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

west who are in need of medical treatment or domiciling care will be taken care of in government institutions even though their disabilities are not due strictly to war service, according to information received by Brazier C. Small, adjutant of Capital Post No. 9, of the American legion. Arrangements are being made in Portland, Seattle, Spokane and Boise offices to take care of such applicants. Special homes have been established at Danville, Ill., and Milwaukee, Wis., for this purpose. Women are now on the state paste as men who were in the service. It is estimated that there are nearly 450 women in the country who will seek admission at these two homes within a short time.

Good Candy

Only good candy is called for repeatedly. And it takes repeat orders to build up a successful business. You know that, and knowing it, you realize of course, the importance of making the finest candy possible to create. We do this, and have for 32 years made Spa Chocolates the standard of excellence. For a merrier Christmas give "Spa" Candies Made Right Here in Salem

Make Her Happy
Your wife's name ought to be on this card.

Give Her a Hoover Sweeper

The only Sweeper having the Vibrating Brush, and always ready to go. No petty annoying repairs. Also agents for the Eureka and Universal sweepers.

WM. GAHLSDORF
The Store of Housewares
Phone 67. 135 N. Liberty

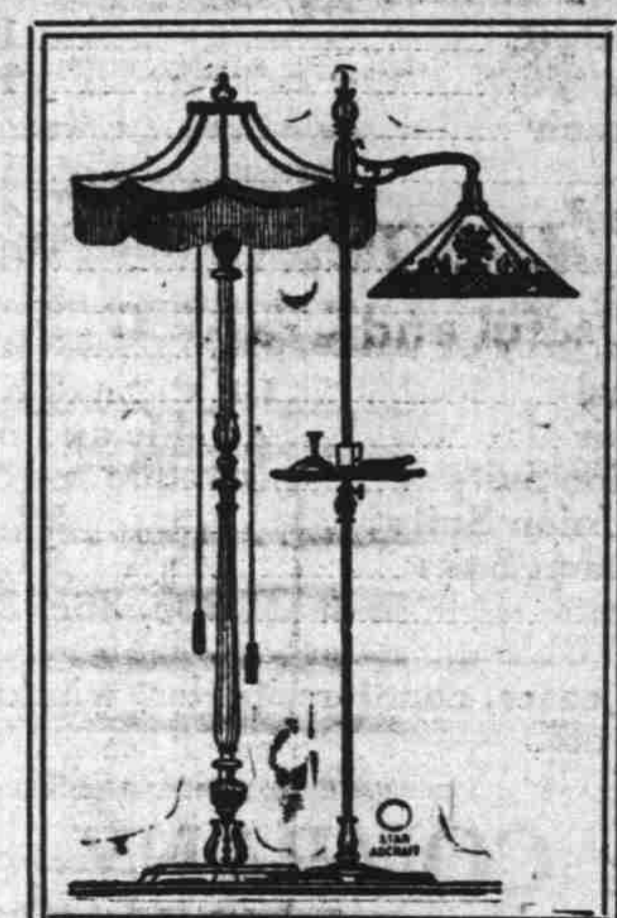

Christmas FURNITURE

FROM A TRULY CHRISTMAS STORE

Fine furniture, the kind that you and everybody else likes to have is the only kind we sell our customers. No shoddy short-lived affairs, but substantially built lifetime furniture always ready to give home service.

Now with the Xmas spirit abroad o'er the land it is well to make the family gift a gift of furniture. With stocks at their height of completeness, with selections the best in town, with values at their apex, it becomes your pleasure and necessary duty to visit our store at the earliest moment to choose just the piece of furniture you need. Listed below are a few of the many splendid Xmas gifts we have for your inspection.

- Tea Wagons
- Electric Lamps
- Ferrieres
- Hall Mirrors
- Ladies' Desks
- Costume
- Dining Room Suites
- Sewing Cabinets
- Hoosier Cabinets
- Fireside Chairs
- Dishes
- Jardiners
- Bugs
- Blasells Sweepers
- Card Tables
- Fern Dishes
- Fibre Suites
- Suit Cases
- Hand Bags
- Trays
- Fruit Baskets
- Shopping Baskets
- Windsor Rockers
- Davenport Tables
- Carpet Sweepers
- Cedar Chests
- Table Covers
- Book Ends

- Library Tables
- Library-Dinner Table
- Dressing Tables
- Book Cases
- Breakfast Sets
- Flower Stands
- Tea Wagons
- Vacuum Cleaners
- Spinet Desks
- Bad Dishes
- Mirrors
- Clocks
- Pyrex Sets
- Buffets
- Lamps
- Comforters
- Desks
- Costumers
- Smoking Stands
- Gate Leg Tables
- Console Tables
- Occasional Tables
- Tilt Top Tables
- Chairs
- Sewing Cabinets
- Candle Sticks
- Windsor Chairs
- Picture Frames

- Couches
- Davenport
- Day Beds
- Cushions
- Floor Lamps
- Bed Spreads
- Blankets
- Bedroom Suites

Many other items singularly and in suites that would make useful Christmas Gifts

C. S. HAMILTON

GOOD FURNITURE
340 Court St.
Trade in Your Old Furniture on New
Visit Our Exchange Department