

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Legion Is Advertised—Complying with a special request of Capital post No. 9, American legion, a huge banner was placed on the court house tower yesterday afternoon by George Griffith, commander. The huge sign well advertises the American legion and carries an invitation to Buddy to join the organization. The banner is wider than the tower, and has been placed on the west, facing High street, and just beneath the clock.

Guard Unit Recruiting—Recruiting of new members for Company F is now under way according to announcement of Capt. Paul Hendricks. As far as possible it is desirable to have ex-service men in the organization, though any young man in good physical condition is acceptable. The next two drills will be on Wednesday, the night following Christmas and New Years, with the annual feed to be held January 2.

Semi-Annual—Clearance sale of millinery, coats, furs, gowns, etc. M. Buffe-Morrison, The French Shop. d22

Banks Plan Remembrances—All of the Salem banks will remember employees on Christmas day, though in nearly every instance no mention is made of the nature of the gift, though it is generally understood these will be similar to those of the past when bonuses were paid in proportion to the salary and length of connection with the institutions. Those who will follow the usual custom are the Ladd & Bush bank, United States National, Bank of Commerce and the First National. The industrial plants of the city are not making arrangements generally to remember their employees this year.

Big Dance At Dreamland—Saturday Night. Ladies Free. 55c. Lots of pop, beat of music and floor in the valley. d22.

Building Totals $12,450—Five building permits for residences representing a total valuation of $12,450, were issued yesterday by Martin Poulsen, city recorder. Two of the permits were to the same man. Those obtaining the permits were E. A. Pruitt, story and a-half dwelling, 936 North Fifth, $4250; The Albert estate, dwelling, 1240 Lee street, $3200; J. W. Phenicle, dwelling, 535 South Seventeenth, $29,000, and two houses to cost $2500 each for Will T. Thompson at 415 and 425 Columbia.

Semi-Annual—Clearance sale of millinery, coats, furs, gowns, etc. M. Buffe-Morrison, The French Shop. d22

Present for Prisoners—With a special Christmas dinner, a three-act vaudeville and moving pictures, the gift of Frank D. Bligh, manager of the Bligh theater, and the assurance of Christmas presents through the Salvation Army, inmates of the state prison will have a cheerful celebration, considering all aspects. The local Salvation Army received notice yesterday that the prison work committee in Portland would send presents for all the prisoners. These will be distributed by officials of the local Salvation Army.

Electric Curling Irons—Two-year guarantee; one year guarantee, nickel wavers. Reduction on all appliances. Hall's Electric shop, 387 Court St. d23

Fares Reduced—The passenger fares of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railroad between Portland and points west, including Astoria, are reduced from 3 to 2 cents a mile by authority granted by the public service commission yesterday. The reduction is made on one day's notice by special permission. The round trip fare between Portland and Astoria will be $3.
