BLIGH—Vaudeville, "The Victor" Corporation release, and has in it five thousand feet of the best laughs ever gathered under a set of screen titles. Ben Turpin is the star and Kathryn McGuire has the leading feminine role. Showing at the Grand theater starting tonight.

"The Shriek of Araby" is the latest feature length picture from the studio of Mack Sennett, famous comedy producer. It is an Allied Producers and Distributors release, and has in it five thousand feet of the best laughs ever gathered under a set of screen titles. Ben Turpin is the star and Kathryn McGuire has the leading feminine role. Showing at the Grand theater starting tonight.

Ivan Linow, prize fighter, wrestler and general all-around strong man, is a member of the cast of the Allan Dawn Paramount production of "Zaza," starring Gloria Swanson at the Oregon theater now. H. B. Warner in the leading man's role, heads a strong supporting cast. "Zaza" is a delightfully appealing melodrama adapted by Albert Shelby Levino from the French stage success of the same name by Pierre Berton and Charles Simon. It is packed with thrilling action.

Just to prove that friendship is stronger than professional rivalry, two Universal film stars, both cast in fighting roles, agreed to do a few rounds each day together.

The screen stars were Reginald Denny, hero of "The Abysmal Brute" and the famous "Leather Pushers" series, and Herbert Rawlinson, star of such high powered crook dramas as "Don't Shoot" and "Railroaded."

Rawlinson was cast for "The Victor," a screen adaptation of Gerald Beaumont's prize-fight story which is now playing at the Bligh theater.

A new four-act vaudeville road show opens at the Bligh theater today for a two days' showing.

Edward Earle, who plays the villain in the new George Arliss photoplay, "The Man Who Played God," a United Artists Corporation release, will open at the Grand theater today, recently won first prize in a "beauty" contest among screen stars. By a considerable majority, Mr. Earle was voted the best looking film player.

POLEY PILLS BRING RELIEF
"POLEY PILLS" are the best I have tried. My kidneys work a lot better since I received your generous offer," writes John W. Brogan, Adams, Mass. POLEY PILLS are a diuretic stimulant for the KIDNEYS and while being taken close attention should be paid to the diet. Avoid sweets, pastry, starchy food, alcoholic drinks, tea and coffee. Drink plenty of good fresh water, and keep the body warmly clothed. Refuse substitutes. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

SILVERTON, Or., Dec. 21.—(Special to The Statesman)—The final rehearsal of the community Christmas cantata to be given by the Silvertown Choral society will be held Friday evening.
