Why We Advise The "Pay As You Go Plan"

Each year competition is keener in all walks of life. You may be a Lawyer, Doctor, Craftsman, Farmer, Manufacturer, Merchant, or occupied in clerical work, and you will find to make a success in your line that it takes study, thought, and above all hard work to meet all of the difficulties that arise in your daily tasks.

Legitimate debts or investing in any item that has an asset is good sound business, but to go in debt for what you have no particular use for means headaches and worries that in many cases can be avoided.

Bank a part of your earnings, no matter how small, and you will be surprised how quickly you will be able to figure ahead and to pay for the smaller items needed in your daily life.

Make 1924 a "Pay As You Go" Year for your wearing apparel as a starter, and if you haven't a bank account start one as early as possible. Make it the first item on your New Year for 1924.

The woman's home missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet for the regular monthly business session in the church parlors Friday with Mrs. A. F. Marcus and Mrs. E. N. Filling as hostesses for the afternoon. Mrs. J. W. Harbison and Mrs. C. A. Keils will be in charge of the program.

Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. H. H. Vandevort will be hostess for the meeting of the woman's home missionary society of the First Methodist church.

To celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Christmas day, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Potter invited a number of guests for an anniversary dinner at their home on Broadway street. Evergreens and holly decorated the home in the spirit of Christmas, and the table was attractively appointed with a centerpiece and favors in the Christmas colors. The dinner guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beardsley, Roy, Gladys, Kenneth, May, Mable and Alvin Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Manson, Jennie Potter, Beulah Potter of Dallas, America McIntire, Bodelle Robinson, M. and Mrs. M. E. Abbott and Kenneth and Mildred Abbott.

During the day a number of friends called to visit with the old couple and to offer congratulations for the occasion.

Miss Uinta Kirk of Chemawa entertained as her house guests during the holidays, her cousins, Donald and Douglas Whittier and Miss Virginia Albert of Portland.

The regular meeting of the WCTU will be held in the club rooms this afternoon. The first part of the meeting will be given over to a short business session, and later the members will enjoy a social hour with tea and chatting.

To celebrate the fourth anniversary of national prohibition, the unions of the county will join in a jubilee and celebration at the club rooms on January 15. A special program is being planned for the day.

After spending the Christmas days with Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Hall of Chemawa, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan T. Ritchie (Mrs. Hall's sister) and son Duncan Dean, departed Friday for Los Angeles where they will remain for a short visit with relatives before continuing their journey to Mexico City where they will make their home indefinitely.

For the pleasure of her sister, Mrs. Hall entertained with a series of informal dinners, luncheons and teas during the week. Mrs. O. M. Wadell of Portland, a childhood friend of the visitor, came from Portland to visit with Mrs. Ritchie during her stay at Chemawa.

The Ritchies are enroute from Calgary, Alberta, to the old City of Mexico where Mr. Ritchie is interested in a large dairy and grain concern. Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie were in Mexico City about eleven years ago when the revolution broke out there, and because of the precarious state of business and political affairs at that time, returned to the states.

Enroute they will stop at Los Angeles with relatives and while there will visit at Mrs. Ritchie's old girlhood home at Riverside. From there they will continue their journey on the Santa Fe to El Paso, Texas, and thence to their destination.

The Salem Music Teachers' association will not meet this evening as scheduled. Owing to the irregularities of New Year's day the meeting has been postponed to Tuesday evening, January 8, at Mrs. Beatrice Shelton's studio.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Christian church will meet for the regular session of business and study, in the church parlors Friday afternoon. "Our Spanish Speaking Neighbors" is the topic for the study hour and the program of the afternoon is in charge of Mrs. Harley White. Mrs. Hart is chairman of the social committee.

The Rapherian club meets Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Thompson at her home at 351 North Summer street.

All newly elected officers, all appointed officers, and those who are to assist in the installation of the WRC are requested to meet at McCormick hall Thursday promptly at one thirty o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fleming will be hosts this evening for the members of the Merry Go Round club.

Of much interest the college folk in the news of the marriage of Miss Lela Ashworth to Thomas E. Foley, which will take place at the hour of eight this evening at the home of the bride's parents in Astoria. Both the bride and the bridegroom are former students at the Oregon Agricultural college and are very well known in the college circles.

To welcome in the new year, Dorothy Keezar invited a number of her high school friends to her home last evening to pass the evening with dancing and games until the clock struck the banal hour. After the new year arrived the hostess served a course of delicious refreshments and the guests departed for their various homes. Those who shared in the pleasures of the evening were: Helen Breitenstein, Irma Bolander, Mildred Gilbert, Dorothy Keezar, Robert Ramsden, Glen Nash, Robert Ashby and Don Kelley.

The young maids of the "A" club entertained with a line party at the Grand theater yesterday afternoon, enjoying the matinee performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." After the play the girls proceeded to the Gray Belle to partake of refreshments. The following girls made up the party: Helen Ramsden, Margaret Breitenstein, Frances Tucker, Jean Shipp, Helen Breitenstein, Geneva Sundin, Rosalie Buren, Irma Bolander, Mildred Gilbert and Dorothy Keezar.

For the pleasure of her grandson, Robert Bishop, who has been spending the vacation in Salem, Mrs. C. P. Bishop invited eighteen of his friends in to watch the old year out and the new year make its appearance. Dancing and games merrily passed the evening, until a later hour when refreshments were served at small tables arranged about in the cosy nooks of the receiving rooms.

Jeanette Sykes of Seattle, spent the Christmas days in Salem visiting among her friends, spending a good part of the time as the house guest of Maurine Styles.

Mrs. S. J. Hill is the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Styles, and will remain in Salem for an indefinite length of time.

"I had stomach trouble so bad everything I ate soured and formed gas. Was miserable until I tried Adierika. This helped the first day." Most medicines act only on lower bowel but Adierika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removes all gasses and poisons. Brings out matter you never thought was in your system. Helps any case gas on the stomach in TEN minutes. J. C. Perry, Druggist, 115 S. Commercial St.—Adv.

MILLERS

IN wishing our customers and friends a Happy and Prosperous new year we do so with a deep feeling of gratitude for the business extended us throughout the infancy of this store.

March 1921—

We opened a small store at 373-77 Court Street. Thru courteous treatment, low prices on high grade furniture and our willingness to extend credit without interest our business outgrew its 5500 square feet of floor space.

December 1923—

We secured a long time lease on the brick structure formerly occupied by the Gingrich Motor & Tire Co. and adjacent to our first store. This gives us an entire floor space of about 25,000 square feet; 5500 being utilized for the showing of our used furniture and 19,500 for displaying the new merchandise.

This growth in the short length of time that we have been in business proves to us that the people of Salem and vicinity have appreciated our efforts and it is with deep regard that we wish you
