

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Two Boys Return—

Tired of being a fugitive from justice and the automobile in which they were traveling wrecked, Clarence Molson and Henry Klossan returned to Salem Monday and will be arraigned in the justice court Wednesday afternoon. They are charged with theft and disorderly conduct, including throwing some boots through a meat market window. According to the story told by the boys, the machine, driven by Lewis Tanzer, was badly wrecked half a mile this side of the California line. They walked on to Hornbrook after which they decided to return home. Tanzer went on south of San Francisco, where he has a brother. Contract for the machine, which was owned by Tanzer, was sent back.

What About Tomorrow—

Are you one who will enroll at the Capital Business College tomorrow to begin a course which will be the means of landing you in a good position? Only a few weeks ago a call came from a prominent bank in eastern Oregon for a young man to do bookkeeping and stenography. We had to turn it down—no one ready to send. Why put this matter off longer? Act now!—j1.

Fine Sermons Preached—

Two excellent sermons were given at the First Baptist church Sunday by Rev. Llewellyn Brown, new pastor. Lacking flourishes, Rev. Mr. Brown spoke in a forceful manner and commanded the attention of his audience. His theme for the morning was "Making the Miracle Possible in Salem Today." Miracles are impossible unless individual members of the church unite for a single effort, he said. Quoting from one of the first sermons that he remembered hearing, Rev. Mr. Brown said, "Fill the water pots to the brim and then leave the miracles to Him." This theme was fully developed.

Chief on Another Week—

Though unofficially his duties as chief of police expired at midnight, Walter W. Birchett will remain on duty until Monday, Jan.
7, when the council holds the first meeting of the year. Mrs. Blanche Coe, police matron, will probably remain until the same time, though her resignation was to take effect the first of the year. Chief Birchett has made no plans for the future.

visiting in Salem.

G. W. Church was in the city yesterday from Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Freeland expect to return to their home in Springfield shortly. They have been visiting here over the holidays.

J. W. Mayo, Stayton banker, returned home yesterday after spending Sunday with friends in Salem.

J. Alton Thompson of Bend, and E. A. Gronewald of The Dalles are

Relief Meeting Coming—

On Thursday evening of this week Robert H. Strong, state chairman of the German children relief movement, will conduct a meeting in Salem to which representative citizens of the city will be asked to come. The need for relief of the German children is imperative and a generous response from this vicinity is looked for.

Cohn of the Ace at the Midnight Frolic at the Grand theater last night were Bessie Kayser, Evelyn Osborn and Hulda Lenz, all employees of the Ace.

Car Burned—

The fire department was called out on North Liberty street last night where a shack had caught fire. An old car was in the building and both were almost completely destroyed.

Lincoln Hill Dangerous—

Police again call attention to the fact that using Lincoln hill as a coasting place is highly dangerous as a pastime. During past years when snow permitted coasting there were several accidents and scores narrowly escaped serious injury. Bobsleds and sleighs made their appearance yesterday, and the small boy was bawling the fact that school resumes Wednesday.

accident happened at her home south of Salem.

Reckless Drivers Fined—

Following an accident at State and Commercial yesterday between automobiles driven by F.
M. Zeller, Blodgett, and Lois Anderson. Zeller was fined $5 for reckless driving. George Kotchik, Oregon City, was arrested for reckless driving Sunday and released under $10 bail. He was cited to appear in police court January 5.

More Burglaries Reported—

Two Sunday night burglaries were reported to the police. Two rifles and a shotgun were stolen from the I. J. Christensen store, 404 Ferry. Entrance was gained by breaking a window. C. M.
Byrd, 1340 Chemeketa, reported his residence ransacked but nothing missing.

Parents Summoned—

Parents of the 65 boys who belong to the Salem Boys' chorus are requested to meet at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night at the YMCA for the purpose of reorganizing and election of officers. No long trips will be taken by the boys this coming year with the exception of the annual trip to the Portland Rose festival. The drill team with a membership of 24, is to be doubled and to increase the members from 85 to nearly 150. Efforts are being made to interest the parents in the organization.
The ages of the boys vary from between 10 and 18 years. The Salem Boys' chorus is not connected any longer with the Whitney boys' chorus, which according to reports, is stranded "somewhere" in Canada. Dr. Epley, who has charge of the organization, withdrew from the Whitney chorus more than a year ago.

To All Our Friends—

We wish to thank you for your kind sympathy, during the sickness and death of our dear wife and mother. Also for the beautiful floral offerings. James Grieg and family.—j1.

Six O'clock Club Meets—

Bishop W. O. Shepard, of Portland, talking on "The New Year", was the principal speaker at the last meeting of the year of the Six O'clock club at the Methodist church Monday night. He outlined the things necessary for happiness, ranging from health to spiritual uplift. Though his talk was shortened on account of hav-

Bread Wagon Delays Train—

An automobile truck, used in the delivery of bread, became stuck in the snow while crossing the Oregon Electric tracks, a few miles north of the city Monday morning with the result that the early train from the north was delayed about 30 minutes.

Five In Jail—

The new year finds the county jail with only five inhabitants which is two less than were taken care of Christmas, according to Sheriff O. D. Bower. One of the men is serving with a fine to serve out in addition. He will be in jail for several weeks yet. A number of others are waiting the next term of court while others are in for minor charges.

Eugene and Return—Charles N. Chambers and family spent Christmas in Eugene with relatives. This is of little interest, but the automotive circumstances of the trip may be. The trip was made in a Ford sedan via Corvallis a distance of 155 miles on 5 gallons of gasoline or an average of 31 miles on a gallon. It was made in three hours running time each way. A second record was made between Eugene and Corvallis, a distance of 40 miles on 1 1-4 gallons of gasoline or an average of 32 miles per gallon and was made in an hour and a half.

If there is a better record for the car, considering its load, Mr.
Chambers does not know of it, but would like to.

Gun Pointer Bound Over—

Preliminary hearing was waived by N. Rosenbaum when he appeared in the justice court Monday afternoon to answer to charges of pointing a gun at Robert Hinkle.
He was bound over to await action by the grand jury and was released under his own recognizance. Rosenbaum was charged with the offense said to have been committed on December 28 a half
