THE OREGON STATESMAN, SALEM, OREGON

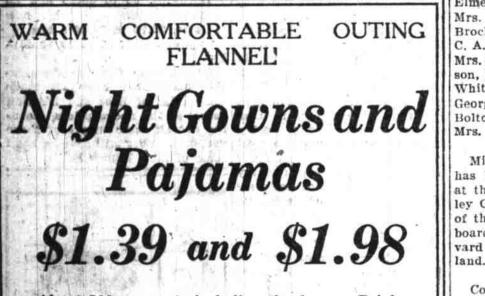

The War Mothers are meeting at guests called to enjoy the hour of the home of Mrs. J. A. Carson this chatting and tea. At the daintily afternoon to sew on articles for appointed tea table, effective in the layettes to ge given to soldier's decorations of the holiday colors families. Mrs. Carson states that and candle light, Mrs. Frank Snedthe need of these articles is urg- ecor presided, and Miss Prudence ent and the sewing must be com- Patterson and Jeanette Meredith and Mrs. J. Shelly Saurman, Miss ter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Von assisted in serving. pleted as soon as possible.

Attention of the War Mothers is called to the fact that the dues ber of Commerce auditorium. It evening of cards at the home of Seattle Tuesday, after spending the and was admitted to the bar in the

was decided at the national con- Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee Saturday. vacation as the house guest of Mr. fall. He is now a practicing atvention in Kansas City, in Octo- While the women of the club meet and Mrs. Paul Wallace, ber, that the annual dues should regularly during the year for their be raised from $1 to $1.50, which afternoons of bridge, it is only price includes the official War three or four times during the club for an attractive party Friday af- ing communities. Mothers' magazine. Mrs. Carson season that the husbands meet to ternoon when she invited a numurges the necessity of the payment join in an evening of cards. The ber of matrons to her home to. The Salem chapter of the Assoof all dues at this time. There prizes for high score went to Mrs. participate in a six-table game of ciation of American University will be much work to be done at M. C. Petteys and Mr. Arthur Ut- bridge. The winnings of the game women will meet in the Chamber this meeting, and a full attend- ley. ance is desired.

With a Mah Jongg tea, Mrs. and Joan Rouschep enjoyed the participate in the pleasures of the is reported that an interesting pro-Breyman Boise and Miss Dorothy evening with the following mem- tea hour. Among the guests were gram is being prepared for the first Patterson entertained a group of bers of the club: Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Percy Cup- part of the aftenoon, which will young matrons and college maids Arthur Utley, Mr. and Mrs. Cory- per. Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. F. G. be followed by a lively business at the Boise home Monday after- don Blodgett, Mr. and Mrs. Wilnoon. Three tables were em- liam McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd R. C. Hunter, Mrs. Cal Patton, Chemawa will speak upon the ployed for the Mah Jongg game, Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mrs. C. N. Inman, Mrs. Clyde John- work the government is doing for and later a number of additional Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Petteys, Mr. son, Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mrs. O. the aborigines within the Indian

About 200 garments including the famous Brighton make. Both white and fancy cloth made in pull over or regular button style. Extra large sizes included. If you like a well made garment for the cool nights you will appreciate these.

and Mrs. Al Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. fun and humor. For instance, Lou Grote, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pratt, 1924 came leaping onto the scene, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Page, Miss Nel- and when questioned by Cupid, the lie Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. reply was: "Why, you see, I'm Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Ku- Leap Year."

gel, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, The messenger came from 1923 and Mr. and Mrs. James Imlah. with a list of things begun that 25 A.

would have to be finished in the Complimenting Miss Edna Ster- new year, and asked Cupid to help. ing prior to her departure for Se-| Cupid went searching through his attle, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers basket of nuts for the nut shell entertained with an attractive New that would contain the answer. Year's dinner party. Scarlet flow- The proper nut was opened, bringers and burning candles graced the ing to light a diamond ding. Then prettily appointed table where the pack 1921 carried was opened covers were laid for the guest of and out jumped a white kitten-honor. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wallace, the cat was out of the bag!

Margaret Cosper and the hosts. Behren, and for the past few years For the pleasure of Miss Sterl- has been teaching in Marion coun-As the guests of Mrs. James ing, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Park ty schools. Mr. Kowitz is the son must be paid at the next regular Imlah and Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, the entertained with a small informal of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Kowitz of meeting of Tuesday, January S. members of the Wallace Read dinner party Friday evening. Miss Lebanen. He was graduated from which will take place in the Cham- Community "500" club enjoyed an Sterling returned to her home in Willamette university last June, torney.

* *

went to Mrs. O. A. Olson and Mrs. of Commerce auditorium Saturday

As additional guests Howard Paul Hauser. After the cards a afternoon, January 5, at 2:30 for Page, George Allen, Nadine Smith few additional guests called to the regular onthly meeting. It Delano, Mrs. W. I. Needham, Mrs. meeting. Mrs. Harwood Hall of

L. Fisher, Mrs. L. W. Gleeson, Mrs. schools, with particular emphasis Elmer Daue, Mrs. O. A. Olson, of what is being done in the school Mrs. Claire Vibbert, Mrs. F. G. at Chemawa. A group of girls Brock, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. from the government school will

C. A. Downs, Mrs. F. G. Bowersox, sing a number of songs. Mrs. Carl Pope, Mrs. Fred Thomp-The latter part of the meeting

son, Mrs. E. C. Quinn, Mrs. R. L. will be in the order of an open White, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. forum for the discussion of the George Hubbs, Silverton, Mrs. plans the club will adopt as the Bolton Hamble and the hostess, work for the year. The suggestions made at the national conven-

Miss Blanche White of Portland dist summer con-cerning the work in the organihas been spending the week-end zations along educational lines has at the home of her brother, Har- inspired much interest among the ley O. White. Miss White is one members of the local chapter, and of the owners of the "Color Cup-it is possible that these suggestions phone, she quickly sensed someboard" art shop on Sandy boule- will be incorporated in the plans vard at Fifty-fourth street, Port- for the work of 1924.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin Coming as a complete surprise to their friends was the engage- spent last week as guests of Mr. ment of Miss Grace Van Behren and Mrs. R. A. Nadon of Portland. to Mr. Chris J. Kowitz, which was returning to Salem Monday evemade known in an original way at ning accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. the watch party celebrated by the Nadon and small son Eugene, who young people of the Court Street spent New Year's day here at the Christian church, in the church Eckerlin home. parlors Monday evening. After the clock had struck midnight the Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin, Jr., enthree nieces of the bride-elect- tertained 12 guests for dinner New Lenore, Theona and Winona Put- Year's day at their country home, nam-presented an original play- with covers laid for Mr. and Mrs. let in which were featured Cupid, R. A. Nadon and son Eugene, Mr. 1924, and the messenger from and Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin, Mr. 1923. Many of the members of and Mrs. E. A. Skelley, Charles the group were featured in the Spege, Harvey Spege and Miss jokes, and the play scintilated with Bertha Eckerlin.

THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 3, 1924

"Her Dangerous Path' By PAUL FORREST

Adapted from the Patheserial by Hal Roach

Copyright, 1923, by Pathe Exchange, Inc.

CHAPTER III At The Brink

"Wong, shall I accept Dr.-Mark- him. And then Dr. Markham, am's offer and become a nurse?" slightly disheveled, entered the The mystic Oriental looked up room. He glanced about him, fin Corinne Grant with a kindly ally resting his gaze on the bed mile on his wrinkled face.

where the patient lay. "he answered. We shall see greeted, "it was splendid of you to cannot tell," he answered. 'Only sands tell, what will come." give Dr. Harrison this oppor And again Wong stirred the tunity."

nds while Corinne watched, a Dr. Markham nodded dryly and fascinated expression on her face, made a quick examination of the wondering what romance, what ad- patient while the others ldft the venture, or what intrigue awaited room. Upon completing it, he r at this pathway of life. turned to Corinne.

It came to pass that Corinne "Very clever, my dear," he said, ame in contact with a young "but look out for me in the future." uterne, Dr. Albert Harrison, in the In the weeks that followed, Dr spital where she had sought em-Markham did not forget-nor did syment under Dr. Markham, he forgive. Every move that Coroth seemed attracted to one an- inne made was watched, and finally ther, and each one confided am- she was told to leave-without the tions for the future. Corinne's slightest reason. Tearfully the girl interest reached its peak when packed her things. She would miss ung Harrison declared that the the life-she would miss young Ider physician was handling a cer- Harrison.

ain case wrong. A crippled girl, As she walked down the passage uffering from blood poisoning of way she heard the sound of a thud he leg, was the case that Harrison in an adjoining room. The gir ferred to. rushed to the door and threw it

"I wish I had the opportunity of open. There she beheld Harrison cating her," he said. struggling for dear life in the Success comes with patience and clutches of a huge ape-like manard work," Corinne smiled, "I be- delirious with rage. With a terrific we in you, your day will come." blow the madman knocked Harrk And it came that very night. The son to a corner of the room and irl's condition became critical and then turned toward Corinne. Withprince knew that something must out the slightest fear she apdone immediately. Dr. Mark- proached him, believing that her nam was absent from the hospital. gentle methods would quiet his "She must have immediate atten- delirious brain. For a moment he on," Corinne told her friend. seemed like a child and then his "I am sure I could cure her by madness overpowered him. With a the new Swinburg method," Harri-son declared. "Of course, Dr mad cry he seized the girl in his arms and began to slowly crush Markham would never give me that the life out of her.

chance." At that moment the door burst There is always that "other side" opén and Dr. Markham rushed in. to a man's life, even to Dr. Mark- With a shout he rushed for the nam's, who reserved it for the com- madman and sprang on his back. arty of "picked friends." When Suprised by this new assailant, the orinne got the doctor on the patient dropped the girl and turned to face his new adversary. Markthing wrong. Gay voices and ham knew the best thing was to sounds of hilarity echoed from the flee, so he scurried to a window ther end of the phone. and jumped out to an adjoining 'Aw right," Dr. Markham mut roof. The madman followed. ered, angered to have business in And then the chase began. Over erfere with his pleasure, "she's hit roofs the two men went. Mark-given me too much trouble-hic ham attempted to find a place of -already. Get her ready for an escape, but none offered itself. mputation. I'll be there, m' dear Ahead of him he saw a tall chimney twenty minutes." with a ladder leading up the side.

Corinne was horrified. She real- He dashed toward this at full speed, ed that the man was in no con- the madman close at his heels. ition to operate-that he probably When Corinne recovered her lidn't even know what he was composure, she found the room She thought quick, as the empty but for Harrison, who head nurse was waiting for the cowered on the floor in the corner. answer. Looking out of the window she be-"Dr. Markham can-cannot held the two men climbing to dizzy come," she reported. "He said to heights on the tall chimney. With-turn the case over to Dr. Harrison." out a word, Corinne climbed out of The young interne was overjoyed the window and rushed over the with the news. He did not sus- roof toward the chimney. pect the ruse that Corinne had em-Up, up, up she climbed. She reached the top just as the deliriloyed to bring him his opportunty, and possibly fame. At his quick ous patient was about to dash rders the operating room became Markham to the street hundreds -bustle with efficiency as he pre-ared to cure the crippled girl by the act, but the madman turned e Swinburg method. toward her. Around the top of the Corinne kept a close watch out- chimney the three clambered, each de for Dr. Markham, Finally he ame-rather uncertainly-as his He potsteps seemed to waver. He souther seemed to waver. He ward the girl-she lost her balance and fell, but clung to a lightning rod on the side of the chimney. Looking up she saw that both men man-not a man, but a beast had disappeared from view. Throwing his coat aside, he slowly proached Corinne, a strange individual in front of a fire house le playing over his features, was the one witness to the excit-e girl decided that she would ing event. He quickly summoned Dr. Markham from entering some men and a net was held in operating room at any cost. Let's have a little kiss, sweetle," Let's have a little kiss, sweetle, Corinne saw all this as she clung tammered, weaving toward her. to her perilous place, and then, Corinne backed slowly away to-ward a room which she knew to be The doctor followed her, of exultation in his eyes. dering whether or not she would be plunged into Eternity. ok of exultation in his eyes. slammed the door behind him bocked it. Then he faced the Corinne glanced over his in his eyes. She was trembling with onlder, causing him to turn in his eyes. She was trembling with ander. And then, before he knew fright over what had happened that happened, she sprang toward then his voice came to her ears. "Forgive me, Corinne," shoved him with all the she could summon into begged, "I love you-" Come in and Learn Full an open closet and slammed the door shut on him. The lock membered his cowardice in her MOUS moment of peril. mapped before he could recover inself. Dr. Harrison found himself fam- moment. She felt a hand laid gently is the next morning. His opera- on her own. It was Wong. His on had been highly successful magic had told her of the future. origne stood nearby and watched What should she do? the older surgeons congratulating (To be continued) has been the name selected for the The Amicus club will meet at little one. Mrs. Jaccoberger was the invitation of Mrs. J. H. Garnbefore her marriage Maude Barnes jobst this afternoon for their reguof Dallas and graduated from the lar hour of chatting and needle-University of Oregon with the class work.

* * All of the newly elected and ap-of 1921. She was a member of Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Jaccopointive officers of the WRC, and berger, also a graduate of the university, is a member of Phi Gameveryone connected with the inma Delta fraternity, They are stallation which is to be held at the armory Saturday evening will making their home in Portland.

Mrs. Frank Powers will be hostess for the Kensington club meeting this afternoon. * *

The Rapheterian club meets at the invitation of Mrs. Frederick H. Thompson this afternoon at her home on North Summer street. grets, which came in, due to ab-

* * Mrs. O. C. Locke will entertain weather, the Merry-Go-Round chu the members of the Thursday which was to have met with Mr. Bridge club for a 1 o'clock lunch, and Mrs. R. B. Fleming as hosts eon and afternoon of cards today. New Year's night was postponed. The Civic Art section of the It is planned to have the meeting Salem Arts league will meet in on Tuesday, Jan. 8, at the Flemthe educational room of the city ing home.

library this evening at 7:30. * *

The Highland Parent-Teachers afternoon at 2:30 for the regular monthly meeting. A short program has been arranged for the first part of the afternoon, which will be followed by the usual business session.

* * Chapter G of PEO Sisterhood will meet at the home of Mrs. W. W. Moore this afternoon.

* * The Thursday Bridge club will meet with Mrs. W. I. Needham this afternoon. Mrs. Ralph Moudy will be hostess for the members of the Friday Bridge club tomorrow. * * The West Side circle of the Jason Lee Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Kaighin, 1296 North Commercial street, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

The junior guild of St. Paul's A green congressman is one Episcopal church will meet in the who proposes a scheme that would parish house this afternoon at 2 cost the country less than ten o'clock for the regular meeting. million.

* *

Tuesday, January 8, will not meet until Friday, Jan. 11, with Mrs. A. I. Eoff as hostess. * *

Because of the number of resences from town and the cold

26. 36

With Mrs. Sarah Patrick as guest, the members of the Sweet will meet at the schoolhouse this Briar club spent the afternoor yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Franklin, pleasantly passing the hours away with fancy work and the discussion of the various problems of the Wallace Road community. Before the guests departed the hostess served dainty refreshments before the > fire. Mrs. Lou Grote has invited the members of the club to her home for the next meeting of the month;

* * The Central circle of the Ladies"

Aid society of the Jason Lee Methodis church will meet in the church parlors Friday afternoon

Music club January 11.

at 2 o'clock. Mr. Carol Robinson, planist, will appear before the Salem Civic

The affianced are both well Mrs. C. J. Green was hostess known in Salem and the surround-

FAMOUS FOR GREAT VALUES

Mrs. Green.

Watch This Paper for New Specials Every Day of This Month

Don't Worry About the High Price of Fuel

Our Values Before You Buy

You will not have to worry about the cold weather or the high price of fuel this winter if you are using one REA of our stoves. They are designed efficiently, according to the very newest and most advanced principles so that they will not only burn practically any fuel that is obtainable, but will cut your fuel bills from 25 per cent to 40 per cent. Our stove department is ready to serve you. Stoves in all styles, all sizes, at prices that will save you real money.

Universal Combination Heater

Compare

These famous heaters burn soft coal, coke or any other fuel. We guarantee them to reduce your fuel bills. They consume all the waste gases that usually go up the chimney, and are especially priced for this

Economy Heaters

The reliable heater that has given such splendid satisfaction and service in thousands of homes for many a year. They are very efficient, radiating warmth to every corner of a room. They are especially priced for this week. MARSHEL & SECTIONARY D

$26.50 H.L.StiffFurnitureCo Great Values in Furniture COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHER Exchange Dept.

Universal Combination Range

Why not place one of these wood and gas ranges in your home this month? They bake with either coal, wood or gas for fuel, insuring a warm kitchen in the winter and a cool kitchen in the summer. They are great values at

$165.00

Oil Heater Special

Just the thing to warm the cold corners or heat a single room during the chilly days and evenings of early Fall. It costs just a few cents an hour to operate them. They are smokeless, odorless and specially priced at $6.50

Specially Priced

Ranges - Heaters Exchange Dept.

Details of

Improved

Credit Plan

Our

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dalton | ing of the Capitol Five Hundred and two sons of Dallas, Mr. and club New Year's eve, inviting as Mrs. W. S. Waterbury and daugh- special guests Mrs. Kittie Graver ter, Ruth, spent New Year's day and Mrs. Jose L. Stewart. Mrs. as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Graver won the high score for the ladies and the gentlemen's score Spong went to Mr. W. H. Dancy. Miss Dorothy Livesley enter-| For the next meeting of the tained a number of her young club Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Baker friends with a line party at the have invited the members to their Oregon theater Tuesday evening, home.

with a supper served later before the fireplace at the T. A. Livesley Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walsh, home. Placed at the three small Priscilla and Raymond, Jr., of Eutables before the light of a cracklgene, were holiday house guests of ing fire the guests enjoyed the Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Fry.

dainty supper served by the hostess with the assistance of Helen Roberts.

by Billy Dyer, left yesterday for The guests for the party were Long Beach, Cal., with the expec-Mildred Roberts, Nancy Thielsen, tation of remaining there for Maxine Glover, Maxine Myers, about three months. Margaret Poorman, Woodburn;

Bertha Babcock, Louise McDougal, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner is plan-Dorothy Bell, Robert Hishop, C. K. Bishop, Henry Thielsen, Tommy ning to depart for Seattle Janu-Livesley, Kenneth Allen and Har- ary 14, and from there she will sail on the Lurline for Honolulu old Olinger. where she will visit with her

Mrs. Josie L. Stewart, who has daughter and son-in-law, Captain been the house guest of Mr. and and Mrs. Earl Flegel. Mrs. R. J. Hendricks during the holidays, went to Corvallis yes-Of much interest to their friends terday to resume her duties as among the university circles comes chaperone for the girls of the Pi the announcement of the birth of Beta Phi sorority.

a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Frances Jaccoberge. The baby was

* *

* *

Mrs. C. M. Walker, accompanied

COUNTRY

	10.00
Barry, Mrs. Joe, Lyons	12
Berchtold, Joseph, Mount Angel	3
Darling, Grace, Rt. 8, Salem	12
Dennison, Mamie, Dallas
Gough, Blanche M., Mehama
Harper, Edwin, Gervals	22
Haworth, Evelyn, Stayton	19
Hochberg, Mrs. Florence, Monmouth
Mason, Ethel, Mill City	í.
Mason, Ethel, Mill City	33
Mrs. T. M. McCellan, West Stayton, Oregon
McGrew, Henry, Woodburn	5
Manenhal, Mabel, Gervais, Rt. 1
Muller, Mrs. Carl, Silverton	æ
Peetz, Hazel, Turner	8
Reid, Erol, Hubbard
Russell, Glenna, Marion
Thompson, Mrs. G. N., Rt. 8, Salem	E
Turnbull, Robt., Rt. 4, Box 76, Salem	1
Willey, Clara, Aumsville	12
Wall, Margaret, Jefferson
Young, J. F., Shaw	2
roung, s. r., suuv

The subscription rates of the Daily Oregon Statesman are as follows:

下,只 只 片相信 和同学系

By carrier in the city of Salem, 50 cents a month; $1.50 for 3 months; $3.00 for 6 months; $6.00 per year.

By mail in Marion and Polk counties, 50 cents a month; $1.25 for 3 months; $2.50 for 6 months; $5.00 per year.

By mail outside of Marion and Polk counties, 60 cents a month; $1.50 for 3 months; $3.00 for 6 months and $6.00 a

