FOR the first meeting of 1924 the Rapherian club met with Mrs. Fred H. Thompson at her home on North Summer street yesterday afternoon to pleasantly pass the time with needlework and chatting. For a while the guests listened in on the story hour which was broadcasted by the Woman's club of Portland.

The newly elected officers of the club presided for the first time this afternoon at the business session, and Mrs. James West as the new president found the gavel, presented to her, heavy and decidedly unwieldy. Upon examination the tool proved to be a large meat chopping knife, heavily gilded. Mrs. Cecil Hawley is the new vice president and Mrs. Lee Urub is secretary and treasurer.

Before the meeting adjourned the hostess served a delicious luncheon. Mrs. Phil Newmyer was welcomed as a new member into the club yesterday.

On February seventh Mrs. Guy Smith will entertain the members of the club.

Bright scarlet carnations artistically arranged in a bowl of Japanese design centered the table over which Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Hofer presided as hosts for an attractive dinner party Wednesday evening, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hofer of San Francisco. Covers were marked for Major and Mrs. F. G. Andrae, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mr. Agahael Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hofer and the hosts.

Meeting with Mrs. Frank Powers as hostess the members of the Kensington club enjoyed a pleasant afternoon yesterday with their thimbles and visitings, with a bit of music on the victrola, and a number of piano solos volunteered by Florence Powers. Mrs. Paul Hauser was welcomed into the club as a new member during the afternoon. Before the guests departed, the hostess served a course of dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Albert Smith will entertain the club for the next meeting on Thursday, January 17.

For the first meeting of the Bridge luncheon club since the first of December, Mrs. O. C. Locke was hostess yesterday afternoon for a charming one o'clock luncheon and afternoon of bridge. Dainty freshias and the paper white narcissus centered the three small tables where the lunch was served in a delightfully intimate way. Mrs. Harry Hawkins met with the club as a special guest to enjoy the lunch and the games. Mrs. John McNary will be hostess for the next meeting of the club on Friday, January 18.

For a birthday and Christmas tree, over two hundred members of the WRC and the GAR met at McCornack hall Saturday evening. With crepe paper decorations in the red and green colors, Christmas bells and baskets of fern, the hall was attractively decorated for the gala occasion. Much of the interest of the evening was centered in the large lighted Christmas tree from which Santa Claus found a gift for every member of the two organizations. A huge birthday cake centered the table, with other garnishings of holly and the Christmas greenery, where the guests assembled to enjoy the dinner prepared by the committee in charge. For the further pleasure of the evening, after the dinner hour the following program was given: Song, America, by the audience; Salute to the Flag; reading, Etiquette of Flag, Mrs. Jennie Jones; Comrade Harris accompanied by Comrade Lyle, sang a rousing convention song and responded with an encore, When You and I Were Young, Maggie; Mrs. Bertha Loveland gave a

For the pleasure of sixteen guests, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert entertained with a charming dinner party New Year's day at their home. In the evening Mrs. F. A. Darilymple and Fannie and Grace Jorgensen called to spend the hours in a pleasantly social way. Among the dinner guests were: Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sigel and daughter, Suzanne, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jorgensen of Portland, Mrs. J. C. The birthdays of Mrs. E. C. Patton and Harry Weis were the motif of a lovely five o'clock dinner party, for which Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White entertained on New Year's day. Around the table, attractive in center-piece and favors suggestive of the gay holiday season, covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, Mr. and Mrs. William Kareth of Jefferson, Dr. and Mrs. Armin Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weis, Luella Patton and Norman Kennedy and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. White.

During the evening, Mrs. Harry Styles sang "Lad o' Dreams," and Mrs. Linfoot sang "Open Ye the Gates of the Temple," which was much in keeping with the spirit of the occasion. Following the ceremonies the members of the order proceeded to the banquet room where the remainder of the evening was spent at the long banquet tables attractively decorated with vivid red blooms.

With less than twenty five members present, the Salem Business and Professional Woman's club met for the regular monthly dinner and business session in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Wednesday evening. In the absence of Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, the president, who is ill, Miss Gladys Steele presided over the short meeting which followed the dinner hour. Little could be accomplished as there were not sufficient members present to make up a quorum. The matter of voting upon the revised constitution was laid aside until the next regular business session. Plans for the membership campaign were discussed, and it was decided that each member should canvass her own office and building for new members.

Dabney Confesses That He Faked His Murder

R. B. Dabney of Salem and Roseburg, who several months ago disappeared after leaving evidence to indicate that he had been murdered, has been arrested in Portland, but probably there will be no grounds on which to prosecute him. Dabney told the officers who arrested him that he was in debt, couldn't get out and decided to leave.

While driving to Portland, Dabney stopped his vehicle in a lonely place, killed his dog to make it appear that the animal also had been killed by intruders, and then skipped after arranging other evidence to indicate foul play. There never has been serious belief on the part of authorities that Dabney was dead.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggists Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.—Adv.

Governor Says He Will Look Carefully in to Labbe Raid Affair

George L. Cleaver, state prohibition commissioner, conferred with Governor Pierce yesterday relative to the raid on the A. G. Labbe residence in Portland on New Year's eve. George Neuner, attorney who has been doing some investigating for the state, sat in on the conference. Governor Pierce questioned Cleaver very closely relative to the raid to determine whether there was a violation of the law on the part of Cleaver when the raid was made.

"I did not authorize the raid on the Labbe residence," said the governor yesterday. "I don't recall that Labbe's name was mentioned in my conversation with Mr. Cleaver just before New Year's. He asked me whether I wanted the law enforced against rich and poor alike, and I replied that I could see no reason why anyone violating the law should be spared.

"I do not know whether I am going to back up Mr. Cleaver in the Labbe affair or not, and I do not know whether he violated the law. I won't know until I have looked into the thing."

The governor said that all evidence in his possession had been turned over to District Attorney Stanley Myers of Multnomah county.
