To all university women of the city, the Salem chapter of the American Association of University Women extend the urgent invitation to affiliate with the organization. Cards of invitation have been mailed to those who have already attended the meetings but have not as yet become members, but there are still many others in Salem whose names have not been made known to the secretary.

Of especial interest will be the meeting of the AAUW this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium, when plans for the year's educational program will be discussed and completed. Mrs. Harwood Hall of Chemawa, the speaker of the day, will tell of what the government is doing in the way of educating the young American Indians to become good citizens of the country. A group of girls from the Chemawa Indian school will appear in a group of songs.

The meeting promises to be most interesting and worthwhile, and it is hoped that it will be well attended by all university women of the city, whether they be affiliated with the organization or not.

Eight members of the board of directors of the YWCA have been announced as a result of the electoral meetings which have been in session at the Association rooms during the last two weeks. They are as follows: Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. F. E. Graber, Mrs. L. H. McMahon, Mrs. L. N. Meyers, Miss Elizabeth Putnam, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, and Mrs. J. C. Perry. The first meeting of the board of directors for 1924 will be held Tuesday morning of next week. At this meeting the annual reports of the officers and committee women will be given.

MARSHFIELD, Jan. 4.—The many friends of Mr. Earl McCrea and Miss Flora Ragsdale, both of this city, are extending congratulations because of their marriage which took place at the Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 26, Rev. Cooper officiating. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ragsdale of this city and came here about a year ago. She is a handsome young lady and wonderfully well-liked by her friends. Mr. McCrea is one of North Bend's solid business men and is owner of the Macks Cafe, where he has made a great success of the restaurant business.

Miss Ragsdale lived in Salem for several years and was graduated from Salem high school. The Highland Parent-Teacher association held their regular meeting on Thursday afternoon at the Highland school house. The meeting was well attended in spite of the inclement weather, and a very interesting and instructive program was given with Mrs. Ivan Bellinger of the city library as speaker for the afternoon. Mrs. Bellinger spoke on library work in connection with the school, and gave a reading, "Sherwood," and the story, "The Palm Tree."

Little Vail Rogers gave a piano solo, "Black Hawk Waltz," and Miss Ina Riggs gave a vocal selection, "Little Mother of Mine," and responded to an encore with "Winter Lullaby." Mrs. Stuart Parke played the accompaniment. Miss Florence Lake's room, the sixth grade, again won the picture "The Flower Market in Holland," by having the largest percentage of attendance.

After the vacation of the Christmas holidays, the Woman's club chorus will resume its regular practice Monday evening. The organization is planning on a concert at Chemawa on January 13, and later other concerts will be given in towns nearby.

Miss Florence Cartwright is spending the weekend in Portland as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. P. Keller.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kearns of Portland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Buchner New Year's da. Mrs. Kearns is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buchner.

The Etokta club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fisher Tuesday afternoon for the regular monthly meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durbin and small son, returned the first of the week from Neskowin where they spent the holidays at their beach cottage.

Rupert Dean, who is attending the University of Oregon was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Steusloff during the past week end.

After the conference session held here during the week with Superintendent J. A. Churchill, the county superintendents met at the Hotel Marion Thursday evening with a banquet and a short social time. No special program was planned for the occasion, and the evening was spent in a more informal way getting acquainted.

Superintendent and Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith, and E. F. Carlton, of the extension division of the University of Oregon, were invited as special guests for the evening. Covers were laid for Jenny Cope Gold Beach; C. E. Mullet, Coquille; Alice M. Bacon, Grants Pass; W. W. Green, Pendleton; Lillian Watts, Madras; Brenton Vedder, Oregon City; Emma Bryant, Hillsboro and Mr. Bryant; Pearl Hall of Lakeview; Jean K. Porter, Condon; Effie Crail, Vale; J. E. Myers, Prineville; Twyla Ferguson, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith, Salem; Gertrude Lyon, Canyon City; Mary Griffin, Burns; O. H. Byland, Astoria; Elizabeth Perry, St. Helens; Superintendent and Mrs. J. A. Churchill; S. S. Duncan, McMinnville; E. F. Carlton, Eugene; A. E. Gronewald, The Dalles; G. W. Lamb, Tillamook; Lena S. Shurte, Heppner; and S. H. Carter, Jacksonville.

Mrs. Fred Smith of Platte, S. D. is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Corydon Blodgett until next Monday when she will leave for her home in the middle west. Mrs. Blodgett will accompany her to Portland to remain with her until her departure. Since spending the Thanksgiving days at the Blodgett home, Mrs. Smith has been visiting with friends and relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Churchill entertained with a charming one o'clock luncheon Thursday, inviting as their guests six of the women who hold positions as county superintendents in various parts of the state, who were visitors at the convention here during the week. A bowl of Ophelia roses completed an exquisite centerpiece for the table where covers were laid for Mrs. Gertrude H. Parker of Baker, Mrs. Jennie M. C. Cote of Gold Beach, Mrs. Susanne H. Carter of Jacksonville, Mrs. Twyla Ferguson of Klamath Falls, Miss Pearl Hall of Lakeview, Mrs. A. E. Ivanhoe of La Grande, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Churchill.

Seven of the War Mothers called at the home of Mrs. J. A. Carson Thursday afternoon to sew on articles for the layettes which are to go to the disabled soldiers' families of the county. Much was accomplished, and the women all departed with extra pieces to work on during their spare moments at home.

For the few members of Chapter G of PEO Sisterhood, who were brave enough to brave the inclemencies of the weather, Mrs. W. W. Moore entertained for the regular meeting Thursday afternoon. After the short business session the remainder of the afternoon was spent before the fire chatting and visiting. Chapter G does not indulge in a social tea hour; they put the pennies that would be swallowed with a cup of tea into the scholarship fund to help some worthy person earn her way through university or college.

Mrs. Harwood Hall of Chemawa will be hostess for the next chapter meeting of January 17. Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Lawrence and family of Corvallis spent New Year's day in Salem as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford.

Because of the number of illnesses among the members of the civic art section of the Salem Arts league, the section postponed the meeting from last Thursday evening to Wednesday evening, January 16.

The Valley View club which was to have met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. William Schwarz, postponed its meeting until next Thursday, January 10.

Despite the bitter cold weather, 16 of the members of the modern writers' section of the Salem Arts league met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling Wednesday evening to read and discuss the poems, essays and plays written by various members. Poems were read by Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mrs. F. S. Barton, Miss Renska Swart, Gertrude Robinson Ross, Prof. M. E. Peck, Mrs. B. F. Franklin and Mrs. J. M. Clifford, and Mrs. W. F. Fargo read a short story which appeared in the De-linctor some time ago. Mr. DeSpain's essay on "Anticipation" was the source of much interest and comment during the meeting.

As special guests of the section Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus joined in the enjoyment of the evening, and Mr. Paulus discussed with the writers the outline of a play which he has drafted.

Before the guests departed Mrs. Ohling served a course of light refreshments before the open fire. Among those who were present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Franklin, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. F. S. Barton, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Miss Mina Harding, Miss Renska Swart, Mr. de Spain, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Daune, and the hosts.

Own Your Own Furnace

take it along when you move! Looks like a phonograph. Heats 3 to 6 connecting rooms.

Estate Heatrola is the new idea in modern warm-air heating. A practical and efficient warm air furnace, resembling a cabiner phonograph. Placed in one of the living rooms, it heats 3 to 6 connecting rooms, and heats them better than the ordinary stove heats one. Not a stove, but a furnace that circulates great volumes of warm, moist air throughout the house. Burns any kind of coal satisfactorily.

Grained Mahogany Enamel The Heatrola is finished in rich, grained mahogany—a vitreous enamel, hard and smooth as glass, and practically everlasting. You can rub and dust it with a cloth, just as you do your furniture. Come see the Heatrola. Let us explain its many unique features in detail. You have always wanted furnace heat. Now you can have it at small expense. And the Heatrola is as easy as a stove to install.
