PURDY PLATFORM IS ANNOUNCED

Democratic Aspirant for Congress Promises More Planks in Future. Below is given in part the platform on which Will E. Purdy says he will stand as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congressman from the first district. He promises to complete the platform with more planks to be brought forward later.

Precedent Set By Decree Of Accident Commission

If a storm topples over a tree which falls upon a cabin where a working man is asleep at night, and the company he is working for is under the workman compensation act, the worker is entitled to compensation. This is the ruling of the state industrial accident commission in another decision that sets a precedent.

Martin Perry Last Man To Get License in 1923

The last Oregon automobile owner to get a license in 1923 was Martin Perry of Hood River who drew license plate No. 167,897 for an Essex touring car. The first person to get a license for 1924 was Senator L. L. Patterson of Hols, manager of the Coolidge campaign for president in Oregon, who drew license No. 1 for a Buick touring car.
