Oregon Electric Officials

Visited Salem Yesterday For the purpose of acquainting themselves with local conditions, group of Oregon Electric officials spent several hours in the city yesterday and were shown around and introduced by J. W. Ritchie,

Salem representative of the com-

Plans to obtain settlers for the Willamette valley are now under way, according to R. H. Crozier, of Portland, assistant general passenger agent. Exploitation of Oregon will follow as a result of the recent convention of railroad men which was held in Portland. The easterners were greatly impressed, he said, with the enthusiasm spreading through the northwest and Oregon will be brought forward and to the attention of the nation as never before. With Mr. Crozier were R. W. Pickard, of Portland, assistant general freight agent; L. F. Knowlton, traveling passenger agent and H. W. Shields, of Spokane, city freight agent for the SP&S railroad.
