

By BETTI KESSI, Phone 106.

Everyone interested in the Salem Riding club is asked to meet this evening at 7:30 in the educational room of the public library, at which time the election of officers for the club will take place and plans for the season's work will be discussed.

For some time much interest has been aroused by the rumors of the possibility of the organization of such a club, but not until recently has it been possible to complete the plans.

Mrs. Seymour Jones of Chemeketa chapter, D. A. R., is being endorsed by chapters throughout the state for the next state regent, the election of which will take place in March, according to a recent report from the local chapter, which met at the home of Mrs. La Moine Clarke Saturday afternoon for the January meeting.

As delegates from the Woman's auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Edward Stewart, Mrs. N. C. Kaffory, Mrs. H. D. Chambers and Mrs. U. G. Shipley will attend the sessions today of the annual diocese meeting of Oregon, which is in session the three days of this week at St. Mark's church in Portland.

Miss Marian Wyman and Miss Mable Savage spent the week-end in Portland and returned to Salem late Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Busick are planning to leave this morning for a three weeks' trip to southern California. Making the trip by motor, they plan to stop in San Francisco a short time to visit with Mrs. Busick's sister, Mrs. C. F. Baker, before continuing their journey to the south.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, last night received a cablegram from his son-in-law, Capt. Earl C. Flegel at Honolulu, announcing the birth of a son to Captain and Mrs. Flegel.

Because of the accident which befell small "Patsy" Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. Livesley have abandoned their plans to spend the next few weeks in Del Monte, California.

Among the prominent society matrons who motored to Albany Friday to be guests of Mrs. P. A. Young for a mah jong and bridge tea were: Harry Hawkins, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. Fred Thielsen, Mrs. William Burghardt, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Fritz Slade and Mrs. William Boot.

Mrs. William Burghardt is spending a few days in Portland, where Sunday she was a guest at the Dent Mowry studio tea, and this afternoon she will be a guest for the tea Mrs. George Gerlinger is giving in honor of Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, the new dean of women at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. W. C. Kantner went to Portland yesterday to meet her daughter, Mrs. O. A. Thomas, and two children, Constance and Arliss, of Seattle. They will return to Salem this morning, where Mrs. Thomas will visit for some time at the Kantner home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Newton are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a baby boy, born Sunday, January 27.

Miss Marian Wyman and Miss Mable Savage spent the week-end in Portland and returned to Salem late Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Busick are planning to leave this morning for a three weeks' trip to southern California. Making the trip by motor, they plan to stop in San Francisco a short time to visit with Mrs. Busick's sister, Mrs. C. F. Baker, before continuing their journey to the south.

Because of the accident which befell small "Patsy" Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. Livesley have abandoned their plans to spend the next few weeks in Del Monte, California.

Among the prominent society matrons who motored to Albany Friday to be guests of Mrs. P. A. Young for a mah jong and bridge tea were: Harry Hawkins, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. Fred Thielsen, Mrs. William Burghardt, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Fritz Slade and Mrs. William Boot.

Mrs. William Burghardt is spending a few days in Portland, where Sunday she was a guest at the Dent Mowry studio tea, and this afternoon she will be a guest for the tea Mrs. George Gerlinger is giving in honor of Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, the new dean of women at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. W. C. Kantner went to Portland yesterday to meet her daughter, Mrs. O. A. Thomas, and

The Police Department of New York has a "Masher Squad" which roams the subways, the street cars, frequent the White Light district, shopping centers and theaters. In fact, all sections where home women may meet the men who may annoy them. All ages and sizes are included, for there is no telling what taste a masher may have, but they are all "pippins." If you don't believe it look at the photograph.

musician, De Pachmann, in piano concert at the Hellig theater Wednesday evening.

Word has recently come from Mr. and Mrs. W. S. East, who are wintering in southern California, that they are planning to sail on February 4 by way of the Panama canal for Havana, Cuba.

Among the prominent society matrons who motored to Albany Friday to be guests of Mrs. P. A. Young for a mah jong and bridge tea were: Harry Hawkins, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. Fred Thielsen, Mrs. William Burghardt, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Fritz Slade and Mrs. William Boot.

Mrs. William Burghardt is spending a few days in Portland, where Sunday she was a guest at the Dent Mowry studio tea, and this afternoon she will be a guest for the tea Mrs. George Gerlinger is giving in honor of Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, the new dean of women at the University of Oregon.

er C. Bellinger and Mrs. Phil Newmyer, both members of the organization.

The members of the Willing Workers and the Loyal Women's classes of the First Christian church and their husbands entertained with a pot luck supper in the church parlors Saturday evening for the honor of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilcox, prominent members of the church, who will leave the latter part of the week for Baton Rouge, Louisiana, where Mr. Wilcox is to be manager of the J. C. Penney store.

Just for sewing, chatting and a cup of tea, Mrs. John Schindler invited a few matrons in for the afternoon Thursday. Among those who spent the hour or two in this informal way were Mrs. William Gorsline, Mrs. Weuk, Mrs. Corydon Blodgett, Mrs. Arthur Utley, Mrs. William McCall, Mrs. Caroline Seiden, Mrs. Helen Olson and Billy Utley, Corydon Blodgett, Irene Cutler and Mildred Weuk.

Celebrating their small son's fourth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ewing were hosts Wednesday evening for a lovely dinner party at their home. During the first courses of the meal, the table was centered with a basket of pussy willows and jasmine, but for the last course a cake with four candles held the center place on the board.

Complimenting Mrs. L. Tomlinson of Tillamook, who is a house guest of Mrs. Charles Park, Mrs. A. R. Ewing entertained for a group of matrons Friday afternoon at her country home in Polk county. The guest of honor is an old-time resident of the city, and the afternoon was pleasantly spent renewing the friendships and reminiscing.

cent announcement from the members of the program committee of the A. A. U. W. The banquet is open to the public, and reservations should be made by Thursday, January 31, by calling Mrs. Alden at 1775J or Mrs. Allen at 1278J.

It is reported that the address will be on the same order of that given by Dr. Scholz before the national convention of the Association of American University women held in Portland last summer, which created much editorial comment throughout the country.

The members of the committee who are arranging for the banquet and program are: Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mrs. G. C. Bellinger, Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. George E. Allen and Mrs. E. C. Richards.

To make plans concerning the Stuart-Walker portmanteau plays to be produced at the Grand theater February 7 and 8, the regular monthly supper and business meeting of the Salem Business and Professional Women will take place in the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow evening instead of the scheduled date of February 6. A very important business session is to be held, according to Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, the president, and all members are urged to attend.

Reports from the various committees appointed to manage the coming productions will be made, and further plans for the arrangements of the productions will be discussed. The following committees were appointed from the chair: Schools and university, Miss Mirpah Blair and Miss Grace Taylor; churches, Miss Helen Hudson and Miss Julia A. Webster; publicity, Mrs. Ella Wilson, Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre; circulation, Miss Clara Healy; clubs, Mrs. J. H. Brewer.

With a five hundred party Mr. and Mrs. Grant Peters entertained the members of the Owl club at their home in Chemawa Thursday evening. The high score for the games went to Mrs. Clarence Townsend and Daniel Birght took the consolation. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bright, Mr. and Mrs. John Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Magee, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pade, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Watkins and Mr. and Mrs. Teters.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Hain Sunday, January 27. Floyd Daniel is the name chosen for the little one.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Dowd are the parents of a son, born Friday, January 25.

Gladys Mae is the name chosen for the baby girl born to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Otjen, 910 Rural avenue, Sunday, January 27.

Miss Alpha Hexboldt was the hostess for the Dorcas class at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Parker, Saturday afternoon. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent attending to business and visiting. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Fisher. The next meeting will be in the form of a Valentine party, to be held at the Hoover home on Fir street. Those who enjoyed the good time Saturday afternoon were: Misses Clarice Ritchie, Lucille Buster, Marita Palmer, Vera McCune, Dorothy Fisher, Gladys Bare, Thelma Flake, Harriett Patterson, Clara Lutz, Viola Hoover, Mrs. Fern Wells Daugherty and the hostess, Miss Alpha Hexboldt.

The schedule for the Smith-Hughes classes in sewing and millinery meeting in McCormack hall has been announced as follows by the leader, Mrs. F. E. Barker: Evening classes—From 7 to 9; Monday, sewing; Tuesday, advanced spring millinery; Friday, beginning millinery. Afternoon classes—From 1:30 to 4:30; Wednesday and Thursday, sewing; Friday, beginning millinery. Morning classes—From 9 to 12; Wednesday, advanced spring millinery. Thursday morning sewing class will begin as soon as the enrollment is large enough.

Saturday, February 2, is the date set for the rummage sale to be held under the auspices of the Salem Women's club. Payments on the new club building are coming due in a short time, and the women are taking this means to earn the necessary amounts. In anticipation of the spring house cleaning, the rummage sale should be welcomed by the Salem housewives as a repository for the many odds and ends that accumulate through the past season. A call is being sent out to the members of the club and friends for donations for the sale. All pieces will be called for during the week if word is left with Mrs. W. E. Kirk, phone 1775J, the chairman of the collections committee. The place of the sale will be announced later.

Richard G. Scholz, president of Reed college, and prominent figure in the educational world, will speak Saturday at 12:30 o'clock at the Marion, according to a re-

For a dinner and evening of five hundred Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Johnson entertained the members of the Tano club Wednesday evening at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Huckstein were special guests of the club. After the dinner hour, places were found at the small tables for the card games, the high score of which was held by Mrs. E. L. Kappahn. The members of the club include: Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Roma C. Hamer, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kappahn, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Patton and Mr. and Mrs. Leon W. Gleason.

The monthly health clinic will be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 1 o'clock. Because of the weather conditions of the first part of the month, the clinic has been postponed to this later date. Registrations should be made before noon tomorrow by calling Mrs. E. E. Fisher at 261.

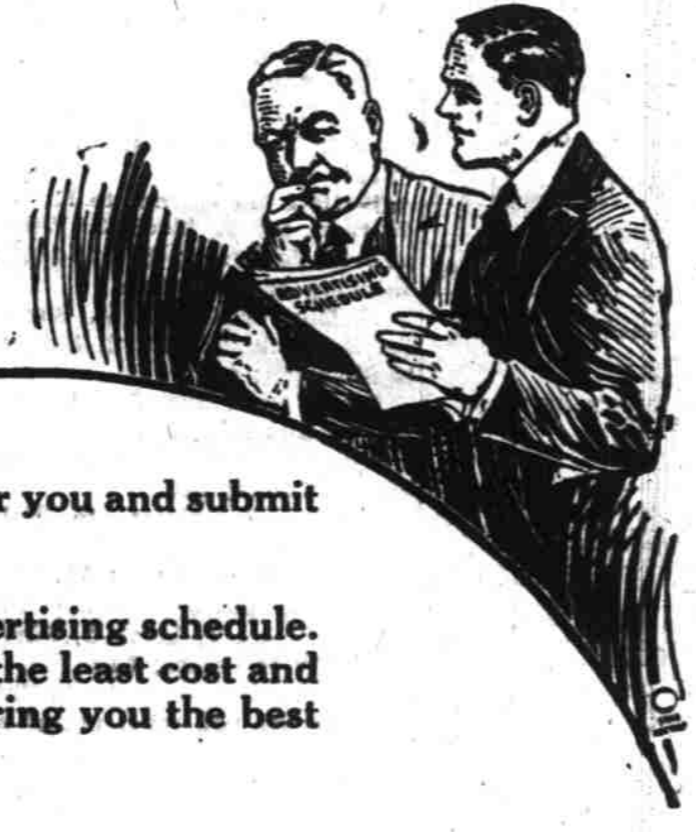

Mrs. Ed Sommers of Oak Grove entertained the members of the Valley View club Thursday afternoon with the usual pastime of visiting and sewing. Again in two weeks the matrons will meet with Mrs. Ellen Southwick as hostess.

The members of the Book and Thimble club spent the afternoon very pleasantly Thursday at the home of Mrs. Charles Spitzhart. Before the social hour, a bit of time was devoted to the study of early Oregon history, a course which earlier in the season the group decided to study. During the refreshment hour, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. C. N. Hathaway. In two weeks the club will meet at the invitation of Mrs. Mary Beaver.

WE PAY CASH FOR YOUR FURNITURE AND TOOLS Capital Hardware & Furniture Co. Best Prices Paid 285 N. Com'l St. Phone 947

Mill Feed At Special Low Prices Mill Run, best grade, $28.00 Per Ton Middlings, Extra Good, $39.00 Per Ton CASH ONLY Only limited amount to offer at above very low prices. Place your order at once. D. A. WHITE & SONS Phone 160, 261 State St. Salem, Oregon.

Let Us Help You With Your Advertising

We will assist you to prepare your copy or prepare it for you and submit it for your approval.

We will figure with you and help you make your advertising schedule. We will show you how you can get the most advertising at the least cost and we will endeavor to help you get the advertising that will bring you the best possible returns.

NO CHARGE

You are under no obligations for this service. It is free to you. We want to serve you and serve you better than ever before.

BEAR IN MIND THESE FACTS

The Statesman reaches a majority of the buyers in Marion and Polk counties as well as in Salem.

The Statesman is the HOME NEWSPAPER; through 73 years of service in this community it has gained the confidence of its many readers. It is ever striving for a bigger and better city.

The Statesman has again and again proven itself the most effective medium for the advertiser who insists on getting RESULTS.

THE DAILY OREGON STATESMAN The Home Paper

C. & C. BARGAIN TUESDAY Presents Unusual Special Prices For This One Day These Prices Prevail Barton's Pure Bulk Lard, lb. 16c 5 lbs. Berry Sugar 45c 1/2 lb. Tree Tea 29c 1 can good Standard Corn 10c 1 can good standard Tomatoes 12c 2 Cream Oil Soap 13c 2 Palm Olive Soap 14c 85c House Broom 69c 4 lbs. re-cleaned California small white Beans 30c 2 lbs. Lima or Butter Beans 25c Dry Goods All of our stock 27-in. Outing Flannel, yard 17c All of our stock of 36-in. Percales, yard 18c All of our stock of Woolen Goods 1/4 Less than regular All of our stock of Ladies' Silk Umbrellas 1/4 Less than regular. $3.50 English Wool Army Blankets 2.75 3-4 Bleached Pepperill Sheeting, yard 59c Children's fine ribbed Hose, black or brown, pair 20c Men's Dress Socks, black, brown, grey, navy, 2 pairs 25c For Real Values The C. & C. STORE 254 N. Commercial Street. Phone 560