

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Wright Pays Fine—Carroll Wright was fined $20 for being drunk when he appeared before Marten Poulsen, police judge, Thursday. Wright was arrested several days ago.

Speeders are Fined—Two speeders were fined $5 each in the police court yesterday. These were Ralph Bliven, route 8 and Eugene Silks, route 6. The two men were arrested Wednesday night by Officer Sproed.

Making Insurance Pay—Silver pipe chimneys instead of the prescribed brick chimneys constitute the greatest fire menace in Salem according to W. F. White and G. H. Kroger, surveyors for the Oregon Insurance Rating Bureau, of Portland, who have been going over the mercantile and manufacturing establishments for the last two weeks. The men are now looking over the state institutions in order to incorporate these in their reports. Salem is characterized as "fair" as a result of their investigations. The last general survey was made in 1917, though frequent checkings are made by the bureau. The surveyors complete their work here in a few days.

Larceny is Charged—Larceny by bailee is charged against Harold Goheen in a complaint filed in the justice court. The warrant was served Thursday upon the mother of the boy.

Pioneers Select Name—The Shelton Pioneer club is the name of the organization formed Wednesday night at the First Christian church. Ten boys were present for the organization and promise to have 22 when the club holds its next regular meeting, Wednesday night, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Roberts was selected as leader; Victor Wolf as chief guide;

Burns Getting Better—Adam Burns, the well known pioneer resident, whose home is now at 2308 Trade street, Salem, is slowly recovering from a spell of sickness.

Legion Buys Own Dishes—Rather than pay rent upon dishes and cups for the various feasts that are staged by Capitol Post No. 9, of the American legion, the executive committee has placed an order for a number of dishes and cups. Table cloths, to cover the long tables, will also be purchased. It was the sentiment of the committee that the post would be in a better position to entertain if they owned their own dishes and that money paid out for rental could be applied toward the purchase price.

Patton President—The Alpha Psi Delta fraternity of Willamette university has elected Fred Patton president for the next semester. Mr. Patton is a senior at the university and also holds the office of president in the Associated Student body. Other officers elected by the fraternity are George Atkinson of Portland, house manager; Thornton Gleiser, of Palouse, Wash., vice president; and Harry Spencer of Portland, secretary.

Oliver Heads Frat—The Sigma Tau fraternity of Willamette university has elected George Oliver of Pomeroy, Wash., as the house president for the coming semester. Mr. Oliver is to succeed James Caughlin who is leaving school to teach in the Woodburn high school beginning with the February term. Before assuming the office of president, Mr. Oliver was member at large of the fraternity board of control and Gordon Kelso was elected to take his place.

Lions Get Fine Speaker—F. Benz, agricultural expert for the Northern Pacific railway, will speak to the Salem Lions club at the regular luncheon today. Mr. Benz is recognized as an authority in his line and it is expected that he will bring a valuable message to Salem. In anticipation of this message, the Lions have invited the Rotary and Kiwanis to come to the luncheon Friday, "Dutch treat," and hear Mr. Benz. Glen Gregg will be the chairman of the day.

Organize Aurora Scouts—For the purpose of organizing a Boy Scout Troop in Aurora, Howard Zinsler, scout executive, will visit that town in the near future. Word was received from Aurora yesterday that the Knights of Pythias lodge has named a committee to organize a troop under the jurisdiction of the lodge. Local Boy Scout headquarters have received two cards to be used in street cars during Boy Scout week February 8 to 14. One card has the likeness of Washington, for patriotism; Franklin for thrift; Lincoln for honesty and Roosevelt for courage. The other card bears the fact of a smiling boy scout, reading Boys' Life, magazine published by national scout headquarters.

Services to be Held—The Hayesville Baptist will hold services Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The sermon will be "Why Think of the Old Folks at Home?" BYPU at 6:45. Evening service at 8 o'clock with the topic, "I know My Redeemer Lives." Arthur C. Rylander is pastor.

Prison Turnkey Puzzled—Why people pick out a rainy day to visit the state prison is a question that has often perplexed Charley Huddleston, turnkey at the penitentiary. Beautiful days bring few visitors, he declares, but on days like the last two, when it has been rainy, there is a continual stream and he is kept busy opening the door and sliding back the gate to the cage. Thursday was a particularly busy day at the prison.

Dance at Schindler Hall—Saturday night. f2*

Rain Stops Workmen—Rain of the last few days has caused the river to rise to such an extent that workmen at the paper mill, who have been employed on construction work close to the bank of the river, have been forced to temporarily abandon their work. The men were taken from their work yesterday by C. Van Patton, contractor.

Day of H Dance—McCormack hall, Friday night.—f.
