Crowd Entertained By Production of "Nothing But the Truth"

Just how difficult it is to tell the truth and what difficult situaions surround veracity was illustrated in the three-act comedy 'Nothing But the Truth," presented at the Grand theatre last night by Chemeketa chapter, Order of DeMolay, assisted by the DeMolay sisterhood. The play was given under the direction of Miss irene Curtis.

For 25 hours Robert Bennett, played by Wayne Harris, told nothing but the truth in his effort to win a $10,000 wager. Though hitetruth telling brought about much trouble and many laughable situations through efforts to trap him into telling a falsehood, he succeeded in winning his bet. Other leads were Willard Brown as Clarence Van Dusen; Max Davidson as E. M. Ralston; Connie Eschwig as Bishop Dorn; Vern Mathis as Dick Donnelly; Lucile Pettyjohn as Mrs. E. M. Ralston; Pauline Knowland as Gwendolyn Ralston; Virginia Dorcas as Ethel Clak; Mand Gwynn as Sable Jackson; Lucy Beck as Mable Jackson and Dorothy Willson as Martha, a maid.

Between the first and second acts and again between the second and final acts the intermission was occupied by two vaudeviile skits, directed by Miss Ethel McGilchrist. The first of these was "The Medicine Show," with a trio or rustic characters, porcayed by Harold Mero as Luter; Crifford Goode as Giz and Benoit McCroskey as Dr. Stevin. The other act was a specialty number by Mero and Brown, featuring Mero and the gang. A 10-piece orchestra furnished the music. Nearly every seat in the Grand theatre was taken and those in

SUSTAINED BUYING

High Price Records for

This Season

CHICAGO, Jan. 31,-Wheat and oats today reached new high price records for the season. Sustained buying on the part of the

In the wheat trade, it was the July were in new ground on the present upturn, the price of May being the highest since December 7, last. Buying of distant delivries was encouraged both as a result of prospects of damage to winter wheat and because of talk of reduced spring wheat acreage. Some of the buying was said to be on foreign account. Bulls contended that the domestic visible supply will decrease sharply, and that receipts at terminals during the remainder of the season will be the lightest seen in many years. Despite mild weather which curtailed demand from feeders the corn market sympathized with
