

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

West Salem Church— You are invited to West Salem church services tomorrow commencing with the Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching in the morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30. Congregational singing will be led by Mrs. Captain Morris at 7 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Dry Plumber Wood— Prompt Delivery. Call 1542. Fred. E. Wells. f2

Archbishop Greeted— Archbishop A. Christl returned to Portland last night from Oakland, Cal., where he has been in the hospital for several weeks. The Shasta train on which he was a passenger was met in Salem last night by Rev. T. V. Keenan, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church. Archbishop Christl expressed himself as happy to be returning to Oregon after more than two months in Honolulu and California, according to Rev. Fr. Keenan. Archbishop Christl went to Honolulu during December and while on the way home was taken sick and removed from aboard the ship in San Francisco to the hospital.

Bicycle Is Found— Officer Edwards brought a stray bicycle to the police station yesterday where it will remain until identified by the owner.

Country Store— Tonight, Bligh Theater. f2

Anniversary to be Observed— Rev. T. V. Keenan, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church will observe the first anniversary of his ordination tomorrow with a solemn high mass to be sung at 10:30. Rev. Fr. Keenan will be celebrant. Rev. J. R.

VALENTINES
Radiate Love and Cheer wherever they go.
See our complete line.
Little Lady Store
12TH AND CENTER
FURNITURE! HARDWARE!
Bought, Sold and Exchanged.
SALEM BARGAIN HOUSE
320 N. Com'l St. Phone 492
We Pay Cash

GREAT REDUCTION
On Italian Prune Trees. Good Prices on Walnuts, Seedling Cherry Trees, 8c to 15c. General Nursery Stock, Sales Yard and Office, 544 Ferry St.

FRUITLAND NURSERY
A. J. Mathis, Prop., 1140M
Office Phone 199. Res. 1140M

You Should Know
That we diagnose, locate and measure, from a drop of blood any disease—active or latent.
We purify the blood and cure, by RADIATIONS OF ELECTRONS (not electricity), 95 per cent of cancers, tuberculosis, goiters, diabetes, female and digestive disorders, etc.

The Era Clinic
1484 State St.
Free Public Lectures Friday, 7:30 P. M.

Wm. Neimeyer
Druggist
In Business For Your Health
175 N. Com'l. Phone 167

411 Oregon Bldg. Telephone 457
The Seavey—Bell Insurance Agency
General Insurance
"Billy" Bell Frank Wagar

HYDRO-ELECTRIC THERAPEUTIC INSTITUTE
(Formerly Dr. Schenks)
249 S. Cottage St.
PHONE 1182

OSTEOPATHY
The Original and Genuine Spinal Adjustment Treatment. Skillful. Painless Adjustment that gets results.
DR. L. C. MARSHALL
Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon
228 Oregon Bldg. Salem

DR. B. H. WHITE
DR. ANNE BREKKE
Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons
The only physicians in Salem using Dr. Abram's method of Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment.
506 U. S. Nat'l Bank Bldg. Salem

Larmer Transfer Co.
469 State St. Phone 930

LADD & BUSH
BANKERS
Established 1868
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Buck, pastor, deacon and Rev. C. Hagerety, sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Hagerety, who is from Columbia university at Portland, will deliver the sermon.

Mazdas Reduced— Mazda lamps reduced from 32c to 30c. Salem Electric Co., F. S. Barton, prop. f3

In Circuit Court— G. H. McElroy, Salem plumber has filed an application for a writ of review in his case against the city of Salem. The application was filed with the circuit court following McElroy's losing in the recorder's court. The case is based on the alleged invalidity of the Salem city ordinance requiring master plumbers to be licensed.

Son Is Announced— Mr. and Mrs. William J. Faulkner, 638 North Front street, report the birth of a son born Tuesday, January 29. He has been given the name of Irving LeRoy. Mr. Faulkner is employed by the Oregon Pulp & Paper company.

Special!
$2 cords at 98c, while they last. They fit any iron or appliance. Hurry! Salem Electric Co., F. S. Barton, prop., Masonic Temple. Phone, 1200. f3

Court Rules on Wills— The two wills made at different times by A. M. Blinston were ruled upon by the probate court and the decision filed yesterday. Judge Downing's order admitted to probate the first will drawn which makes the First National bank administrator. Testimony was introduced to show that A. M. Blinston was not of sound mind when the second will was drawn up. Personal property to the value of $100,000 and real property to the value of $12,500 and with a rental value of $600 annually, is involved.

Hearing Dates Set— The public service commission has set February 18 as the date and Medford as the place for a hearing on application of the Home Telephone & Telegraph company of Southern Oregon for an increase in rates. Pending an investigation the commission recently suspended the company's new increased rate schedule. On February 19 at Medford the commission will conduct a hearing on application of the California-Oregon Power company for an increase in rates of electric energy. The commission has suspended the proposed schedule pending the investigation.

Cooked Food Sale— Ladies of the First Christian church will have a Cooked Food Sale at Stiff's, Saturday. Proceeds to go toward making clothing for the Orphans' Home at Corvallis. f2*

Hearing Requested— Carl Haberlach, representing the Tillamook Dairymen's association, has requested the public service commission for a hearing relative to an extra freight charge

Sea Foods a Specialty
Experienced Caterers
OYSTER LOAF RESTAURANT
Court Street, Near Liberty

Government Loans on Farms
5 1/2 per cent
F. S. WILKINSON
Sec.-Treas.
202 U. S. Bank Bldg.

COAL
upon which we depend to move large quantities of coal. While our prices are the same as those for ordinary coal we strive to make those prices pay for more and bigger coal satisfaction. How well we succeed can be learned by a trial. Why not make the test when it costs no more. Give us a trial.

Larmer Transfer Co.
469 State St. Phone 930

LADD & BUSH
BANKERS
Established 1868
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

on hay made by the railroads when the hay is halted in Portland for inspection while en route from eastern Oregon to the coast, or when it is diverted to another road. A recent order of the commission required a through rate in such cases, but notwithstanding this the shippers are being charged an extra $1.60 a ton.

Harold L. Cook— Public Stenographer, 416 Oregon Building. Phone 412. f3

One Worker Killed— Chauncy Bellis, a timber worker of Medford, is the only fatal case reported to the state industrial commission for the week ending January 31. The total number of accidents reported for the week was 547. Of this number 453 were subject to the benefits of the workmen's compensation law, 62 were from firms and corporations that have not elected to come under the act, and 12 were from public utility corporations not subject to the act.

Reserved Seats— For conference basketball, at Hauser Bros. f2

Inquiry Begun— The public service commission has begun an inquiry into the traffic accident near Linnton Thursday in which four persons were hurt when a stage of the Columbia lines and a truck of the Rasmussen Varnish company came together. H. D. Wagon, F. A. Rasch and W. Dev. Bealey are making the investigation.

Plumbers Name Arbitrators— Five business men have been selected by the master plumbers and the journeymen to settle the wage question between the two organizations. Names of the men are withheld by both sides. The journeymen refused to return to work after the first of the year unless they were granted a wage increase from $7.50 to $8.50 a day. Both sides will state their position to the arbitrators at a hearing Monday night. T. M. Barr and Adolph Nelson are acting for the master plumbers and Fred Leisi and Earl S. Patton for the journeymen.

Salem Riding Academy— Horse Show Stadium, Fairgrounds. Classes every day including Sunday morning, afternoon and evening. Class riding $1.25, private lessons $2.50, for one hour. Instructor, C. M. Wilson. Phone 1191. f3

Realtors Publish Listings— In order that each member of the multiple listing bureau of the Marion-Polk County Realty association may be acquainted with all the property of the bureau, a small publication, "The List," has made its appearance, sponsored by R. A. Harris. The second of the semi-monthly listings appeared yesterday.

Attend Corvallis Meeting— Twenty-six officials, laymen and their wives will motor to Corvallis today to attend the annual conference of the Willamette Presbytery, to be held at the OAC YMCA

DIED
MORGAN—At a local hospital Feb. 1, 1924, John F. Morgan, 85, husband of Ellen Morgan, and father of John Morgan of Crescent City, Cal. Funeral services will be held from the Rigdon mortuary Monday afternoon, Feb. 4, at 1:30 o'clock. Interment IOOF cemetery.

WORLEY—Ridley Byron Worley, 85, died at his home, 487 North High street, Friday, Feb. 1. Survived by the following children: Mrs. W. W. Birtchet and Hugh Worley of Salem; Mrs. Otto Byerly of Polk county, Mrs. Nora Henellin of San Francisco, and Thomas Worley of Corvallis. Funeral services will be held from the Rigdon mortuary Sunday, Feb. 3, at 11 a. m. Interment, Lone Oak cemetery.

KERSTEN—At a local hospital, February 1, Herman Kersten. The body will be forwarded to Portland for interment by Rigdon & Son.

PARSONS—At a local hospital, January 31, Earl Parsons, age 45. The body will be sent to Springfield by Rigdon & Son.

Salem Mortuary
EMBALMERS AND FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 1658
Efficient Work—Moderate Prices

WEBB & CLOUGH
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers

RIGDON & SON'S MORTUARY
Unequaled Service

building between 10:30 o'clock and 5 o'clock. More than 100 people attended the conference last year and it is expected the attendance will be greater this year. Salem is represented on the committee in charge by C. A. Kells, executive secretary of the YMCA. Nearly every town between Cottage Grove and McMinnville will have a delegation at the meeting.

Dance at Schindler Hall— Saturday night. f2*

Indians Play Albany— The Chemawa Indian school basketball team will meet the Albany college five in the Chemawa gym tonight. The Indians have lost only two games this season—to a Portland league team and Salem high school, while their opponents are also going strong.

One Ediphone— Complete, first-class condition, for sale at a bargain. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. f2

Don Allison Wins— Don Allison, son of J. E. Allison, formerly of Salem, recently won first prize for the best essay on thrift written by students of the University high school of Eugene in the contest held among schools of the city during Thrift week. "The Need of Thrift" is the subject of the essay which was deemed by the judges as the best submitted from that school.

Suit To Quiet Title Filed— Henry H. Gralapp and America Gralapp have filed suit against Thomas Finch and others to quiet title to property.

Farm Name Sought— The Royal Purple Fruit Farm is the name desired for his farm by G. F. Kurtz.

Wanted to Secure— A loan of $1500 on Salem residence. Sociolofsky, 341 State. f5

Declarations Filed— Declarations of intentions to become citizens have been filed by Adam Ziebart, Aldrick Anton Mack and John Martin Malcoecie, all of Roumania; Jacob Mack, born in Roumania and naturalized in Canada, also seeks to become a citizen of the United States.

Estate Settled— The report of Phoebe C. Buckbell, administrator for the estate of James Buckbel, has been accepted and the estate closed and the administrator dismissed.

Ill With Pneumonia— Eugene Courtney, Woodburn banker, is ill with pneumonia. f3

Many Boys at Rehearsal— With each week of the Salem Boys chorus new faces are to be seen and one of the largest attendances so far this year gathered at the YMCA last night under the direction of Dr. H. C. Epley. Sides were chosen as a preliminary to an attendance campaign. Bob Boardman was named captain of one side and O. J. Hull the other captain. Dr. Carl Miller and Harry Weiss, of the Kiwanis club, were present to help the boys and promised that next week there would be nearly 100 Kiwanis present to help in the tenor and bass parts.

No Speeders Arrested— For the first time in many days 36 hours passed at the police station without anyone being arrested for speeding. No arrests were made during the day or night shift Thursday nor yesterday, up until 6 o'clock when the day report was closed.

Boardman Happy Father— One of the happiest men in Salem Friday was Robert R. Boardman, physical director at the YMCA, who was celebrating the arrival of Robert R. Boardman, Jr., at the Salem hospital at 3:20

Stop Skidding Around
It's Dangerous
The McClaren Cord
Is the best non-skid tire made. It looks good, doesn't it?

Smith & Watkins
Service. Phone 44

o'clock Friday morning. Both Mrs. Boardman and the baby were reported as doing very well yesterday. According to information at the YMCA, Bob was hardly able to keep his feet on the gymnasium floor, so great was his delight. Mr. and Mrs. Boardman live at Thirteenth and Waller streets.

Will Build Home— M. E. Moore will build a $3500 dwelling at 1240 Market street, according to a building permit issued yesterday by Marten Poulson, city recorder. This is the first permit to be issued this month.

School Inmate Escapes— Police have been notified to be on the watch for William Tracy, 50, who has wandered away from the feeble-minded school. He is described as being five feet tall and wearing an old army overcoat. Tracy has no teeth.

Police Release Boy— Marshall Biggs, 17, giving his home as San Francisco, was released yesterday by the police. He was picked up at the Southern Pacific station Thursday night and held for investigation.

Citizenship Class Meets— The final meeting of the YMCA class in citizenship before the examination on February 6 will be held tonight. Allan Kafoury will have charge of the class until the return of C. A. Kells, who will spend the day in Corvallis at the Presbytery conference. Nearly 30 men are interested in this class, which has proven to be one of the most popular conducted under the auspices at the YMCA.

Two Guards Resign— Two guards who have been employed at the state prison for the last year have resigned, according to an announcement made Friday by Warden A. M. Dalrymple. These were David Sears, assistant chapel guard, and Louis Robinson, who resigned because of his wife's health. Sears' resignation will take effect February 15 while Robinson left Thursday. Russell L. Stanton of Portland, an ex-service man, has been added to the staff of guards. He was in the army three years, serving on the Mexican border with the Fourth field artillery. He also served 18 months overseas.

Business Agent Not Here— Though J. C. Jensen, of Portland, was supposed to assume his duties as business agent for the Salem Trades and Labor council Friday, he did not make his appearance. He is expected in Salem in a few days.

Attack Is Charged— Knocked unconscious and robbed of $47 by two strangers who offered him an automobile ride near Hubbard is the story of J. H. Walters, a transient, told Deputy Sheriff Sam Burkhardt, who was called to Hubbard yesterday. Walters claims to have been working at a construction camp on Snake river, near Central Ferry. He was on his way to California afoot when offered a ride near Hubbard. He accepted and was told he could ride if he had any money. When he replied that he could ride if the price was not too high he was assaulted, he told Deputy Burkhardt. Walters was found wandering around Hubbard late Thursday night, taken in and given a bed. He was unable to give a description of the two strangers.

HER PETS—AN OREGON SCENE

Naturalization Man Coming— Ex-service men whose discharges entitle them to naturalization under terms of a special act will be given an opportunity to meet with the naturalization examiner who will be in Salem Wednesday, February 6, according to word received yesterday by Carl D. Gabrielson, commander of Capital post No. 9. The act of congress under which ex-service men who served during the late war may be naturalized summarily expires March 3, 1924. The act requires that all ex-service applicants shall appear before a representative of the bureau of naturalization and submit their claims for naturalization in advance of the filing of any petition. These men can get in touch with this representative through the county clerk's office.

Gervais Has Big Sing— Gervais staged a community sing last night under the leadership of Edwin Sociolofsky, county YMCA secretary. Justice O. P. Coshow, of the Oregon supreme court, delivered a short address.

Juvenile Cases Considered— After hearing the particulars of the case involving four young people yesterday, County Judge W. H. Downing took the cases under advisement for a few days. One of the girls was committed to the girls' training school temporarily and may be paroled to reliable people.

Gospel Teams Idle— Willamette university students comprising the various gospel teams will not take any trips this week-end. They are staying at home in order that they may devote time to study for the examinations that begin Monday.

Guard's Brother Dies— Robert Blankenship, a guard at the state prison, has been called to Aberdeen, Wash., by the death of

BURNS
Cover with wet baking soda— afterwards apply gently—
VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

FRUIT TREES
Big reduction on all cherry and prune stock—get our prices before buying.
MATHIS NURSERY CO.
Sales Yard Opposite O. E. Bldg., at Cherry City Hotel, Phone 1758.

a brother. Mr. and Mrs. Blankenship recently moved to Salem from Roseburg.

PERSONAL

Mrs. H. W. Morlan of Monmouth was in Salem on business Friday morning.

W. M. Hamilton, manager for the PRL&P company here, spent Friday in Portland.

Henry J. Wells of Tillamook was in the city yesterday.

Edwin Ferber of Ontario was a recent visitor in Salem.

Roger Miller of Dallas was in the city yesterday.

Tom Opendal of Silverton was a Salem visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lewis of Baker were recent callers in the city.

E. Cooke Patton attended a meeting of the Portland Magicians society last night. He is expected to return to Salem this morning.

R. Sommer of Waterloo was in the city yesterday.

Brooks was represented in Salem Friday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Montgomery, H. Ruggy and E. V. Warner.

Jack Stevens and Mary Stevens were in the city yesterday from Lebanon.

Charles L. Fox of Albany was a recent business visitor in the city.

L. F. Lozier of Medford is registered at the Bligh hotel.

Two Legislative Candidates File With Secretary Kozer

One candidate for state senator and another for representative in the legislature filed their declarations of candidacy yesterday in the office of Secretary of State Kozer. T. A. Weinke of Condon announces himself as a Republican candidate for the nomination for state senator for the 18th senatorial district, comprising Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler counties. His slogan is: "Fewer laws; lower automobile license fees; square deal for farmer and stock raiser." Fred C. Hollibaugh of Clatskanie announced himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for representative for the 20th representative district, comprising Columbia county. His slogan is: "Columbia county's interests my interests."

Business men, says an authority are using better English in their letters which leads us to believe that stenographers are becoming more capable.

READ OUR WANT ADS

Auction Sale
TODAY
10 A. M. and 1 P. M.
Capital Bargain House
Corner Front and Center Streets
Bargains for Everybody
New and Used Merchandise Consisting of
Machinery of every description, automobiles, plumbing supplies, including bath tubs, sinks, toilets, hot water tanks, carpenter tools, blacksmith tools, garden tools, furniture, ranges, heaters, cloth baskets, brooms, auto accessories, in fact most anything you may ask for the Capital Bargain House has the largest stock of its kind in Oregon. Terms cash.
H. Steinbock, F. N. Woody, Auctioneer.