WILSON IS FIGHTING DEATH AT CLOSE RANGE

So rapidly had the new complication developed that Dr. Grayson spent last night at the Wilson! home and toward morning her found symptoms that told him an alarming situation was likely. Soon afterward Mr. Wilson suffered a sudden collapse, and at 91 o'clock this morning, the doctor summoned other medical aid and announced that the former president's condition was "very serious."

Dr. H. A. Fowler, a kidney specialist, who also had treated Mr. Wilson previously, made an examination and acquiesced in Dr. Grayson's verdict that little could be done. They tried to make him comfortable, but they decided the situation did not warrant a resort to heroic remedies because they could not be endured by the wasted constitution of the patient. But they remained within call, and in addition two nurses and an orderly were on duty in the sick

Why not send a copy of this big paper to your friends?

Think it over. If you were to receive from som e of your friends a great big edition of that friend's home town paper and it was filled with facts from cover to cover, wouldn't it make an impression on you? It certainly would, and if you were intending to make a change in the location of your home or business, that very edition would probably sell you the idea that there was the place to go. Exactly so: and last year's edition of the Statesman brought several families to the Willamette valley. Some are in business and all are good, clean, prosperous folks, and we're glad they came. We need new people all the while, to keep us old timers from getting into the proverbial "rut" and slumping.
