A BRILLIANT social affair of the past week was the tea of yesterday afternoon when Mrs. George A. White invited over 85 matrons to call at her home between the hours of 3 to 5 o'clock to meet Mrs. Vincent Diaz.

Potted plants and cut flowers made cheerful the living room where the guests were received by the hostess who introduced the guests to the matron of honor. Assisting in the rooms were Mrs. James Dusenberry, Mrs. John Rand, and Mrs. Homer Goulet. Little Dorothy White received the cards at the door.

Cut flowers in the pink colors were used in profusion in the dining room where the tea table was daintily appointed in pink and crystal. A large basket of pink carnations centered the table whereon burned the pink candles in crystal holders. Mrs. T. B. Kay and Mrs. Henry Meyers poured during the afternoon, and a group of the younger mids, Charlotte Zetler, Helen Marcus, Sarah Lansing, Violet Dusenberry and Henrietta White assisted in the dining room.

Captain and Mrs. Diaz moved to Salem late in the fall months where the captain is stationed as national guard instructor of the infantry. They come from Porto Rico originally, and have been in the states only three years. Mrs. Diaz is a beautiful young matron with mu chsocial charm and grace and Salem society is greeting her with genuine pleasure.

Invitations were issued to Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Mrs. Catherine Brown, Mrs. Mattie Beatty, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. R. F. Boise, Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mrs. F. G. Out of town guests for the tea were Mrs. Joseph Adams Hill, Mrs. M. H. Lamond, Mrs. Frederick Drake, Mrs. R. R. Giltner, Mrs. F. C. Norris, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. H. M. White, Mrs. Oscar Strayner, Mrs. Hubert Pearson, Mrs. Edward Metchan, all of Portland; Mrs. Arthur McChesney of Albany, Mrs. Claud Ingalls, Mrs. George W. Moses, Colly Moses of Corvallis, Mrs. E. C. Apperson of McMinnville, and from Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. H. V. Welch, Mrs. C. E. Dentler, Miss Dentler, Mrs. Piogram Whitworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wenderoth will leave Salem Tuesday afternoon for North Bend where they will make their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Wenderoth are leaving many friends in Salem who regret to see them move away. Prior to their departure many affairs of an informal nature have been given in their honor, for the most part small afternoons with sewing and chatting among friends, and evening parties of bridge and five-hundred.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wenderoth entertained last evening with three tables of five-hundred, inviting for the games Mr. and Mrs. Wenderoth, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Vibbert, Mr. and Mrs. George Riches, Mr. and Mrs. Linn Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kahn and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rostein. With two tables of bridge Mrs. Wenderoth entertained for Mrs. Wenderoth Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn were hosts for a five-hundred party on Friday evening at their home on North Winter street, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Wenderoth. Five tables were in play during the evening with Mrs. Fred Ellis winning the ladies' prize, Ralph Glover the gentlemen's prize, and Mrs. Ed Rostein the consolation. Guests for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Vibbert, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Page, Mr. and Mrs. Linn Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glover, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wenderoth, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rostein, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert hauser, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wenderoth, and the hosts.

Members of Chapter AB, PEO Sisterhood are giving a farewell party for Mrs. Wenderoth on the eve of her departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bishop of Portland motored to Salem to spend the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Mr. C. P. Bishop returned just last night from a three week's business trip to San Francisco and Eureka, Cal.

The Tuesday Bible class will hold the first meeting of the year at the Old People's home Tuesday afternoon at the hour of 2:30 with Mrs. Charles A. Park as leader. The Tuesday Bible class needs no introduction to Salem, as it is the oldest organization of its kind in the city, having been organized by Mrs. Park as far back as 1901. The interesting and instructive work that Mrs. Park introduces into the study hour has made it one of strong appeal to the Bible student, and during the past year the class has had as many as 150 members at one time.

All who are interested in the study of the Bible are invited to attend these classes as they meet from time to time as announced.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McEachran of Chicago and their daughter, Mrs. James F. Morrill and baby, are in Salem visiting at the home of another daughter, Mrs. W. A. Mullen, 374 North Summer street. Mr. McEachran is editor of The Valve World.

Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Moore left yesterday for California for a trip that will be a combination of pleasure and business for the state department of insurance. Mr. Moore is state insurance commissioner.

The War Mothers will meet for the regular monthly session Tuesday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce at 2:30. It is desirable that all members of the Salem chapter be present at this time, particularly those who have been working in the chapter since its organization. The matter of choosing the monument to be erected to the memory of the sons and daughters of the county who gave their lives in service during the World war will be the main issue of the meeting. Representatives of several monumental works will be present with their samples, sketches and prices, and it will be the only opportunity for the mothers to make their selection.

Mrs. Ben F. West is expected to arrive in Salem today after a two year absence in the east, visiting in Pittsburgh, Chicago, Milwaukee, Detroit and other places with relatives and friends. During her absence Mrs. West has been in very poor health, and on her way home last November was detained in Denver at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. K. Sslow, by a severe illness, not being able to continue her journey home until this time. Mrs. Sslow is returning to Salem with her mother and will remain here for a short visit. Mr. West will meet Mrs. West in Portland this morning and the three will motor here together.

Mrs. Fred Bozell entertained the matrons of the Bon Amis club Friday afternoon at her home on North Twenty-first street. Needlework and chatting pleasantly passed the hours until later in the afternoon, when the hostess served dainty refreshments. The members of the club who thus enjoyed the afternoon were: Mrs. George Skeels, Mrs. Edgar Lunn, Mrs. E. P. Cutler, Mrs. Fred Collins, Mrs. D. A. Schoemaker, Mrs. Alfred Erickson, Mrs. Nile Hilborn, Mrs. Hilda Stanfield, Mrs. Charles Ferrell and the hostess. In two weeks Mrs. Collins has asked the members of the club to be guests at her home.

The Y. W. C. A. board will meet Tuesday morning at 10:30 at the "Y" for the regular monthly meeting and business session. At this time, the new budget will be passed upon, and Mrs. W. I. Staley will announce the departmental committees for the year. The date for the annual financial campaign has been set from February 13 to 16, with Mrs. Harry Hawkins, the treasurer of the board, and Mrs. J. J. Roberts, chairman of the finance committee, joint chairmen for the campaign. The teams with their captains will be announced the first of the week. In order that the budget may be passed upon, thereby allowing the financial committee to plan more definitely for the campaign, the board meeting has been set one week in advance.

Mrs. E. C. Patton, with Mrs. S. P. Kimball as joint hostess, will entertain the members of the Piety Hill club at her home on Court street Thursday afternoon.

Wednesday afternoon the general aid societies of the Jason Lee church, which meets quarterly at the church, was well represented by ladies of the West Side and the Central circles, and a full session of business was held. The circles decided to set Wednesday for the circle meeting days instead of the usual day, Friday. A pledge to the Centenary was made, and very good yearly reports from both circles were given. Committees were appointed and officers were elected for the general aid for the year. Mrs. F. L. Frazier was chosen for president; Mrs. Bert Waller, vice president; Mrs. Fred Prince, secretary, and Mrs. Richard Erickson, treasurer. After the business session the ladies of Central circle served refreshments. For the next quarterly meeting the ladies of the West Side circle will be hostesses.

The Salem Woman's club opened their rummage sale yesterday in the empty store building at the corner of Chemeketa and Commercial streets with many bargains ready for the thrifty person and bargain hunter. Among the stocks are many real bargains, including many new articles of clothing and small useful things which have never been used. The sale will continue until the supply of articles is exhausted, and will be most acceptable to the sale.

A cooked food sale will be held in conjunction with the rummage on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Paul Althouse

Well Known Tenor Who Appears with the Apollo Club Soon.

That the singer holds a foremost place in the hearts of the people is being shown in the interest displayed here in the next Apollo club concert of February 15, in which Paul Althouse, leading tenor of the Metropolitan opera company, is to be the soloist.

People of this city have demonstrated that they are musically discriminating, and it is a matter of civic pride that more and more is there being shown by others than the strictly musical a desire to hear the best instrumentalists and singers.

One thing has been convincingly shown: a distinguished artist may always be relied upon to present on his or her program selections which will be enjoyed by the general public. In this respect Althouse is said to be always considerate. His compositions are of a high quality, yet he always seems to find songs which are essentially melodious and which touch the hearts of his hearers.

Albert Gilie, secretary of the Apollo club, states that a letter just received from Mr. Althouse reports that he is in splendid voice and that he is looking forward to his appearance here with genuine pleasure.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson will entertain the members of the Merry Go Round club Tuesday evening.

The WCTU will meet Tuesday afternoon in the club rooms at the corner of Commercial and Perry streets for the regular monthly business session.

The baby clinic of Thursday in the Chamber of Commerce, while not as large as expected, was successful in every way, and each clinic shows more and more the need of a county nurse. It is the opinion of those who are in direct touch with the children who are brought in from the districts surrounding Salem. Mal-nutrition seems to be the cause of much suffering among these children, and that leads to the susceptibility of other diseases. Two cases of lung trouble were found among the little ones Thursday and one was so severe that an X-ray was needed.

As the third visiting artist to appear before the members of the Civic Music club is Mme. Renee Chemet, the French musician, who is acclaimed to be one of the greatest violinists of the world, will play in recital at the First Christian church February 15. "Second only to Kreisler is Chemet," is the manner in which Henry R. Finck, the veteran music critic of the New York Evening Post, described her. Mme. Chemet is French by birth, and comes from a little village where she used to walk eight miles back and forth to her music lessons as a child. Since then she has toured Europe extensively and made her first American tour last season. Mme. Chemet has recently been greatly honored by the National opera of France. This organization has built a vault in Paris into which have been deposited the recorded works of the greatest of present day musicians. This "caveau" will remain closed for an entire century, at the end of which the records will be taken forth and played to the people at that time. The ceremony of interning some works of Saint-Saens and records of Caruso has been observed, and the directors honored Mme. Chemet by including some of her violin records in the now hermetically sealed urn.

The Women's Foreign Missionary societies of the Methodist churches of Independence, Dallas, Pratum and the Leslie Jason Lee Memorial and the First Methodist church of Salem will observe the annual branch day of prayer in the forum of the First Methodist church Thursday afternoon, February 7, from the hours of 2:30 to 4 o'clock. A program has been arranged for the occasion, in which women of the different churches will take part. Mrs. C. E. Poweell, recently returned from service in the mission fields of India, will preside at the meeting.

The young ladies' Bible class will meet with Mrs. Charles Park at the City library Monday evening at the usual hour. This is only the second meeting of the year, as the class was postponed during the recent illness of the leader, Mrs. Park. All young ladies interested in the class are cordially invited to attend.

PRINTED TAFFETAS are with us once more. And they are lovelier than ever with their flowered patterns—either in demure little nosegays or scattered buds. You should see them at MILLER'S—with the other lovely new spring silks. The black crepes with foulard pattern, the printed crepe de chine and cantons, and the soft, pebble surface crepons in the intriguing plain colors of spring. The soft flannels in the demanded checks and plaids in browns, grays and blues are awfully popular, too.

The latest hair ornament is a wide, straight comb of amber carved to represent flowers and leaves—distinctly Japanese. It is worn straight across the top of the head.

The pearls and crystals with which many frocks are being trimmed gather themselves neatly into little oblongs or squares so that the frock is checkered with them.

All indications are that the soft blues and greens of spring will be translated into the season's clothes. These tones will be varied by the paler shades of yellow.

Alligator skin wrist bags in pouch form are lighter in shade now than heretofore.

Debutantes are fastening their handkerchiefs to small rings which they wear upon the little finger.

Lapis is in again as a fashionable stone.

THE BOB is still in vogue, with the shingle bob leading the race by several paces. It is adorably boyish, and so practical, too. Think of the freedom it means—no curls, no hairpins, no netting! MRS. IRENE SCOTT has been busy these days shingling heads and the girls all acclaim her as a perfect wonder at it. The Marinello Beauty Shop gives expert service in all lines of beauty culture.

One style which slender women are sponsoring today is that of a thick girdle. This band of fur, very wide, is placed at the hip-line on filmy gowns of chiffon.

Exquisite shades of pale brown, sometimes with a gray tinge but more often with a hint of roses, are seen in the new hosiery. The fanciful names indicate the shades, Wood-thrush, sheepskin, hazel, albedale and the ruddy blush.

Many of the new shoes shown at present have toes decidedly flat and square. With the odd colors, combined with gold and silver brocade, the shoes are mediaeval in appearance.

One of the fascinating new turbans is nothing more nor less than a length of gay Scotch tartan in silk gathered into a big knot over the right ear.

White bids fair for much prominence this spring. The simple white frock of crepe de chine is expected to form the basis of many a country club costume.

Thistle blue has become widely popular. It is a soft shade verging on heliotrope, and becoming to most people.

Three strands of beads are worn about the neck at present, the longest strand being of only medium length.

A huge tassel, frequently a yard and a-half long, is the chief adornment for evening wraps now.

The swanky little tailored hat will be a favorite this spring.
