Star as Football Coach

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Feb. 4.

-Woodrow Wilson, when professor of history and political economy at Wesleyan university from 1888 to 1890, made his mark as a football coach. He helped advise an offense which upset previous Wesleyan methods. He contracted the line to three men and moved the backs into positions from which they made criss cross plays, while their own plunging line held attention of the defensive opposing team. The tactics carried Wesleyan to victory over

University of Pennsylvania and
