Why not send a copy of this big paper to your friends?

Think it over. If you were to receive from some of your friends a great big edition of that friend's home town paper and it was filled with facts from cover to cover, wouldn't it make an impression on you? It certainly would, and if you were intending to make a change in the location of your home or business, that very edition would probably sell you the idea that there was the place to go. Exactly so; and last year's edition of the Statesman brought several families to the Willamette valley. Some are in business and all are good, clean, prosperous folks, and we're glad they came. We need new people all the while, to keep us old timers from getting into the proverbial "rut" and slumping.

Immorality Wave Brings Ten More Complaints

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—Ten more complaints, bringing the total to 26, were issued by the district attorney's office here today in connection with associated strip poker and liquor parties at Pomona, near here, in which high school boys and business men are alleged to have contributed to the delinquency of young girls.

Names of those accused in today's complaints are being withheld owing to the fact that of 16 named in complaints yesterday, eight apparently have fled the city rather than face prosecution, it was announced from the district attorney's office. Seven have been arrested thus far in connection with the associated wave of immorality.

E. DREW CLARK MAKES NO PLEA

Attorney Claims Indictment for Murder Is Surprise of His Client

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Feb. 8.—E. Drew Clark, accused of the murder of George E. Schick, real estate man who disappeared here a year ago, was brought into superior court this afternoon to face a new accusation, this being an indictment of the murder charge brought by the grand jury at a special session this morning. Counsel for Clark refused to enter a plea, declaring that the indictment had come as a complete surprise and that they had no chance to meet the issue. Copy of the grand jury investigation was demanded by the attorneys. Next Wednesday was set as the day for the plea.

Clark heard the accusation without a change of countenance, but plainly scowled as he spoke with his attorneys. The only time that Clark spoke so the spectators could hear him was when the court clerk asked him if his name was Clark. He said, "that's right."

The only witness heard today by the grand jury was John V. Hendrix who has been sentenced to be hanged next April, for murder and who recently told the district attorney that Clark had confessed the murder of Schick. Hendrix was brought here from prison to testify.

Things are different here. You never hear congress asking for a vote of confidence.

SILVERTON WINS DOUBLE HEADER

Boys and Girls Basketball Teams Take Victory From Woodburn Quintets

SILVERTON, Or., Feb. 8.—(Special to The Statesman)—Silverton won both the boys and girls basketball games tonight with Woodburn. The boys played a fast game, winning by a score of 17 to 14. Woodburn outplayed Silverton during the game and at the end of the first half the score was tied, 8 to 8. Woodburn later picked up but during the last quarter Silverton pushed ahead. Joe Kasberger of Mt. Angel refereed the game.

The girls' game ended with a score of 45 to 10 for Silverton. Bertha Arm was the star for the Silverton girls' team.

The Trinity band played during intermissions of the game.

Still, it must be admitted that skill is required to write 100,000 words that mean "sex."

Real Estate Loans are Discussed By Coolidge

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Legislation to permit the war finance corporation to make loans on real estate and on sound but non-liquid securities was discussed with President Coolidge by Representatives Dickinson, Iowa, and Christopherson of South Dakota, Republicans; George C. Call of Sioux City, Iowa, and C. M. Day, publisher of the Sioux Falls, S. D., Argus-Leader.

Such action the president was told of benefit in relieving the economic situation in the Northwest.

ANDERSON QUILTS AFTER SENTENCE

N. Y. Anti-Saloon League Superintendent May Serve at Sing Sing

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—William H. Anderson, who was sentenced today to Sing Sing for falsifying the books of the Anti-Saloon league, has resigned as state superintendent of that organization. It was reported reliably tonight.

Mr. Anderson could not be reached for comment. Former Governor Charles S. Whitman, his chief defense counsel, said he did not know whether Mr. Anderson had resigned. Mr. Whitman said Mr. Anderson left the court room after receiving sentence, to proceed to his home in Yonkers. Telephone calls to the residence were unanswered.

Responsible officials of the league could not be reached for confirmation of the report.

William H. Anderson, must go to Sing Sing prison from one to two years for third degree forgery in falsifying the books of the state Anti-Saloon league of which he is superintendent unless his conviction by a jury on January 29 is reversed on appeal.

In imposing sentence today Supreme Court Justice Tompkins said:

"This crime was deliberately committed" and aggravated "by some of his testimony which was obviously untrue."

The sentence followed an impassioned plea for clemency by former Governor Charles S. Whitman, Anderson's chief counsel, and an appeal by Ferdinand Pecora, assistant district attorney, that the punishment "be such as to satisfy the public that justice has been done and that the law is no respecter of persons."

Anderson was freed in $5,000 bail on a stay of execution.

As he left the court room Anderson was served with papers in a $105,000 libel suit brought against the league, of which he still is superintendent, by Francis Cortwright, who accused the league of having libelled him in literature distributed throughout the district in which he was a candidate for the state assembly in 1922.

First National Bank of Clarkston, Wn., Closed

CLARKSTON, Wash., Feb. 8.—The First National Bank of Clarkston was closed this morning following an examination last night by United States Bank Examiner G. F. Coffin.

The bank was opened on July 2, 1921, following a reorganization after the failure of the Waterman string of banks in eastern Washington and central Idaho territory, this being one of the system. In the reorganization proceedings, the First National bank of Clarkston was required to accept a large amount of securities held by the Waterman banks and the failure today is due to the inability to realize on these securities rather than any mismanagement on the part of the bank administration or financial condition of the Clarkston district. A report by bankers, who made an examination of the assets today states the depositors should sustain no loss as the securities are sufficient to meet every obligation but time will be required to realize on them.

Deposits December 31 last were $223,000; capital and surplus $61,000; bills payable and re-discounts $25,000.

INTERESTING READING

About the most interesting reading this time of the year is the seed catalogue. It contains information that appeals to the peace of mind of every individual, whether that individual is a gardener or a dweller in the top flat. The seed catalogue has universal appeal and that appeal is most effective about this time of year. We commend these seed catalogues as informative books, as interesting as a novel, as instructive as a treatise on horticulture.

RAYMOND TEAM HERE TONIGHT

For First Time in Ten Years Washington Quint Will Appear Here

For the first time in 10 years Salem high school will meet a team from the state adjoining on the north when Raymond, Wash. basketball team will play here tonight. The contest has been called for 7:30 o'clock in order to give the spectators ample time to attend the Willamette university College of Puget Sound game at 8:30 o'clock.

Expenses are heavy for this game. Arthur Hamilton, athletic manager, said yesterday, and every effort is being made to have a large crowd present. Raymond is leading in its district as Salem is in its district, and one of the best games of the season is anticipated. Salem's standing in the interscholastic series will not be affected by the outcome of this game.

Dallas High school will come to Salem next Wednesday night bent upon evening up the series, according to information drifting across the river from Polk county. Salem took the first game 14 to 7 and Dallas claims the victory came on a fluke, for both teams played evenly with the exception of a five minute period when the locals annexed seven points and took the lead.

Two games with West Linn have been arranged to replace the cancelled games with Stayton. West Linn will play here Saturday, Feb. 16, while on Wednesday, Feb. 20, Salem will meet them in return at West Linn.

Eugene After Linfield

EUGENE, Feb. 9.—Eugene is to make a strong bid for Linfield college if that institution is to be moved from McMinnville, it has been announced following a meeting of the advisory board of the First Baptist church of this city. The church has decided unanimously to work toward location of the college here if it is to be moved.

A short time ago announcement was made that the college probably would be moved to a larger city than McMinnville. Eugene Baptists are advancing the arguments that this city is more than three times the size of McMinnville, and that the facilities offered by the University of Oregon would be of great benefit to the students of the smaller institution if it was located here.

Linfield is one of the oldest educational colleges in Oregon. It was established at McMinnville in the early days by the Baptists, and has been known as McMinnville college until two years ago.
