Illinois Society—The Illinois society will meet at the Chamber of Commerce rooms on Tuesday evening, Lincoln's birthday, and enjoy an evening of sociability. Governor Pierce will make the state address but other former suckers will speak and there will be a good musical program. The meeting will convene at 7:30 and former residents of Illinois are cordially invited to be present.

Coming Back Again—John Flannigan, 84 years old, will be returned to the Marion county poor farm from Pendleton, according to the county court. He is a resident of Marion county, and has been at the farm several times before. The Pendleton Red Cross sent a message to the local chapter yesterday, asking that the local court take care of the man provided they paid his transportation to Salem.

Annual Jolly-Up—Following an old custom, the student body of Willamette university held its annual post-exam jolly-up in the society halls on the third floor of Waller hall last night. Among features a mock chapel meeting was held, with Victor Carison acting as dean. In addition to this, there were several musical numbers and refreshments. Miss Adelia White of Portland, who is a member of the Delta Phi sorority, had charge of the affair.

Woman Convict Received—Mrs. Mae Watson arrived at the state prison yesterday to begin a 10-year sentence for conspiring with her husband to lead little girls into a life of shame. She was accompanied by Lee Morelock, deputy United States marshal. James Watson, her husband, was sentenced to serve 10 years and pay a fine of $10,000. Though he was sentenced to serve in McNeill's Island, upon his own request, he was given permission to go to the Leavenworth prison where he will be given an opportunity to learn a trade. As there are no accommodations at McNeill's for women prisoners, his wife was sent here. Her number is 8901. Though she greatly objected to it, all her jewelry, including her wedding ring, was taken from her. This is also done with the male prisoners. Owing to the particulars of the case prison authorities had no expression of pity toward her and suggested under the circumstances that she did not need her ring.

Kiwanis Lunch Postponed—Kiwanians will forego the Tuesday noon luncheon in order to entertain their wives at the annual ladies' night program and observance of Lincoln day next Tuesday night at the Marion hotel. The banquet is slated to begin at 6:15 o'clock. Fred Erickson has charge of the entertainment for the night, but refuses to divulge its nature, limiting his comment to the fact that it will be highly entertaining.

Mash Owner Jailed—Sixty days in the county jail and a fine of $200 were imposed upon Harry Carl when he appeared before P. J. Kuntz, justice of the peace, Saturday. Carl was arrested while brewing a strange mixture, highly odorous of fermented fruits. He claimed to be inventing a gasoline substitute. Carl was charged with being drunk and having intoxicating liquor in his possession.
