

By BETTY KESSI, Phone 106.

COMPLIMENTING Miss Mary Healy a charming bride elect, whose marriage to Joseph Raymond De Jardin will be an event of February 20, Mrs. E. J. Nadeau and her two daughters, May and Josephine entertained with a Valentine shower at their home in Portland Monday afternoon.

About 20 friends of the guest of honor were present and the afternoon was spent in a delightfully informal manner. Valentine cupid and other suggestions carrying out the same motif were effectively used as decorations in the rooms. Later in the afternoon the guests found places at the luncheon table which was centered with a large clump of tulips. Valentine favors were found at the places, and at the bride elect's place was a large heart upon which were placed a bride and bridegroom.

Miss Healy returned home yesterday. She is to be feted much during the next few days with a number of informal affairs.

Celebrating the birthday of her twin sister Mrs. B. T. Hall and herself, Mrs. J. N. Skafie entertained with an informal luncheon party Tuesday. Four covers were laid for Mrs. F. M. Harding, Mrs. Sophia Keene and Mrs. Skafie and Mrs. Hall.

Over 50 members of the Yomarc class of the First Methodist

Paul Althouse
Metropolitan Opera Tenor
and
The Apollo Club
In One Big Concert
Armory, Feb. 20
Seats $1.50. Special to students $1.00 (no tax.) On sale at Will's Music Store—Moore's Music House.

church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman Tuesday evening for the regular monthly social evening. Red carnations with hearts and streamers of the same color decorated the rooms where the hours were pleasantly spent at games of various kinds arranged in the spirit of the season.

In the soft light of many candles placed on the small tables and about the rooms, the supper was served in a most delightfully intimate way.

The hostess was assisted during the evening by Mrs. R. F. Dillen, Mrs. Blaine Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Eric Butler. The class will meet in March at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swafford. The following list of names comprises the class roll:

Mr. and Mrs. Carle Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Balch, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Burton, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Bellinger, Mrs. Mary Boesch, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. R. Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. Grant W. Day, Mrs. Inez Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Hollenberg, Mrs. Belle Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kirkwood, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kloeping.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Minier, rs. Esther Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Siewert, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sims, Mr. and rs. Ray L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Severn, Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Utter, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Van Orsday, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. White, Mr. and Mrs. James West, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Foley, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Forge, Mrs. Charles Rolling, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck, Mrs. Allie Mackenzie, Mrs. Lola C. Bellinger, Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Butler, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bushnell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swafford.

Forty-five women of the Foreign Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. U. G. Boyer for the usual monthly study of the mission work. During the afternoon, Miss Neva Cooley sang very delightfully, "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled," and "My Task." Mrs. J. D. McCormick and Mrs. John L. Brady led the lesson study with the assistance of Mrs. C. E. Powell, Mrs. Charles Lisle, Mrs. M. C. Findley, and Mrs. A. A. Lee. Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick led the devotionals and Mrs. D. W. Fisher was in charge of the mystery box.

The members of the OAC club will hold the regular monthly business and social meeting at the home of Mrs. E. F. Underwood, 1970 Fairmount street, this evening at the usual hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wenderoth arrived in Salem Tuesday evening from British Columbia where they have been motoring for the past two weeks, before going to North Bend to make their home. While in Salem they were the guests of Mrs. J. H. Gantenbain. They are leaving for North Bend this morning where Mr. Wenderoth is to be manager of the new hospital.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Wenderoth, Mr. and Mrs. George Richards entertained with an informal dinner party last evening at their home, inviting as guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weidmer and daughter, Helen, Mr. and Mrs. John Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wenderoth and their son, Henry.

In their rooms at the armory, attractively decorated with hearts and greenery in keeping with the Valentine season, the members of Hal Hibbard auxiliary, Spanish war veterans, were hostesses to Hal Hibbard camp and their families Saturday evening. During the evening the following musical numbers were given: Piano and saxophone duet by A. F. Adams and daughter, Miss Alice; piano solos by Miss Adaline Seymour and Miss Edna Raymond; two poems, "A Toast to the Flag," and "Only a Volunteer," contributed by Mrs. A. F. Adams were read by Mrs. Hewlett. Piano solos, "Bar chetta" and "Dawes Melody," written by Brigadier Gen. Dawes were played by Miss Alice Adams.

A violin and piano duet by E. J. Raymond and daughter Miss Edna and a vocal duet by Chas. Lisle and J. R. Caruthers. Following the program a number of Valentine stunts were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. Mr. Carruthers, of Wetaskiwin, Alta., who is visiting at the Chas. Lisle home, was a guest.

The regular meeting of the auxiliary will be held Friday afternoon, the 15th, at the home of the president, Mrs. Fred Thompson, 1575 South Commercial street. It is desired that all members attend.

A pretty wedding of the past week took place Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Jensen, when in the presence of 30 friends and relatives, Miss Gladys Jensen became the bride of I. Norrie Bacon of Forest Grove. Reverend Millikin of Portland read the service. Pink and white carnations and frens formed an appropriate background for the very simple ceremony.

After a solo by Mrs. Thompson Pohle, the wedding party took their places before the altar as Holliis Vink played the wedding march.

The bride wore a gown of dark canton crepe and carried a bouquet of orchids, lilies of the valley and roses. Attending the bride, Helene Greig carried a bouquet of opheia roses and sweet peas. D. L. Griener of Timber, Oregon acted as best man.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served and an informal reception held at the bride's home. After their return from a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Bacon will make their home in Forest Grove.

Mrs. M. Fereshetian and Mrs. Katherine C. Moore will entertain the Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church in the Unitarian parsonage, 657 Chemeketa street on Friday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. J. M. Devers will read "The Gods of the Mountains," by Lord Dunsany. The Alliance of the church has been working on quilts for the benefit of the Associated Charities. At this meeting the ladies are urged to bring foodstuffs for the benefit of the Associated Charities.

After spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Kinney of Astoria, Mrs. A. N. Moores returned Saturday evening. Mrs. Moores met her in Portland Saturday and the two returned to Salem together.

Word received from Mrs. U. S. Page who with her small son Kimball are spending several months in Los Angeles, is to the effect that Kimball is fast recovering his health. Mr. Page accompanied them to California just before Christmas but returned just after the first of the year.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. Justice John L. Rand went to Portland Tuesday to attend a party given by the Women's Research class in the new Elks building. In the evening they attended the Lincoln banquet at the Portland chamber of commerce.

STAYTON NEWS

STAYTON, Ore., Feb. 13.—Everett D. Crabtree was honor guest Sunday when his mother entertained with a dinner party at her home. The birthday of her youngest son, being the inspiration. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Taylor, Mrs. Ward Halford and children, Everett D. Crabtree, wife and daughter, and the hostess, Mrs. S. G. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mayo and Mrs. V. Lyle McCrosky formed a motor party driving to Portland Tuesday morning. The Mayo's returned while Mrs. McCrosky remained for a week's visit with relatives.

Dr. W. N. Pintler drove to Portland Sunday, being called to the city by the serious illness of a relative.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Thomas of near Albany were recent visitors here at the home of his brother, T. H. Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were residents of Stayton 40 years ago.

Mrs. R. W. Van Nuys and her daughter, Mrs. Stella Howard, two prominent women of North Santiam spent Tuesday afternoon shopping in Stayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Todd and children of Mehama are spending the week here, at the Albert Frank home, while Mr. Todd is recovering from an accident, which left him crippled in one leg.

George Mielki left Monday morning for Portland where he will visit several days before going on to Seattle where he has been given the management of a store.

The parent-teachers' meeting held in the high school auditorium Monday night, proved an entertaining social function as well as a business meeting. After the community sing, led by Edwin Socolofsky of Salem, a short program consisting of solos and a piano solo by two young men from Salem and a male quartette of Stayton business men. The business program of the evening was taken up and discussed pro and con. Several business propositions were brought up, calling out short but able speeches from citizens. Measures pertaining to the benefit of the school, voted upon and adopted and committees appointed. A lunch was served in the banquet room after the meeting.

Lindsey H. Wright, proprietor of the Stayton feed store, and his family, spent a day or two the first of the week visiting in Salem. Felix Wright, one of the Stayton high school students, had charge of the store during Mr. Wright's absence.

Lane Morley, aspiring candidate for the office of county assessor on the republican ticket was in Stayton Tuesday.

Mr. Mosier is having a neat and showy electric sign placed in front of his jewelry store which will prove both sightly and attractive.

Walter Miller of the Bon Ton confectionary store has installed a radio set in the store which is attracting considerable attention.

Frank Lesley returned to Portland Monday after a few days spent with his family. He was accompanied by E. Roy who will visit a few days with his son, A. E. Roy in Portland.

But few Stayton people realized what a splendid male quartette Stayton has among its citizens until it made its appearance at the Parent-Teacher meeting Monday night. The quartette is composed of Dr. H. A. Beachamp, Dr. W. N. Pintler, C. A. Beachamp and A. Broms.

C. P. Nelbert and wife drove to Salem Wednesday where they saw "Bringing Up Father" at the Grand.

Mrs. Oglesbee who died at her home near Stayton Sunday night was known to many people here and was the mother of Mrs. Archie Bates who lives between here and West Stayton. The funeral was in charge of the Weddle mortuary Tuesday.

A philosopher is a ham actor who thanks Heaven he didn't live back there when the dinosaur laid eggs.

AN EXTRAORDINARY HOSIERY EVENT

Beginning this morning and continuing until the stocks last

SILK and SILK LISLE HOSE 98c

This is a seamless hose in silk with silk lisle top. Nearly all colors and all sizes.

CHIFFON HOSE $1.85

FULL FASHION HOSE $1.48

We do not use comparative prices and for that reason we ask that you inspect these hose and judge the values for yourself. They are from broken lines and broken sizes but are in no way defective. We are desirous of cleaning our stocks before the new shipments are put onto our shelves and have selected this means of cleaning up quickly.

This full fashioned silk hose comes in gray, black, havana brown, wood and nude. There are quite a number of pairs at $1.48, but not every size in every color. One would not go amiss by purchasing several pairs for future need out of this collection.

Shipley's

Thoughts --- for You

The world's greatest inventors would be wasting their talents if their creations were such that they interested no one else— and unless some one else were able to enjoy and benefit by them.

Nothing amounts to much that is confined to one person or to a limited group. Stop and think for a minute! Isn't it because thoughts are so easily exchanged and spread broadcast that this country is so fine a place to live in?

The advertisements in The Statesman are thoughts. Many of them are thoughts conceived with you in mind— thoughts for your comfort—your pleasure—your health— your satisfaction. Thoughts that will save you time, money and comfort.

Do you take full advantage of them? Do you read them, every day?

Advertising is the voice of American business. Don't close your ears to it.

OFFICIAL HEADQUARTERS

FOR BOY SCOUT UNIFORMS

COMPLETE OUTFITS

Court Street at Liberty SALEM