

JUST ONE HOUR SUNDAY MORNING
9:45 to 10:45 BLIGH THEATRE
MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

J. J. Evans, Minister First Christian Church, Teacher

What? A class strictly for men. Systematic Bible instruction, a practical, helpful religious service. Popular songs, patriotic, religious hymns. A program of joy.

Why? BECAUSE every man is religious. BECAUSE many neglect to develop this element of their nature. BECAUSE Christ is the greatest moral and spiritual stimulus the world has ever known. BECAUSE the Bible, the greatest book in the world, should be the text book of life. BECAUSE we are brothers and must meet our common tasks together.

Where? At the Bligh theater! Yes, a Bible class in a theater! Well, why not? Truth is just as true in one place as in another. The message and principles of Jesus are helpful and powerful anywhere.

Who? Yes, you! All men. Every man. No questions asked as to race or creed, belief or doubt, churchman or non-churchman—every man has a right to be there and enjoy the benefits.

Program "The Christianity of Christ" will be the basis for the lessons from Sunday to Sunday. The Bible will be the text book. J. J. Evans, the teacher, will outline the aims and purposes of the class and give a brief view of the proposed lessons.

A quartet of brass instruments—great singing.

Come Sunday Morning 9:45 to 10:45

By BETTI KESSL, Phone 106.

To surprise Mary Heenan on her birthday anniversary, a group of friends called informally at the Heenan home Wednesday evening. Games with radio and dancing offered delightful diversion for the affair.

Guests for the party were Leah Suing, Louise Healy, Kathryn Savage, Theresa Albrich, Elvira Gould, Honora Rudy, Virginia McEntee, Pauline Patterson, Anna Karst, Margaret and Mary Heenan Clarke Lee, Gerald Suing, Coleman Rogers, Henry Barr, Frank Patterson, Clark Jackson, Joseph Gilsdorf, Catter Gould, Charles Coffee, Kenneth Coffee and Dennis Heenan.

The members of the PSQ club were invited to the home of Mrs. Charles Prince Wednesday for a 1 o'clock luncheon. The Valentine scheme was carried out in the decorations and the luncheon table was centered with a pie on which the initials of the club were outlined with small red hearts. The afternoon was spent with needlework and quilting. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Miss Carrie Farrington.

The members of the Loyal Filthy class of the Court Street Christian church enjoyed a Leap Year party at the parsonage Wednesday evening. Games and special stunts in keeping with the occasion made the evening a happy one. Later the ladies escorted the men to a noodle supper.

Over seventy members of the Loyal Men and Women's Bible classes of the Court Street Christian church spent a delightful evening Tuesday at the home of Reverend and Mrs. R. L. Putnam. Singing and chatting passed the hours and a special program was offered by Miss Lois Plummer. Miss Mary McCrone, Mrs. Harry Martin, Mrs. F. N. Woody and Mr. MacKenzie. Before the guests departed the hosts served light refreshments.

The Teddy Leavitt Evangelists are giving a benefit program and entertainment at the Court Street Christian church this evening. The proceeds from the free-will offering will go toward the evangelistic work. An invitation is extended to everyone.

The Kaiser ladies aid met at the home of Mrs. Willard Savage Thursday afternoon for the regular monthly business and social time.

A large number of members were present and the afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework and chatting, until later when the hostess served delicious refreshments. Mrs. Ben Claggett will be hostess for the next meeting of March 13.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church have called a meeting for tomorrow morning, immediately after the regular Sunday morning service. All members are asked to be present.

Miss Theresa D'Arcy was an invited guest as well as a member of the reception committee at the banquet of Native Sons and Daughters of the Pioneers, held Thursday evening in the Portland chamber of commerce. During the evening, Judge P. H. D'Arcy, former president of the organization, responded to the toast, "Salem the capital of Oregon, its progress and development."

For the pleasure of her house guest, Mrs. J. M. Lamb of Eugene, Mrs. R. C. Barfield invited in a number of the men and women of the plant department of the telephone company for a five table game of five hundred Wednesday evening. Other additional guests were Mrs. W. B. Chance, Miss Elsa Egans and Mr. and Mrs. David Dewey. Miss Egans won the prize for cards. The latter part of the evening was given over to games and other diversion, with refreshments served at a late hour. Mrs. Lamb departed yesterday for her home in Eugene, having visited in Salem since Tuesday.

For the members of their dinner bridge club, Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Fisher entertained Thursday evening, with a covered dish dinner and an evening of cards. Decoration and favors in the spirit of Valentine formed a lovely scheme for the dinner table and the living room where later the care tables were employed. Mrs. Elmer Daue won the prize for the evening. Members of the club include Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daue, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Isaac, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Knowland, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moody and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Knowland will be hosts for the next meeting of the group.

After a duration of over two weeks of business, the Woman's club will close the doors of the rummage sale today. All the left over goods will be taken to the basement of the club house and kept there until the next regular club meeting when the women will be given a chance to vote on the advisability of holding a rummage sale in the basement each Saturday, or if that is not advisable, the goods will be held until next fall for the next large sale.

As this is the closing out day, many unusual bargains are being offered, and the women are making ready for a busy day.

The Woman's Relief corps and the Grand Army of the Republic are giving an unusually splendid patriotic program this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in McCormack hall, honoring the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Many housewives of the city will find many dishes of savory cooked foods, as well as pies and cakes offered at the War Mother's cooked food sale which is being held today in the H. L. Stiff furniture store. The proceeds of the Experience Is Priceless

There is no school which is so priceless or a better teacher as that of experience. Usually one has to be taught by experience the different codes of success or failure. But taking advantage of the experience of others makes the road very much easier for all of us.

That is what the officers of the United States National are doing. They are continually making a study of the experience of others and adapting it to the advice they give their patrons. Let them solve your business and other problems by offering you good sound advice gleaned from many valuable experiences.
