Small, adjutant, Capital Post No. 9, of the American legion. A letter recently received by Adjutant Small from the senator's secretary was to the effect that he had promised to vote for the bill over the president's veto providing the present bill was not changed too much by amendments, though Senator Stanfield failed definitely to commit himself. Hundreds of letters from legion posts and from individual legionairres and others interested in the adjusted compensation have been mailed to the Oregon delegation.
