Complimenting General and Mrs. George A. White at a 32-cover dinner in Corvallis, Col. and Mrs. George Moser were hosts. The occasion was the 19th wedding anniversary of the honor guests. Decorations were in the effective patriotic motif. Four tables were spread, the guests including among their number, President and Mrs. W. J. Kerr. Attendance of the annual military ball by the dinner party guests gave the evening a gala finish.

An assembly of 450 children heard Governor Walter M. Pierce on Friday morning at 9 o'clock at Garfield school. Governor Pierce spoke in a valuable way to the children concerning "George Washington and Our Flag."

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pollock have as their guests over the week-end their daughter, Miss Helen Pollock of the University of Oregon, and her college friend, Miss Annette Heckman of Medford.

The members of the Alpha Chi Omega alumni association are meeting this evening with Mrs. Carl T. Pope on Belmont street.

The Salem Heights Community club is planning the presentation of a four-act comedy drama on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. The play is entitled "Kranberry Corners."

The members of the WU men's glee club were guests of the Elks at their last meeting. The club gave the following numbers: "Jolly Students," (Mendenhall), "Heaven, Heaven," (Burlingame), "The Old Road," (Andrews), and "Who Swallowed Jonah." Lloyd Waltz sang two Scotch numbers, "I Don't Want to Get up in the Morning," and "I love a Lassie."

There is much of interest in connection with the MacDowell club. The club was organized in appreciation of Edward MacDowell who died 14 years ago after an exceedingly interesting musical career. He began composing while very young, giving to the musical world sonatas, concertos, and songs. He is remembered, too, for the colony he founded, a retreat for artists, sculptors, poets and musicians. This was one of his two great life aims—the other was to seek the establishment of an American national school of music. The MacDowell association is incorporated in the name of the aims that the man who composed the well-known piano number, "The Shadow Song" himself lived for.

The Salem MacDowell club is presenting a wide variety of pleasing numbers for an open program Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Methodist church. While there is no admission, a silver offering will be taken. Professor T. S. Roberts will be at the organ. Miss Dorothy Pearce at the piano, and the club quartette will sing. Mrs. Ada Miller Harris, soprano, will appear, and Miss Eva Clare Love will give violin selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vassall enjoyed as their guests on Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ames who are motoring from Seattle to California.

Franklin E. Launer and Professor E. W. Hobson were joint hosts in recital last night at Professor Launer's studio. Invitations for the occasion were extended to the members of the Willamette University faculty and to the board of trustees. A beautiful-toned Chickering grand piano from the Johnson piano house was in use throughout the evening. In his vocal numbers, Professor Hobson was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Jean Hobson. He sang as a duet, with Miss Kathleen La Raut, Mendelssohn's "Autumn Song." Professor Launer's piano numbers were chosen, for the main part, from Chopin and Liszt.

Miss Joy Turner entertained a group of her younger piano and violin pupils last Saturday night at her home. After an interesting program had been given, musical games were played and later refreshments were served, which were in keeping with Washington's birthday.

Spring flowers were used in decorating the rooms. Miss Turner will entertain her older students within a few days.

The following pupils were present: Cleo Seeley, Donald Siegmund, Billy Pero, Marjorie Wunder, LaVerne Hornyer, Rhea Mae Huber, Robert Needham, Margaret Eddy, Ralph Savage, Verna Wood, Charles Murphy, Ila Huber, Geo. Stoner, Oral Violette, Louise Horton, Kenneth Rickman, Joan Evans, Eldon Riddle, Helen Rickman, Percy Riddle, Bernice Peyrie, Nan Taylor, Maybelle Wunder, Wilma Taylor, Verle White, Lorene Burbank, and Dorothy Covery.

A concert program will be the tomorrow night event at the Central Congregational church on South 19th street. A series of splendid numbers have been prepared under the able direction of Alvin Meade. A chorus of 25 voices will sing. The program, taking place of the regular church service, will start at 7:30. The following are the choral selections for the evening: Processional, Invocation, "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes," Chorus, "O Lord Remember Me," solo, Mrs. Guy Newgent, "Oh Word of God Incarnate," Chorus, "A Little While," duet, Wolfe Mrs. Harry Zelsdorf and Mrs. Edgar Daugherty, "Love Never Falteth," Male Chorus, "The Lord is King," Chorus, Vocal Duet, Anne and Mura Gleason, "Blessed Are the Poor in Spirit," Ronald Craven, "A Song of Trust," Chorus, Violin Selection, Leonard Chadwick, "Now the Day is Over," Chorus.

Five hundred was the diversion when a group of friends came together Wednesday evening as the guests of Mrs. Daisy McIntyre. The house was particularly festive with spring flowers. Four tables were in play throughout the evening. High score was won by Mr. C. W. Elgin, low score going to Mrs. C. W. Elgin. Following award of prizes, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. F. M. Haberman served a light lunch. Music and conversation continued during the evening, which was a pleasant one for Mr. and Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Haberman, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. F. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. King, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Gray, Mr. L. S. McIntyre, Miss Ruth Wilke, Miss Anna McIntyre and the hostess.

HIRAM W. JOHNSON FOR THE McNARY-HAUGEN FARM BILL

SIoux Falls, S. D., Feb. 19.—In the opening speech of his South Dakota tour here tonight, Senator Hiram W. Johnson of

HIRAM W. JOHNSON Republican Presidential Candidate

California paid particular attention to the plight of the farmers and declared that the government should come to their assistance.

The best way in which the government could give this assistance, the senator told his audience, is through the McNary-Haugen bill. "When we recall," he said, "that primarily the government itself is responsible, when we remember the frenzied appeals to farmers to plant more wheat and their generous and patriotic response; when the consequences of deflation are borne in mind, not only would we individually render the assistance required, but we would have the government itself seek to remedy a part of its wrong."

At the next meeting of the club, which is an event of every third Thursday, Mrs. T. S. Roberts and Mrs. F. Hobson will be joint hostesses.

Evangelist Attracts Many To Court Street Christian

The Evangelist services at the Court Street Christian church are attracting larger numbers each night. Evangelist Teddy Leavitt is a man of the Book. For several evenings this week he has held his audiences gripped with the truth as he explained a large chart and unfolded the Word of God to the people. He is a rapid speaker and bold in his attack of sin and the teachings of men that obscure the truth of the gospel of Christ. At the same time he shows the love of God for the sinner. He does not twist scripture to suit his own fancy but rather seeks for the true way of salvation. The Bible is made the basis of authority. Persons in the audience are asked to read the passages and ask any question they desire.

The evangelist quoted 150 references from the Old Testament last night in his message on "Christ in Prophecy." As he did so the audience was asked to take every reference and look them up for themselves when they got home. In this manner the spirit of conviction is felt throughout the audience each night.

The meetings will continue each night for another week. On Saturday and Sunday his singer, Claude Neely, a student of Eugene Bible university, assists him. During the week the pastor, R. L. Putnam leads in songs.

Religion and Our Country Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of patriotism who should labor to subvert these great pillars of human happiness. And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience forbids us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle. —GEORGE WASHINGTON.
