Page 106

MRS. R. J. HENDRICKS was hostess on Saturday at one o'clock at a four-course luncheon with covers laid for eight. The colorful place cards were in the Japanese motif. The group, which included three young matrons with their mothers and two additional guests, made the affair very intimate one. The afternoon was spent in delightful conversation. Those included in the luncheon were Mrs. G. L. Lovell, Mrs. Charles Becke of Aurora, Mrs. Edgar Price of Aumsville, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. J. J. Hendricks and Mrs. F. C. Jopson.

The auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans will meet this evening at the armory at 8 o'clock for a business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster (Ruth Rosebush) of Portland, and Arthur Rosebush of Eugene, where he is a senior at the University of Oregon, spent the week-end in Salem.

Miss Ellen Robertson of Kerasdale, Canada, former Salem girl won an interesting first prize on Tuesday of last week when she played Levitski's Waltz in A Major in competition, in the presence of the famous pianist in connection with whose waltz the prize was offered.

Mrs. E. C. Richards, when the members of Chapter AB of the PEO sisterhood met Saturday night with Mrs. W. D. Smith and Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, was formerly initiated into the secret organization. The initiation ceremony was followed by a brief social hour.

Miss Florence Amy Bastain and L. C. Moe were quietly married at the Presbyterian manse, February 9, Rev. Ward Willis Long officiating. Miss Bastain, who was formerly of Somerset, England, and more recently of Victoria, B. C., has been employed as a nurse at the state hospital for the past year. Mr. Moe, as a newspaper man, had journalistic connections with the Daily Commercial, of Three Rivers, Michigan. Guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McElvain, and Mrs. Marguerite Coteau, relatives of the bride. Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the Gray Belle. Mr. and Mrs. Moe spent a short honeymoon in Portland, making a trip up the Columbia highway.

Thursday is the day set for the East Division Ladies' aid society silver tea. The affair will take place at the new home of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Clements, 260 North 24th street, with an invitation extended to all the ladies of the Presbyterian congregation to attend.

The ED club is meeting this evening with Mrs. J. G. Mason. The club meets once a week.

A recent bridge hostess was Mrs. Earl Duce who invited guests to make up two tables for the afternoon. Those playing were Mrs. C. C. Page, Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mrs. Earl Paulsen, Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. M. C. Pettys, Mrs. Kugel and Mrs. Oral Lemmon.

The "Four Poets" program at the Monday luncheon of the chamber of commerce included twelve lyrics, two by Gertrude Robinson Ross, five by Clara Virginia Barton, two by Audred Bunch, and three by Odell Savage Ohling, as follows: Mrs. Ross, "I Was Made of This and This" and "I Washed My Casement Windows"; Mrs. Barton, "West Wind," "Scotch Broom," "Tradition," and "Aber-hoe Lad," and "Oregon," which was read by Mrs. Page; Audred Bunch "John Would Have Me Keep a Six birthdays of the community occurring within the same month inspired Mrs. Al. Steiner and Mrs. Lou Grote to issue cordial invitations to the group to gather at honor guests at a birthday party the latter part of the week. The Steiner home on the Wallace road was the scene of the birthday festivities, the diversion of the early evening being five hundred, of the latter hours, a birthday spread. Covers were laid for 17 at the flower and candle decorated table. The honor guests of the occasion were Mrs. Ferd Allen, Mrs. C. C. Page, M. C. Pettys, Lou Grote, Al. Steiner, and Margaret Steiner. During the card game, high-scores with prizes went to George Dunsford and Mrs. C. C. Page. The guests for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Pettys, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Page, Mr. and Mrs. George Dunsford, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Poorman, Mrs. Hester Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Grote, and Mr. and Mrs. Al. Steiner. A small, attractive table was especially arranged for Margaret Steiner, Virginia Page, Alta Sea, and David Steiner.

Mrs. W. B. Potter of Portland was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Luper, during the week.

The DAR Colonial tea, planned for February 23, found postponement when the death of Russell Catlin was announced. The affair will take place next Saturday at the Woman's club house.

Dr. H. B. Scordell and family with the Dr. O. L. Scott family, motored to Oregon City Saturday evening. Sunday the trip was continued into Portland in the interest of professional affairs.

By this time next week, Salem music lovers will have heard with extreme pleasure, through the efforts of Mrs. W. E. Anderson, a concert from the Portland Chamber of Music trio. The artists to play include Susie Jensen, pianist, violinist, Fernand Konrad, cellist, and James Hutchinson, pianist, who have had 10 years' experience playing together. The concert will be at the Grand theater Monday evening.

The Willamette Chapter of Westminster guild of the First Presbyterian church will meet this evening at the home of Miss Mir-pah Blair, 375 Marion street. Miss Healy will be assistant hostess with Miss Blair.

Among students who spent the week-end in Salem are Miss Margaret Griffith, Miss Ruth Griffith, and Miss Gretchen Brown. Miss Elizabeth McDonald of Portland was during the period the house-guest of Miss Margaret Griffith.

The five-part program of the MacDowell club was well received by the moderate audience that gathered in the First Methodist church auditorium at 3 o'clock Sunday. The 10 numbers were well chosen. The spirit of the crowd was a matter of quiet appreciation rather than of enthusiastic demonstration. Professor T. S. Roberts struck the musical chord of the afternoon with the Grand march, Aida, from Verdi.

The second group included two soprano numbers by Ada Miller Harris. The first was Kreisler's inimitable "Cradle Song"; the second, Del Riego's "Homing," both gratifying numbers in tone and in background. A three-instrument accompaniment violin was played by Professor Roberts, Miss Dorothy Pearce, and Miss Iva Clare Love. Professor Roberts' organ-group presented three composers: Faulkes, MacDowell, and Beethoven. The Faulkes composition, the Scherzo in D Minor showed a finish. "A Sea Song" from MacDowell, depicted sea-tone. A plaintive loveliness characterized Andante, or the Fifth Symphony from Beethoven. The three-instrument accompaniment to the soprano solos became an instrumental trio in the fourth part of the program. Schmeidler's Concert-Romanz, and the Adagio-Cantabile from Beethoven-Kugler were rendered. "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" and "Morning" both well-loved vocal numbers, the one from Burleigh, the other from Speaks, the final sections, were sung by the MacDowell quartet, composed of Mrs. Ada Miller Harris, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans, and Mrs. W. W. Long. Mrs. Long taking the solo part in "Morning." The MacDowell club, formerly known as the Woman's Club chorus, has an active membership of semi-professional musicians. Associate memberships are available. The club is planning various other musical opportunities for local lovers of the art.

The members of the Bellets sewing club met on Thursday afternoon at the guests of Mrs. E. A. Hendricks North Church street. The house was suggestive of spring with violets, daffodils, and pussy willows showing. The afternoon was spent in a delightfully social manner. Fourteen members of the club were present. In serving, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. A. M. Clough, Mrs. R. C. Kane, and Mrs. Harley Pugh, a luncheon being served in the dining room at 5 o'clock.

Word comes from Professor Constantine M. Panunzio that he is at present in Washington, D. C., where he is "enjoying the senate" and consistently engaged in writing. He is finishing his book on the subject of immigration, holding the necessary conferences in the capitol. Mrs. Panunzio, unable to give up her contract for a few months, is teaching in Santa Anna. Professor Panunzio expects her to join him in Washington sometime in the near future. Professor Panunzio headed the social science department in Willamette university for two years, and Mrs. Panunzio will be remembered as a teacher of botany on the Salem high school faculty.

Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, taking with them as their guests, Mrs. G. H. Alden, Mrs. Alden's mother, Mrs. Page, and Miss Minna L. Harding, motored to Albany on Sunday.

Mrs. John H. Albert has recently made an extensive gift of books to the Willamette University library, the gift including 125 volumes of literature, history, reports of the American Bankers' association, and legal works. Among the group are some finely bound volumes. A limited number are rather old and rare. The gift is the bulk of the personal library that belonged to Mrs. Albert's late husband.

Numerous other gifts have been made within the last few days, one of note being from Congressman Hawley. The gift includes chiefly government documents. However, the prize of the group is a very large book of Porto Rico, finely illustrated and highly descriptive. It is Fernandez's notable work.

As a gift from B. C. Forbes, editor of Forbes' Magazine, the library is also in possession of "Men Who Are Making the West." It is a well illustrated book which talks to the reader of some real western business men. "Science Remaking the World" is still another gift very appreciatively received.

Mr. Eli Mills of Jefferson was very pleasantly surprised on February 22, the occasion of his 76th birthday, when a number of his friends and relatives gathered at his home at the noon hour for chicken dinner. The afternoon was spent in reading letters and messages from forty friends and relatives unable to be present.

The P. F. D. club was entertained on Wednesday as the guests of Mrs. Frank Prince at her new home 650 Electric. The afternoon was spent in crocheting. Dinner was served to the club members, Harry Ross assisting the hostess.

Mrs. A. N. Moores entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Ellis Crane Saturday afternoon, inviting in fourteen former friends of Mrs. Crane for conversation and an afternoon luncheon. Mrs. Crane formerly lived in Salem.

The members of the K. C. club of Salem high school entertained for Caroline Lambrith, Florence Powers, Mildred Pugh, Elva Franklin, Charlotte Martin, and Loretta Fisher on Saturday afternoon at a line party and tea at the Gray Belle. The tea table was decorated with daffodils. Place-cards in the club colors, lavender and gold, were used.

A surprise birthday party in honor of Mrs. Andrew Ettner occurred at the Ettner's country home near Jefferson, on Saturday night. Games and music were the diversions of the evening. A birthday luncheon was served to the following guests: Alpha Herboldt, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fisher, Dorothy and Viola Fisher, Mildred Donaldson, Agnes McCann, Crystal Yates, Oscar Poulson, Wilton Simmerall, Mr. and Mrs. Will Fone, Marie and John B-ne, Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher, Lawrence and Leona Fisher of Salem, Ted Foster of Seattle, and Arthur and Walter Herboldt, Billie Rhoten, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bennett, Wallace Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ettner and William Ettner of Jefferson.

MRS. C. D. MINTON PASSES IN SOUTH
She Died at a Los Angeles Hospital on Sunday After a Major Operation

Word was received in Salem yesterday, by phone and wire, of the death early Sunday morning of Mrs. C. D. Minton in a Los Angeles hospital, where she recently underwent a major operation. Mr. and Mrs. Minton left Portland about the first of February, for a tour of the United States, and had visited the east coast and the south before arriving at Los Angeles, where the illness of Mrs. Minton caused her to be removed to a hospital.

Mr. Minton is on the way home with the body, and will pass through Salem this evening. The funeral will be in Portland on Thursday. Besides her husband, Mrs. Minton is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ernst Gilham of Portland.

Mr. Minton was for a long time connected with the Statesman publications. The family lived in Salem for many years. They moved to Portland a number of years ago, where Mr. Minton was for a time publisher of a farm paper, and has been engaged in the canner business for some time, together with many other activities, in which he has been very successful.

Their home in Portland is at 580 East Oak street. The Mintons were members of and active workers in the First Methodist church of Portland. Mrs. Minton was born in Indiana, and she was a teacher when she was a young woman. She was a member of the Artisans lodge of Salem, and was prominently connected with club work in Portland.

Educated Horse Arrives For Lions Minstrel Show

Stiff from his journey in a box-car, "Spot," the educated horse that will appear as a feature of the second annual Lions' club minstrel show tonight, was unloaded from his special boxcar stall and given a good "daily dozen" last night. Spot is stopping in Salem while on his way to southern California and was loaned to the minstrel show through the courtesy of a friend of F. Ray Felker. New songs and new jokes will be offered to the public by the minstrels at the Grand theater. The men have been working hard for several months in order to surpass the reputation they won as a result of the first annual minstrel held last year. That this endeavor has been rewarded is the opinion of several who saw the show last year and who were privileged to see one of the recent rehearsals by the entire cast. Advance sales indicate capacity houses both nights of the show. The first will be offered at 8:30 o'clock tonight and the final performance at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday night. The Portland Lions' club has invited the cast to stage the show in Portland in the near future. Proceeds from the show will be given to furthering the Boy Scout movement, one of the movements being sponsored by the organization.

Janz Funeral Will Be In Silverton Wednesday

SILVERTON, Or., Feb. 25.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Mrs. Albert Janz, who died at Salem Sunday night, was brought to Silverton for burial. Funeral services will be held from the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 and interment will be in the Miller cemetery. Mrs. Janz leaves besides her husband four children, Mrs. Earl Adams, Mrs. E. Savage, Miss Creta Janz and Saul Janz.

Mrs. Janz, who was 49 years of age, was born near Mt. Angel and has always made her home in Marion county, living most of the time on Howell prairie. She was a sister of the late Grover Simmons, a prominent Silverton pioneer.

GOVERNOR IS HEAD OF GIFT CAMPAIGN

Directors for Five Million Dollar Development Drive Appointed

EUGENE, Or., Feb. 25.—A group of leaders in the affairs of Oregon including Judge Charles H. Carey of Portland, Governor Walter M. Pierce, Colonel William S. Gilbert of Astoria, and 26 alumni and former students have accepted appointment as directors of the University of Oregon $5,000,000 building and development campaign. The active phase of the campaign will begin at once, alumni undertaking to provide $1,000,000 to construct a library adequate for the university's needs, a men's gymnasium and the projected memorial court; the

Keep Pace With Evolution
DARWIN declared that the human race was merely an evolution of the monkey tribe. Some people agree with him. Others do not. But there is no denying that even within the memory of most of us, there has been considerable of an evolution in the human mode of living. And today, this evolution is buzzing along faster than ever. There has never been a time when conditions changed so rapidly—when life bettered itself so consistently. New comforts and conveniences are coming in all the time. And the rapidity with which they are invented and put before us vitally affects us all. To take advantage of these things, you must keep yourself informed. You must know not only what they are, but also how much they cost and where and how to get them. The only way you can know this is to be a regular reader of the advertisements. Advertisements tell of all that the world is doing to make you more comfortable, your work easier, your methods better, your clothing and food problems less irksome. They tell you how you can save time—and effort—and money in the selection of the things that make life worth while. Advertisements are interesting, instructive and highly profitable to you. Keep in touch with modern evolution by reading the advertisements in The Statesman
