Advance in Prune Market Is Announced From East

Advancement of 1 cent a pound on the New York spot market for Oregon prunes of the 40-50 size and offers of 7 1/2 cents a pound are now being made according to advices received Friday by the Oregon Growers' Cooperative Association. The activity of chain stores has absorbed the surplus prunes on the market, it was stated in a telegram received from R. C. Paulus, general manager, now in the east. The New York market stood at 6 1/2 cents earlier in the week, but Thursday night jumped a cent. Few prunes were being delivered at that price. The price set on the New York market is equivalent to 6 1/4 cents at Portland, f.o.b. and customers have been notified of the subsequent advance. Further advances are anticipated soon.

Only 4,500,000 pounds of prunes are now in the hands of the association. It was stated at association headquarters here Friday.

SALEM MARKETS

First asparagus tips and out of doors rhubarb from California were offered on the local markets Friday. The tips were being sold at 20 cents a pound. Brussels sprouts were available at a similar figure. These are of a poorer quality to those being sold during the winter.

YOUNG PEOPLE HEAR ADDRESS

Popular and Effective Meeting at First Baptist Church Last Night

Young people's night at the Baptist revival proved to be a popular and effective meeting. The center and front of the church was completely filled with young folk who joined heartily in the singing. Old favorites were called for and sung. The trombone solo by Mr. Tehow, while Mrs. Tehow accompanied on the piano, was especially enjoyed. After the solo the audience joined in singing the last verse:

All through the mountains, thunder riven,
And up from the rocky steep,
There rose a cry to the gates of heaven,
"Rejoice, I have found my sheep."
And the angels echoed around the throne,
"Rejoice, for the Lord brings back His own."

The sermon by Dr. Trawin was on the rich young ruler who came to Jesus asking what he should do to inherit eternal life. He came running, the record says, and knelt before Jesus; but when Jesus told him what he was to do, to let go of that which was really his master, his property, he arose and went away sorrowful, for he had great riches. "Anything," said Dr. Trawin, "that keeps us is our master. No matter whether riches, or pleasure, or ambition for self, that which controls us masters us. This young man called Jesus master, but in reality his riches mastered him. He lost his great opportunity in his great refusal."

At the close of the sermon a number came forward to accept Christ and an after-meeting for prayer was held. There will be no meeting this evening. Dr. Trawin will preach both morning and evening tomorrow. In the evening his subject will be "His Man Become the Weaker Vessel?" In the afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be a young people's rally, to which all the young people of the city are invited, and Dr. Shanks, the pastor, will address the meeting on the subject, "Wrestlers With northern spring, choice to fancy, the Strong."

Haynes, Yamhill, and Edwin Allen, Forest Grove. The association will take charge of plants of the old organization which are needed, according to M. J. Newhouse, manager, who explained the provisions of the agreement. The contracts will be continuous and will provide withdrawal privileges for 15 days each year.

GROWERS HOLD MEET IN YAMHILL COUNTY

Salem Men Among Those Chosen for Officers in New Organization

PORTLAND, Ore., March 14.—Reorganization of the prune growers of the state into a new, centralized body, which was favored by bankers, businessmen and fruit men in Portland Wednesday, received the unqualified approval of growers of the Willamette valley at a meeting held at Yamhill, Ore., today. The meeting was attended by Portland businessmen and by growers from all parts of western Oregon.

Officers of the new state association named today were Seymour Jones, Salem, president; George Zimmerman, Yamhill, vice president; W. L. Staley, Salem, secretary; directors, George Neuner, Jr., Roseburg; R. W. Hinkley, Roseburg; Charles A. Park, Salem; H. S. Buty, Dallas; W. M. Elliott, Dallas; Oscar

NEW VEGETABLES PROVE POPULAR

Out of Door Varieties Take Place of Hot House Grown Kinds

The first week of the lenten season brings with it an appreciable increase in the demand for fish of various kinds. Salmon and halibut is selling at 39 cents a pound.

Rhubarb other than hot house variety made its appearance on the local market yesterday and is selling at two bunches for 25 cents which is a considerable reduction. The quality is good and the stalks of splendid length and good color.

California asparagus tips are now available on the market and are of exceptionally good quality.

DAUGHERTY MAKES DENIAL OF TESTIMONY

After a conference with the director of the bureau of investigation a circular letter was sent out to all special agents throughout the country instructing them to keep a careful lookout for such violations and also with a view to securing evidence of a conspiracy. A copy of this circular letter is enclosed. Under date of February 9, 1922, the United States attorney at Philadelphia called the department's attention to certain circumstances in connection with the circular letter and he was directed to make a thorough investigation and to prosecute vigorously any person found guilty of transporting the Dempsey-Carpenter film. As it had at that time been brought to the attention of the department that the courts were imposing only a fine which apparently was having no deterrent effect, the department concluded that it would be necessary for the courts to impose a more drastic punishment, that there should be a sentence of imprisonment. The act prescribes a fine of not to exceed $1,000 or imprisonment not to exceed one year, or both.

In the letter to the United States attorney at Philadelphia he was therefore required in the event an indictment was returned in his district and the defendant proposed to enter a plea of guilty to immediately inform the department so that it might delegate someone to appear specially for it. Subsequently, upon receipt of advice as to when the case would be called an attorney from the department was directed to appear before the court and call its attention to the repeated violation of the law and the need of a prison sentence to secure proper respect for it.

The court was told that the department believed the offenses were the result of a prearranged plan to defy the film statute, and that the payment of a fine did not seem to deter further violations whenever a field seemed to offer good financial returns.

The case was that of Joe Griffin the court fined the defendant $1,000.

As opportunity has offered from time to time the department has in communications to the United States attorney in various parts of the country as its files show, emphasized its attitude regarding the vigorous prosecution of cases of this character. There has been an extended investigation as to the substantive offense and a conspiracy in some instances is still in progress with respect to not only the Dempsey-Carpenter film but as to the Willard-Dempsey, the Dempsey-Gibbons and the Dempsey-Firpo films. According to a wire of the 5th instant from Special Agent Wheeler, Los Angeles, Cal., a conspiracy indictment has been returned there involving seven defendants.

Japanese Breakfast Is Silverton Social Event

(Special to The Statesman)—A very pretty social affair of the week was that of the Japanese breakfast given at Dream Cottage Friday morning by Mrs. T. E. Preston. The cottage was converted into an oriental home by means of wisteria, Japanese cherry blossoms, Japanese lanterns, parasols and myriads of butterflies. Daffodils and Oregon grape were used to carry out the cheerful effect.

The guests were met by Mrs. T. E. Geer, and Miss Nellie Moser in Japanese costumes and by Mrs. D. R. Dedrick wearing a Mandarin gown which Merlin Conrad brought from China some time ago. Mrs. Gladwyn Hamre assisted with the serving. Mrs. Hamre was also wearing a Japanese costume. Rice and tea formed part of the menu.

Mrs. J. A. Bennet was honor guest, the occasion being her birthday. She received a handkerchief shower from those present. Other guests included Mrs. H. Good, Mrs. F. Rahn, Mrs. S. A. Gayl, Mrs. D. Geiser, Mrs. E. Oeder, Mrs. John Wolford, Mrs. Dora Whitney, Mrs.

A. Benson, Mrs. E. Lytle, Mrs. W. Gordon, Mrs. I. Steward, Mrs. E. Young, Mrs. Albert Webb, Mrs. J. Oliphant, Mrs. W. Harvey, Mrs. D. Shield, Mrs. A. Dickman, Mrs. W. Eagon, Mrs. C. D. Goss, Mrs. C. Henson, Mrs. H. Scott, Mrs. Merriweather, Mrs. C. Andrews.

of this than we do. They require a certain amount for each bottle and we get just the profits over that price." Oyster corroborated Smith's testimony throughout. Counsel for the Royal Mail line indicated their defense would be that the liquor and narcotics were smuggled and sold without the knowledge of themselves, the ship's master, Captain Walter F. Warner, or other responsible officers.
